MEETING OF ABINGTON BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

A Large Congregation Present at the Exercises Held in the Baptist Church-Luther Keller, of Scranton, Moderator-Introductory Sermon by Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., of Carbondale-Interesting Re-Services Today.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Sept. 10.-Yesterday was a perfect day for the holding of the ninety-fifth anniversary of the Abington Baptist association, which conprevious day laid the dust in the roads and lowered the temperature several flegrees, so that comfort was enjoyed In every respect. There was a large ongregation present when the morning session was called to order by the moderator, Luther Keller, of Scranton, at 10 o'clock, and Rev. R. R. Thompson, of Dalton, conducted a twenty minutes' devotional service. The auditorium of the church, in which the meetings are being held, has been recently beautifully redecorated in the interior with new paper and modern tircle pews. At the close of the devotional exercises a report on committee arrangements was made by the thairman, Rev. G. R. Smith, of Factlerk, F. M. Koehler, read the rules of was read.

The address of welcome was delivered by the pastor of the church, Rev. G. R. Smith, in his characteristic earnest and logical manner. After extend-ing a hearty welcome to the town and to the homes of the people of Factoryille, which is being confirmed by their nerous hospitality, he defined the poses of this associational gathering
