

WEST SCRANTON

Case That Is an Outgrowth of the Strike Tried Before Alderman Davies—Lunn-Lawless Nuptials.

Mrs. Warren, of Evans court, went before Alderman Davies yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of William Davis, Joseph Smith and Smith's son-in-law, all of Sweetland street, on the charge of disturbing the peace.

The claims that the defendants threw stones at her home on several occasions because of her husband working in the Mt. Pleasant mine, and she also claimed that recently one of her little girls was hit on the head with a bottle thrown by one of the men.

At the hearing held last evening the little girl could not identify her assailant and as the prosecution was not able to connect Smith and his son-in-law with the affair they were placed under $200 bonds to keep the peace.

"Cyclone Kate" in Trouble.
Mrs. Nellie Allan, a comely young Italian woman, of Kelley's patch appeared before Alderman Noone last evening and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary Boyton, alias "Cyclone Kate" on the charge of disorderly conduct, and calling vile names.

Constable James Clark placed her under arrest and she was immediately given a hearing. The court room was crowded and a very lively time was had at the hearing. After the evidence was all in the alderman discharged the defendant upon the payment of costs.

Lunn-Lawless.
At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Anna Lawless, of Price street and Van Buren avenue, was united in marriage to Thomas Lunn, of South Bromley avenue, at St. Patrick's church.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin as played by Miss Mame Johnson the bridal party entered the church and proceeded up the main aisle to the altar where they were met by Rev. P. A. Lavelle who performed the solemn ceremony.

The bride was carried in a gown of steel gray and carried a prayer book. After the ceremony they were driven to the home of the bride where a reception was held and a wedding supper served.

Social Matters.
A flashlight party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Astringer, 529 Hampton street, on Tuesday evening, by Misses Katie Sheridan and Nellie Scott, in honor of the latter's sister, Miss Gertrude Scott, of Philadelphia.

FREE! FREE! FREE!
Five stamps given away with each bottle of Dufour's French Tar. C. W. JENKINS.

Music and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Edward York, of North Main avenue, pleasantly entertained the members of class No. 20, of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, at their home on Tuesday evening. At a seasonable hour Mrs. York served refreshments.

Invitations were issued on Tuesday for the marriage of Miss Mabel C. Spencer, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spencer, of Jackson street, to David J. Griffiths, of Buffalo. The ceremony will be solemnized at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, September 23, by Rev. J. P. Moffat, and a wedding reception will be held at the cosy club rooms of the Electric City Wheelmen.

Funeral of Mrs. Roberts.
At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon was held the funeral of the late Mrs. John Roberts, who died Sunday afternoon. The services were held at the home, on Keyser avenue, and Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, officiated.

There were flowers in profusion sent by members of the family and sorrowing friends. At the close of the services the funeral cortege moved to the Cambria cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were John Ord, Llewellyn Lewis, John Morris, Isaac Evans, William Lewis and John Canterbury.

Funeral of James Brennan.
The funeral of the late James Brennan, who died on Monday afternoon at the family home on Jackson street, was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. J. J. Dunn officiated at a mass of requiem.

At the close of the services the funeral cortege moved to the Cathedral cemetery where interment was made.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.
Miss Blanche Watkins, of Snyder avenue, is recovering from a severe illness. The funeral of the five months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Shubonic, of the South Van Buren avenue, was held on Monday morning, was held yesterday afternoon, with interment in the Cathedral cemetery.

Arthur R. Kimo, of 116 North Hyde Park avenue, who recently arrived home from Long Island, is ill. Chester Hughes, of North Summer avenue, has returned to Keystone academy. Charles Leber, of Hampton street, has resumed his studies at Colgate university.

For Rent—Inquire hall, 128 So. Main ave., first and third Thursday and every Saturday evening of the month. Apply to J. M. Powell, 125 Washington ave.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Simpson Epworth League will be held this evening in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Francis, of Evans court, have welcomed a son.

John O'Hara, of Lafayette street, who was arrested on Tuesday for being drunk and abusing his father and mother-in-law, after spending the night in jail, paid the fine and yesterday afternoon.

Funeral Director F. W. Tague and son, Willard, returned home yesterday from a visit with relatives in Luzerne.

The Father Whittity society, one of the largest temperance organizations in the state now with a standing membership of 500, is endeavoring to have its membership reach the 600 mark. The member who brings in the most new members from now until Christmas will receive a valuable prize for his work and great interest is being manifested by the total abstainers in this contest.

The society will meet in regular session this evening and it is said that twenty-five new members will be initiated. A social session will follow this meeting.

Edward Tollman, of Gardner avenue, was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends at his home Tuesday evening. Singing and dancing with the usual party diversions were indulged in until a seasonable hour when refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Annie Neary, Alice Campbell, Marie Kelly, Clara Murry, Belle Peel, Mary Linn, Bessie Kelly, B. McLana, Alice Golden, Florence Tallman, and Mosses, John Simms, George McKee, George Gillbons, William Igo, Perry Thomas, Edward Walsh, Bailey McCarrick and Edward Tallman.

Miss Hattie Sayre, of Deacon street, was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends recently. The evening was spent with the usual party diversions, games, singing and dancing. Being indulged in until a seasonable hour when refreshments were served. The guests were entertained during the evening with musical selections, both vocal and instrumental. Among those present were: Misses Olive Thomas, Nellie Luddy, Fannie Collins, Mabel Murton, Francis Brown, William Mack, Marie Sayre, Margaret Dinkler, Minnie Muffey, Mary Muffey, Jennie Lewis, Laura Coons, Grace Coons, Hattie Sayre, Emma Sayre, and Messrs. Walter McCulloch, George Buchas, James Watkins, Edward Howe, John Zeigman, David Bowen, Charles Diney, James Courtney, George Campbell, Charles Phillips, Harry Zeigman, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Sayre and Mrs. Peter McCuskie, of School street, and Miss Anna Lutey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lutey, of Parker street, were united in marriage Saturday evening by Alderman Ruddy, of the central city. The bride was attended by Mrs. Martha Thomas, of Green Ridge, while Edward McCuskie acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. McCuskie were recipients of many handsome and costly presents.

Daniel Williams, of Margaret avenue, has returned from a three weeks' vacation which he spent at New York and Coney Island.

SOUTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE IN ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

George Reif and Miss Margaret Maiera United by Rev. Peter Christ. Miss Sarah T. Morley Wedded to Patrick H. Coyne in St. John's Church by Rev. E. J. Melley. Julian Cooper Made an Effort to Shoot His Brother-in-Law, Charles Aylsworth.

St. Mary's German Catholic church, on River street, was filled yesterday morning by friends who had gathered to witness the ceremony which made George Reif and Miss Margaret Maiera man and wife. Professor Ackerman played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, and at 9 o'clock, after a nuptial mass, the solemn words that joined the couple were pronounced by Rev. Peter Christ.

The bride was prettily attired in cream mousseline-de-soie, trimmed with accordion pleating. Two sisters of the groom attended the bride, Miss Louise Reif was maid of honor and Miss Margaret Reif was bridesmaid. The bride carried lilies of the valley; the maid of honor, tea roses, and the bridesmaid pink roses. Two brothers of the bride, Alexander and August Maiera, attended the groom, while J. F. Elden and John Reif acted as ushers.

A march from Lohengrin was played as the bridal party left the church, prior to which several selections were rendered by the church choir, of which the groom is a member. A reception took place afterwards at the home of the bride's parents, 1113 South Webster avenue, where the newly wedded couple received the congratulations of numerous friends. Mr. and Mrs. Reif left at 4 o'clock for New York and Boston, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Coyne-Morley Nuptials.
Patrick H. Coyne and Miss Sarah T. Morley, two prominent young people, were joined in marriage in St. John's church, on Fig street, yesterday morning. The solemn ceremony was witnessed by friends of both parties, who had gathered to witness the ceremony. As the bridal party approached the altar, the Mendelssohn wedding march was rendered by the organist, Miss Kate Reardon, Malachi Coyne, Jr., a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Lydia Barrett was bridesmaid.

The bride presented a charming appearance, being attired in white chiffon, over white tulle, a white hat with ostrich feathers matched the gown and a prayer book was carried in place of flowers. The bridesmaid also wore white silk, a black Gainsborough hat, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and tea roses. After a nuptial mass, the marriage was performed by Rev. E. J. Melley, and several solos were rendered by Miss Wilfred Melvin. The ushers were Thomas A. Donohoe, John T. Gavin, Thomas Hurst, Edward Conerton, and A. J. Cawley, of Archibald.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, on Pear street, after which Mrs. Coyne left on the 12:40 train for Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and other points of interest. Mr. Coyne is a son of Select Councilman Malachi Coyne, and is head bookkeeper for the Lackawanna brewery. Mrs. Coyne is well known and highly esteemed among the residents of this side. They have the best wishes of a multitude of friends in their new sphere of life.

A Desperate Man.
Julian Cooper, of Brock street, indulged in liquor yesterday, and it is only due to his unsteady aim that he is not accused of a very serious crime today. He arrived home about noon, intoxicated, and began to abuse his wife and children. They sought refuge with Charles Aylsworth, who resides opposite. He followed them and continued to ill-use them, when he was remonstrated with by Aylsworth.

This made him furious, and he struck viciously at Aylsworth, who is his brother-in-law, and quite a small man. After receiving a severe beating, Aylsworth managed to get away and started upstairs to get out of harm's way. Cooper drew a revolver and fired at the fleeing man. Fortunately the shot went into the bulkhead. Mrs. Coyne is well known and highly esteemed among the residents of this side. They have the best wishes of a multitude of friends in their new sphere of life.

Basket Ball Season.
Interest is becoming lively hereabouts in the fascinating game known as basketball, and the many friends of the undefeated Defenders, who have their headquarters at St. John's hall, on Stone avenue, will be glad to learn that the players are rapidly rounding into their old-time form.

They gave a splendid account of themselves last season and defeated all comers in the state contests, among them being the teams from Bloomsburg, St. Clair, Pottsville, Philadelphia, and also the strong Stars and Crackerjacks of the teams of North Scranton.

The line-up of the team this coming season will be practically the same as last year, and they will be again in charge of John T. McGrath. The following is a list of the players: O'Brien, Kane, Rathford, Quinn, Prendergast, Boland, Moriarity, McIntyre, Collins, Snyder and Tighe.

NUBS OF NEWS.
Rudolph Lyde was arrested yesterday on a charge of embezzlement preferred by Henry Horn. It seems that Lyde sold meat to the amount of $12.50, but failed to turn over the cash. After a hearing Alderman Lentz postponed the case pending a settlement.

Joseph Melvin, formerly bookkeeper for the Scranton Iron company, has accepted a position with Hand's brewery, in Pawtucket, R. I., for which place he left yesterday.

Members of Christ Lutheran church on Cedar avenue, enjoyed a trolley ride about the city last evening.

Mrs. John C. Blatter and family have arrived home from Lakes Underwood, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. Otto Hage, Mrs. Ernest Schmidt, and Miss Minnie Hamm died yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamm, 616 Pittston avenue, aged 24 years. The deceased had been an invalid since childhood, and had borne her suffering with great fortitude. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and services will be held in St. Mary's German Catholic church, on River street.

FUNERALS.
The funeral of Arthur Reese, of Blakey, formerly of the West Side, Scranton, will take place from the family residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. David Spencer, D. D. of Blakey, will officiate. Edward Howell, of the West Side, will conduct the services. Interment in Washburn street cemetery.

NORTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE IN ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

George Reif and Miss Margaret Maiera United by Rev. Peter Christ. Miss Sarah T. Morley Wedded to Patrick H. Coyne in St. John's Church by Rev. E. J. Melley. Julian Cooper Made an Effort to Shoot His Brother-in-Law, Charles Aylsworth.

St. Mary's German Catholic church, on River street, was filled yesterday morning by friends who had gathered to witness the ceremony which made George Reif and Miss Margaret Maiera man and wife. Professor Ackerman played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, and at 9 o'clock, after a nuptial mass, the solemn words that joined the couple were pronounced by Rev. Peter Christ.

The bride was prettily attired in cream mousseline-de-soie, trimmed with accordion pleating. Two sisters of the groom attended the bride, Miss Louise Reif was maid of honor and Miss Margaret Reif was bridesmaid. The bride carried lilies of the valley; the maid of honor, tea roses, and the bridesmaid pink roses. Two brothers of the bride, Alexander and August Maiera, attended the groom, while J. F. Elden and John Reif acted as ushers.

A march from Lohengrin was played as the bridal party left the church, prior to which several selections were rendered by the church choir, of which the groom is a member. A reception took place afterwards at the home of the bride's parents, 1113 South Webster avenue, where the newly wedded couple received the congratulations of numerous friends. Mr. and Mrs. Reif left at 4 o'clock for New York and Boston, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Coyne-Morley Nuptials.
Patrick H. Coyne and Miss Sarah T. Morley, two prominent young people, were joined in marriage in St. John's church, on Fig street, yesterday morning. The solemn ceremony was witnessed by friends of both parties, who had gathered to witness the ceremony. As the bridal party approached the altar, the Mendelssohn wedding march was rendered by the organist, Miss Kate Reardon, Malachi Coyne, Jr., a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Lydia Barrett was bridesmaid.

The bride presented a charming appearance, being attired in white chiffon, over white tulle, a white hat with ostrich feathers matched the gown and a prayer book was carried in place of flowers. The bridesmaid also wore white silk, a black Gainsborough hat, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and tea roses. After a nuptial mass, the marriage was performed by Rev. E. J. Melley, and several solos were rendered by Miss Wilfred Melvin. The ushers were Thomas A. Donohoe, John T. Gavin, Thomas Hurst, Edward Conerton, and A. J. Cawley, of Archibald.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, on Pear street, after which Mrs. Coyne left on the 12:40 train for Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and other points of interest. Mr. Coyne is a son of Select Councilman Malachi Coyne, and is head bookkeeper for the Lackawanna brewery. Mrs. Coyne is well known and highly esteemed among the residents of this side. They have the best wishes of a multitude of friends in their new sphere of life.

A Desperate Man.
Julian Cooper, of Brock street, indulged in liquor yesterday, and it is only due to his unsteady aim that he is not accused of a very serious crime today. He arrived home about noon, intoxicated, and began to abuse his wife and children. They sought refuge with Charles Aylsworth, who resides opposite. He followed them and continued to ill-use them, when he was remonstrated with by Aylsworth.

This made him furious, and he struck viciously at Aylsworth, who is his brother-in-law, and quite a small man. After receiving a severe beating, Aylsworth managed to get away and started upstairs to get out of harm's way. Cooper drew a revolver and fired at the fleeing man. Fortunately the shot went into the bulkhead. Mrs. Coyne is well known and highly esteemed among the residents of this side. They have the best wishes of a multitude of friends in their new sphere of life.

Basket Ball Season.
Interest is becoming lively hereabouts in the fascinating game known as basketball, and the many friends of the undefeated Defenders, who have their headquarters at St. John's hall, on Stone avenue, will be glad to learn that the players are rapidly rounding into their old-time form.

They gave a splendid account of themselves last season and defeated all comers in the state contests, among them being the teams from Bloomsburg, St. Clair, Pottsville, Philadelphia, and also the strong Stars and Crackerjacks of the teams of North Scranton.

The line-up of the team this coming season will be practically the same as last year, and they will be again in charge of John T. McGrath. The following is a list of the players: O'Brien, Kane, Rathford, Quinn, Prendergast, Boland, Moriarity, McIntyre, Collins, Snyder and Tighe.

NUBS OF NEWS.
Rudolph Lyde was arrested yesterday on a charge of embezzlement preferred by Henry Horn. It seems that Lyde sold meat to the amount of $12.50, but failed to turn over the cash. After a hearing Alderman Lentz postponed the case pending a settlement.

Joseph Melvin, formerly bookkeeper for the Scranton Iron company, has accepted a position with Hand's brewery, in Pawtucket, R. I., for which place he left yesterday.

Members of Christ Lutheran church on Cedar avenue, enjoyed a trolley ride about the city last evening.

Mrs. John C. Blatter and family have arrived home from Lakes Underwood, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. Otto Hage, Mrs. Ernest Schmidt, and Miss Minnie Hamm died yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamm, 616 Pittston avenue, aged 24 years. The deceased had been an invalid since childhood, and had borne her suffering with great fortitude. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and services will be held in St. Mary's German Catholic church, on River street.

FUNERALS.
The funeral of Arthur Reese, of Blakey, formerly of the West Side, Scranton, will take place from the family residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. David Spencer, D. D. of Blakey, will officiate. Edward Howell, of the West Side, will conduct the services. Interment in Washburn street cemetery.

"Cool Mornings."

"Cool Evenings."

A Fall Top Coat is really indispensable during the "cool evenings" of Autumn. Such a coat is included in the wardrobe of every good dresser. The stylish "Short or Box" Coat that's just arrived from the tailor's will be the popular fashion among the young men. If you prefer a style that's cut longer we have them in all the new cloths, shades of tan, olive and brown covert; also the black and Oxford vicunas. There's the advantage of a large assortment, and an array of styles here from $10 to $18

SAMTER BROS.

COMPLETE OUTFITTERS.

COOLER WEATHER REMINDS YOU

Of warmer house clothing. Lucky for us, these new goods arrived with cooler temperature. Timely for you, that you are enabled to make your selections and secure your seamstress ere the fall business rush comes on.

SWISS FLANNELS—Extra fine quality, suitable for Kimonas and Gowns, in dainty checks, stripes and Persians, new and handsome patterns. 10c yard

PERSIAN FLANNETTES—Manufactured exclusively for Morning Jackets, Kimonas, Gowns, Etc., two qualities. 8c and 10c yd

MELDRUM, SCOTT & COMPANY

126 WYOMING AVENUE.

AMUSEMENTS.

Dixie's Theatre, HENRY FARNSWORTH DIXIE, Lessee and Manager. WEEK OF SEPT. 8. Ameta, the Great Fire Dancer. NEXT WEEK. Paul Stevens & Co., in Comedy and Great Vaudeville Acts. Two performances daily, 7:30 and 8:15. Prices—15, 25, 35 and 50c. Special matinee prices.

HEARING IN EQUITY CASE (Concluded from Page 3.)

sparks from one of the defendant's engines set fire to the grass and timber on his place destroying everything on two acres of land as well as 80 yards of board fence.

MADE A CONFESSION. And Signed a Statement Acknowledging Her Guilt. Mrs. O'Neil, alias "Joe" Roney, a colored woman, residing in Halstead court, who has been under suspicion by the police for some time for robbing men who have come in contact with her, yesterday made a confession to Superintendent Day and signed a statement acknowledging her guilt.

An Appeal Taken. Attorney John J. Murphy filed an appeal with Clerk of the Courts Daniels yesterday from the summary conviction rendered by Alderman R. J. Ruddy on Sept. 8 of John Kasmas and Ignatz Yakubovitz who were convicted of disorderly conduct in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station and fined $10 and costs each and in default committed to jail.

It is alleged in the petition for the appeal that the defendants were not guilty of creating a disturbance and that their conviction was unjust. Joseph Cavish of 519 Locust street became their bondsmen in the sum of $200 for the appeal.

Grand Jury Report Today. The grand jury will make its first report to court today and it will consist of more than 150 cases. There is every indication now that the jury will be in session for two full weeks.

Yesterday the jury passed upon a large number of riot, threats and assault and battery cases which grew out of strike disturbances.

They Entered Bail. Aleck Warszenski charged with assault and battery on Antenna Warszenski, entered bail before Judge Newcomb yesterday. Charles Miller of 1837

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyceum Theatre. M. Reis, Lessee and Manager. A. J. Dufey, Business Manager. THURSDAY NIGHT, SEPTEMBER 11. Miss Bertha Creighton, In the Romantic Comedy Drama, "A COLONIAL GIRL" Re-written by Miss Grace Livingston Furness. The most elaborate scenic production of the season, complete in its magnificent entirety. Handsomely costumed; artistically produced; historically correct. Prices—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Seats now on sale.

Saturday Matinee and Night, Sept. 13. The Only Attraction of Its Kind on Earth Royal Lilliputians In their New Spectacular Production In Posterland Introducing all the well known characters of the day. Katzenjammer Kids, Six Hopkins, Foxy Grandpa, Happy Hoodlum, etc. People, both Large and Small—40¢. An entertainment to amuse old and young. SPECIAL CHILDREN'S MATINEE. Matinee Prices—Children, 15c to any part of houses. Adults, 25 and 50c. Night Prices—25, 50, 75c, $1.00. Diagram opens Thursday at 9 a. m.

Academy of Music M. Reis, Lessee and Manager. A. J. Dufey, Business Manager. Week Starting Monday Sept. 8. The Schiller Stock Company Headed by the Young Romantic Actor, Campbell Stratton and Marie Sheridan Wolford, for a repertoire of recent successes. Thursday Matinee. "SLAVES OF RUSSIA." THURSDAY NIGHT. "DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE" Cardrol of scenery. Six great specialties Friday. Souvenir night. PRICES—15, 25 and 50 cents. Matinee 10 and 25 cents. Seats now on sale.

North Main avenue became his bondsmen in the sum of $300. Before the same judge Anthony McNulty of 1908 Luzerne street yesterday became security for Frank Katosky who is charged with robbery and assault and battery.

Nippy Winds

Have made many a chilly hour and suggested the need of starting up the furnace or looking up warm comforts. Mornings and nights you have seen the lightly clad individual shiver slightly when the more careful ones wore wraps and cloaks.

Summer is gone and while we may still have some warm days, thoughtful people are hurrying preparations for cool weather.

Real Shetland Shawls
So soft and kindly to the touch and warmer than anything else of the same weight. Make beautiful shoulder wraps.

Silk Shawls and Capes
Are dressy and comfortable, and not as expensive as one would expect, considering their exquisite beauty.

Automobile Capes
Are much worn by the smart set. They come in all colors and are an excellent protection against chilly winds, besides being easily put aside when not wanted.

There Is No Assortment
Of Ladies' Wraps in this city that will compare with ours, and no other store in town where values in that line will compare with ours.

Silkoline and Other Draperies
For beautifying the home, or providing solid comforts in home-made quilts or freshly covered quilts are much in demand these days. Over a hundred different new designs await your inspection here, at prices ranging from 6c to 12 1-2c the Yard for mostly full yard wide goods.

New Flannelettes, Prettier Than Ever
No stint to the range of patterns and none but good quality carried in our stock. Our line At 10c the Yard is a surprise to all who have looked over it, because of its excellence in quality and great assortment in styles; but there are others.

Globe Warehouse.