ANNIVERSARY GATHERING

EXERCISES OF THE ABINGTON BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

An Open Air Service on the Campus of Keystone Academy-Interesting Address of Prof. Evans-The Final Session-Committees Announced by Moderator Keller-Next Meeting of the Association Will Be Held in Scranton.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Sept. 11.-About two hundred delegates have been in attendance at the exercises of the Abington Baptist association, which have been held in the Baptist church in this place during the past three days. In many respects this has been one of the best anniversary gatherings of the association for a long time. Excellent adered, and the delegates return to their nomes wiser in the things of God's kingdom, and spiritually uplifted with a happy remembrance of the hospitable entertainment shown them by the people of this beautiful and cultured

The exercises of yesterday began at 8.30 o'clock with an open air service on the campus of Keystone academy, in the front of the academy buildings. There were more than two hundred students and delegates present. Rev. H. P. East, of Clark's Green, was in charge of the service. Rev. W. B. Grow offered prayer at the beginning, and Evangelist Wells, Dundaff, led the assembly in song. Principal Elkanah Hully gave an address of welcome. which was fittingly responded to by Dr. B. G. Beddoe, of Scranton. At the close prayers were offered by Rev. Henry S. Potter, of Scranton, and Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., Carbondale.

ADDRESS OF PROF. EVANS.

At 9.20 o'clock the morning sermon of the association was opened, with Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., of Scranton, in the chair, in the absence of Moderator Keller. An unusually large attendance was present at this session. The order of the programme was taken up with the reading of church letters by the clerk. The letters showed that during the past year 209 baptisms have occurred. Mrs. William Guy read a very interesting historical sketch of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, Scranton. Professor Milton G. Evans, D. D., of Crozer Theological seminary, Chester, Pa., delivered a most able address on "The Aim of Min-isterial Education." He said in part: "A man may be an educated man and not an educated minister. It is to be taken for granted that a young man entering the ministry will have common sense, plety and moral worth. Having these he needs education to make an effective minister. Educated men have been called by God to do His work. The insidious foes of the church are not the saloons, the gambling dens, etc., but the philosophy that creeps into men's minds. It is the philosophy of life that sends men to these places. No man has a right to devote himself to the Christian ministry unless he devotes what he is and what he may become by training in schools. All may not be able to get a collegiate education, but if a man puts off his entering the ministry until thirty, and takes time for an adequate education, he will last longer in the ministry."

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., of Blakely, made a report in behalf of the Home Mission society, and Mrs. A. H. Smith sang beautifully a solo. The annua doctrinal sermon was preached by Rev A. H. Smith. Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., read the Scriptures, and Rev. R. R. Thompson, Da! Afered prayer Rev. Smith is the able pastor of the North Main avenue church, Scranton, and is a pulpit crator of great power. His sermon was given the closest attention as he discoursed upon "The Love of Christ," and his text was Ephesians, ill:14-19. The sermon sparkled with profound thoughts, clothed in eloquent language. Among other things he said: "Love is not simply an affection, but a principle of action." In defining the glory of God he declared it to be his charac-The earth is full of the glory of God because it is full of His character. What God has we may have. All religious systems will yet put their crowns on Christ. You cannot raise tulips from heaven unless you get your bulbs from Christ. We have not a love because of a relationship, but a rela-tionship because of a love." He graphleally and impressively depicted the wonderful love of Christ and its effect upon human hearts. A collection was taken at the end of the sermon for the "Ministers' and Widows' Fund." With prayer the session came to a close.

FINAL SESSION.

The final session of the association began at 2 o'clock with devotional service, led by Rev. W. F. Clark, of Waverly. Most of the time was taken up with business and reports of comreading of the following standing committees by Moderator Keller:

Systematic Beneficence-Thomas de Gruchy, Grant Lewis, G. T. Gibson, A. W. Gardner, J. V. Davies.

THE NEXT MEETING.

The association will meet next year n the First Baptist church, Scranton. The introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. R. R. Thompson; alernate, Rev. C. H. Spalding, and the loctrinal sermon will be preached by Rev. G. R. Smith, with Rev. H. H. Haris, alternate. The report for the Pubication society was made by Rev. R. R. Thompson, and Rev. G. R. Smith nade a report on foreign missions, while C. M. Hathaway reported for the committee on obituaries. Rev. H. J. Whalen read a report on the State Mission society. The following resolution, presented by Rev. A. H. Smith, was unanimously adopted:

MORMORN MISSIONARIES WORK. "Resolved. That we express to the Factoryville Baptist church our sincere appreciation of their very delightful Christian hospitality extended to the ninety-fifth anniversary of the Abington Baptist association. We rejoice with the Factoryville church in the abundant evidence of financial and spiritual prosperity, and pray God's richest blessing upon our brother, the pastor, whom we esteem very highly in ove; upon his devoted and efficient companion and upon his church. We recognize in the daily press a very powerful and efficient agency for moldng public opinion in the cause of righteousness and truth, and record appreciation of the Scranton Tribune and Scranton Republican for uniform couresy and for liberal space given the reports of this annual gathering."

Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., spoke in behalf of the Pennsylvania Baptist Educational society. He referred to the lamentable fact of a decrease in the number of men entering the Christian ministry, and made an appeal for the churches to pray more for ministers and to give more to educate them. An adiress on the work of the Home Mission society was delivered by Rev. E. B. Palmer, D. D., of Philadelphia.

The closing service was of a devotional character and was conducted by Rev. W. B. Grow, who is the oldest ninister in the association. Evangelist E. E. Wells sang in a pleasing manner "Mother's Prayer." Several brief adiresses were made, expressive of their great enjoyment in attending the association, and adjournment followed.
