THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1902.

Alderman Noone Had a Number of South Washington Avenue People Before Him Yesterday-Miss Jones to Talk.

Susie Manchento, of South Washing- | McColligan were called to the house ton avenue, appeared before Alderman and when they attempted to place Noone, yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of John Zinzil, also of South Washington avenue, on the charge of assault and battery, of kicking his wife he was up against calling vile names and making threats the law and after having the club to kill. Zingil was placed under arrest and given a hearing which resulted in his discharge on the first two charges, he being placed under $200 bail on the charge of threats. M. J. Harris qualified as bondsman.

Susle Manchinto, the same prosecutrix as in the previous case, swore out a warrant for the arest of John Joviskey, of South Washington avenue, on the charge of assault and battery, threats to kill and disorderly conduct. As in the first case the evidence was not sufficient to hold him on the first two charges, but it was shown that he was the ringleader of a bad crowd in his neighborhood and so he was compelled to pay the costs on the disorderly conduct charge.

Richards Club Wins.

The third and last quoit game be tween the Richards and Cambria Quolt club, for the championship, was held on Thursday evening, on the Cambria club grounds on Price street. A large crowd was in attendance, and they expressed themselves as being most thor-oughly satisfied with the bright and interesting game, which resulted in a victory for the Richards club by a score of 31 to 23.

The first game between the clubs was played on the Richards club grounds, and was won by the Cambria club, by a score of 31 to 30. The second game was played on the Cambria grounds, and was won by the Richards team by a score of 31 to 18. The winning club express themselves as highly pleased with the victory, as this is the first contest game they have entered. The contest was a friendly one, and the losing club received almost as many congratulations as the winning club. John Hughes and John Morris pitched for the Richards club.

A Brutal Man.

Patrick Joyce, of Christ court, was arrested for treating his wife in a most brutal manner. Joyce was decidedly drunk and because his wife did not move just to suit him he deliberately kicked her out of the house onto the porch, and then not satisfied kicked her down the front steps, ten in num-

Joyce under arrest he produced a heavy ax and threatened to use it on them. To his surprise he found that instead the law and after having the club used on him he submitted to arrest.

Good Fellows Entertained.

West Side assemblies, No. 391 and 388, Royal Society of Good Fellows, attended a banquet given in their honor by Assembly No. 19, at Wilkes-Barre. There were about two hundred in attendance, including the premier, Dr. MacGregor, of Montague, Maine. The occasion was a most happy one, and after the menu prepared by Caterer Becker had been enjoyed, the merrymaking began.

Dr. Weaver, of Wilkes-Barre, was toastmaster and delighted the Good Fellows with his witty remarks. Frank Stover and William Williams, of Assembly No. 391, and Brother Bates, of No. 388, contributed to the pleasure of the evening by responding to toasts on behalf of the West Side Good Fellows. Dr. MacGregor, Supreme Deputy William Finney and W. W. Davis transacted some very important business pertaining to the order, at Hotel Jermyn yesterday afternoon.

Pleasant Party.

Miss Edith Griffiths, of 145 South Filmore avenue, entertained a party of friends at her home on Thursday evening. Vocal and plano selections were given by the Misses Tessie Brogan, Margaret Duffy, Bridget Gerrity and Mary A. Reilly. Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess. In attendance were: Misses Edith Griffiths, Margaret Duffy, Mary A. Reilly, Bridget Gerrity, Tessie Brogan, Mary McCormick, Marie Mulderig and Nellie Donough.

Before Alderman Moses.

Mrs. Anthony Ford, of Landis street, appeared before Alderman Daniel Moses, of the Fifteenth ward, recently, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband on the charge of assaulting her. Mrs. Ford stated at the hearing that her husband has been in the habit of coming home late and abusing her. After the evidence had been submitted the alderman thought the charge of sufficient gravity to hold Ford under $300 ball for his appearance at court.

May Need Helpful Advice at Trying, Times. They Should Remember Mrs. Pinkham Freely Offers Her Motherly Advice.

"O, if my mother were only alive."

How frequently young mothers use this expression!

All through her life she has known a mother's watchful care. She is now a mother herself and gains in strength but slowly.

She would give worlds to do everything for her babe, but cannot. That tiny babe has unfolded in the young mother's heart new emotions; she has a living responsibility, and requires strength to enable her to perform a loving duty. At such a time too much care cannot be taken, and the greatest assistant that nature can have is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The birth of the first child is an especially trying experience and nature needs all the help it can get. A happy, healthy, young mother is a delight to herself and all who know her, and Mrs. Pinkham's medicine will build her up as nothing else can.

Mrs. Pinkham especially requests young mothers and wives to write her if they need advice. She has been mother, helper, and friend to thousands—let her help you—it will cost you nothing.

By special permission we publish below the correspondence between Mrs. Pinkham and Mrs. George Traub, of Elizabeth, N. J., which goes to prove our claims.

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :- I will take my husband's advice and write to you, for I will not have any doctor examine me. I have one little gifl. Two months before my baby was born I began the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have now a fine healthy little girl. At five months she weighed twenty-one pounds, but my health is not so good. I am in such misery, pain, have dreadful bearing-down feelings, and something like a lump seems to be coming from me. Please give me your advice." — Mns. GEORGE TRAUB, 113 Miller St., Elizabeth, N.J. (Dec. 1, 1899.)

"DEAR MRS. PINRHAM: -- I have now taken four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I had finished the first bottle, that lump I wrote about grew smaller and has now gone entirely. I feel that I do not need any doctor beside your medicine. Your Vegetable Compound has eured all my pain, soreness and hearing down. The benefit I have received from it is wonderful. You and you alone will be my guide as long as I live."—MRS. GEORGE TRAUE. 113 Miller St., Elizabeth, N.J. (Jan. 27, 1900.)
