JAMES WILSON, OF NEW YORK, IS IN THE CITY.

He Is National President of the Pattern Makers and He Is Here in the Interest of the Members of That Craft-Railroads Suffering from Lack of Equipment-Lackawanna Is Branching Out Into New England-The New Trolley Road to Hazleton-Board for Today.

James Wilson, of New York city, naunion, is at the St. Charles. He has come here to spend a week in reorganizing the men of his craft, whose local union suffered seriously during the machinists' strike, in which the patternmakers participated for a time.

There are about forty patternmakers in the city and a dozen or so in Car-bondale and other towns of the county. President Wilson is arranging to have the local men meet and perfect an organization some night next week. He is being assisted in the work by National Organizer Hugh Frayne, of the American Federation of Labor.

Lack of Equipment.

"A railroad official connected with one of the larger eastern systems says that he is satisfied that the roads as a whole have not sufficient equipment to take care of the business now in sight and which may reasonably be expected during the coming winter," says an exchange. "In particular, he cites as evidence of this the large number of orders for new locomotives that are placed daily. One compilation of such orders given in a week shows that they amounted to nearly six hundred, of which four hundred were freight en-

"All parts of the country were repre-sented in these orders. They have, however, swamped the locomotive builders, and it is next to impossible to get an engine delivered in anything like quick time. The builders have not kept up with the demands of their trade and the railroads are hampered thereby. The general car situation is satisfactory, but the officials say three more such weeks as last will use up their surplus of cars and bring on the car shortage which all have tried to avoid. This year, although the crop of small grains has been large, weather conditions and the unwillingness of farmers to sell their good grain have prevented any great pressure of wheat and oats at any point for more than a

New Trolley Line.

One of the pleasures of these delightful fall days is a ride over the new Hazleton & Wilkes-Bare trolley road from Hazle park to the mouth of the tunnel on the Wilkes-Barre mountain, says the Hazleton Standard.

The track is now down to the mouth of the tunnel on the Wilkes-Barre mountain and is in excellent condition. The third rail, which is sixty feet in length and of the best steel, has been distributed the entire distance and is being placed in position. The pole line for the telephone and which will also carry the high tension feed wire, is completed as far as the tunnel. The construction of this line has been a tedious task, as every hole in the mountain had to be blasted. The power house is practically comp oleted and in the course of a week or two the company will be able to furnish power, as there are only a few minor details to be perfected on the large dynamos. A sub-station has also been erected near the Nescopeck mountain. Power will be caried to this station by wire from St. Johns, and will be used for the speeding of the third rail. track is well ballasted and lined up, while the scenery through Conyngham and down the Nescopeck mountain at this time is magnificent. The elevation on the mountain is 1.630 feet above tidewater, and gives a good view of Prospect Rocks at Upper Lehigh and a portion of West Hazleton. Work on the tunnel is being pushed with all possible rapidity and there is now only about 450 feet between the Lackawanna Branching Out.

The Lackawanna is pushing for bustness in New England territory. Recently it made a traffic agreement with New Haven for the handling of freight to and from New England points via New York, in addition to a similar arrangement with the Boston and Maine via Binghamton, thus giving the Lackawanna a valuable entrance into New England. It is understood that the Lackawanna now contemplates extensive improvements at New York, although the exact nature of the plans cannot be stated at this time. The improvements will undoubtedly greatly increase the road's importance as a factor in the traffic of New York.-Philadelphia Stockholder.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

father had for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and tried every means possible to effect a cure, but all to no avail," says John H. Zirkle, of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle of it cured him and he has not suffered with this disease for over eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well and although sixty years of age can do as much work as a young man. These are facts and you can use the above if you desire.", Mr. Zirkle and his brother publish the Philippi Republican. This remedy is for sale by

THEATRICAL.

"A Colonial Girl."

A three-act drama of the Revolutionary period, "A Colonial Girl," was seen at the Lyceum last night. Upon its former appearance here, Howard Gould was starred in it. Last night, Miss Bertha Creighton had that distinction. So much for the versatility of the play, which permits of a male or female star, just as pleases the manager.

Miss Creighton is a gracious and beau-tiful young woman, who tast night made a decidedly good impression in the role of Mollie Hedden, who is the victim of cruel misrepresentation to keep her from her husband, whom she loves devotedly, but who she is made to believe has wedded her because jilted by a woman of higher social position.

The play has a strong military at-nosphere throughout, the red uniforms of the English soldiers lending color to the stage pictures. Supporting Miss Creighton is a very good company, the prominent members of which are Robert E. Homans, James A. Mahony, William Granger, Violet Kimball and Grace Quackenbush.

Programme That Pleases All. The business at the Dixle theater the present week has been the most en-couraging yet, and the steadily-increasing attendance is best evidence of the firm hold that the enterprise has taken upon the theater-going public. "The Story of Cinderella," Ameta's fire dance, comedy sketches gy Sisson and Wallace, and Murphy and Willard, songs and dances by the colored vocalists, Rastus and Banks, and the exhibitions given by the Imperial Japs, contribute towards a bill that is varied to suit all.

Lilliputian's Trip to Europe.

Major James D. Doyle, the talented midget Irish comedian, who makes thous-ands laugh with his natural wit in the Royal Lilliputians company, spent his vacation in Europe, and on the trip over was a general favorite, both on account of his diminutive appearance and his ready fund of humor. "The Royal Lilliputains" will present

"Posterland" at the Lyceum Saturday afternoon and evening. Prices for the special children's matinee-children 15c, to any part of the house; adults, 25c and 50c. Seats now on sale.

"The Little Mother."

Many interesting stories have written about the tenement district of Greater New York, but not one has ever before been offered to the public where the author has confined himself to original ideas, as Lawrence Marston's new play of "The Little Motner," which will e offered at the Lyceum Tuesday night. No melodrama has ever held the mir-ror up to nature more vividly or ac-curately than does the story of "The Little Mother." As a drama, with its plot and scenes laid in New York city, plot and scenes and it is justly entitled to the ceded it, and it is justly entitled to the distinction. Heroism, comedy, villainy, pathos and heart interest abound througout. Special scenery, mechanical and electrical effects are promised. Seats on sale Saturday at 9 a. m

"The Fatal Wedding."

The next attraction at the Academy of Music for three days, starting Monday night, is "The Fatal Wedding." This highly successful play will be produced on exactly the same scenic splen-dor and with the same cast that charac-terized its presentation at the Grand which appeals to the sympathies of an Opera House. New York, last season. The play is a story of New York life, audience by reason of the stirring incidents which are cleverly woven into a story of love and adventure, with pathetic and comedy scenes alternating. Matinees Tuesday and Wednesday. Seats

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

The Schiller Stock company will present a refined society drama, entitled, "A Wife's Honor," at the Academy this af-ternoon. Tonight, "The Indian" will be epeated.

Acting Manager Sisson announces that George Gorman, of minstrel fame, will be one of the attractions at Dixle's thea-ter next week. Mr Gorman will be aster next week. Mr Gorman will be assisted by a well-known star, and will apepar in a comedy sketch, which will, of course, be among the best.

Louis Mann's role in "Hoch the Consul" is that of a German-American officially representing this country abroad.

Odette Tyler has placed her signature to a contract with Charles Frohman, and will probably be one of that gentleman's stars next season.

Stars next season.

George Boniface, jr., and John L. Gilbert are playing the parts in "The Stroll-ers," originally created by Francis Wil-son and Eddie Foy. Marguerite Sylva is

THE MARKETS

New York, Sept. 11 .- The "street" experienced a genuine surprise today, when the directors of the St. Paul road placed the common stock on a 7 per cent, basis. This was better by half of 1 per cent, than had been expected, and the market, which had been unsettled all day as a result of conflicting rumors regarding St. Paul and an advance in call money to 11 per cent., closed very active but weak. The list opened with considerable strength. The most noteworthy movement at the opening was Baltimore and Ohio. The strength of that stock was explained later, when it became known that the directors of the road had authorized an issue of extra common stock to the amount of $42,-500,000, the issue carrying with it the right to subscribe at par. In the same early movement there were gains in Missouri Pacific, Louisville and Nashville. Denver and Rio Grande, Southern Railway, Reading, Chesapeake and Ohio and other coalers. Rumors later found to be false were responsible for a rise in Colorado Fuel, which soon lost its improvement. Initial dealings also showed better prices for American Hide and Leather (newly listed), American Smelting, the local tractions, Chicago Union Traction and Tennessee Coal and Iron. Following this movement, St. Paul, which had been comparatively inconspicuous, began to show marked heaviness on profit-taking, followed by rumors of dividend disappointment. Traders seized the opportunity to sell the list, and further uncertainty was occasioned by rumors that the banks contemplated a campaign against certain high-priced industrials and pool stocks as a whole. The afternoon session brought a slightly better tone, but all hands were waiting on St. Paul and supporting orders in Western Union, Baltimore and Ohio, and several other stocks helped to steady the list. Anouncement of the dividend action on St. Paul caused a rally of more than two points in that stock and the balance of the list was strengthened, but not to any great degree. St. Paul, on ransactions in excess of 60,000 shares egistered a net loss of 11/2 points. The lay's business was rather narrow, hough total operations amounted to over one million shares.

Total sales for the day, 1,017,700 hares. Railroad bonds were very irregular oday, but movements generally were narrow. Total sales, par value, $4,505,-United States new 4's declined 1/2; the 's % and the old 4's ½ per cent, on the last call.
