PETS AND ARCHBALD AT SCRANTON TODAY

There Will Be a Battle Royal This Afternoon in Athletic Park for $200 a Side—A Great Game Surely Expected—A Sequel of the Fiasco Yesterday Forenoon at Archbald.

The battleground of the Crescents and the Archbald team will be shifted today down the valley to Athletic park, in Scranton, where the two teams will meet in battle royal this afternoon.

Not only will this contest be of interest to the rosters in Carbondale and Archbald, but it will likewise attract every fan in Scranton and vicinity. The force of this attraction lies in the fact that each team will have one or more players of either the semi-professionals, of Scranton, or the Pitston Brothers.

The arrangements for this game—the climax, it might be said, of the extraordinarily successful season in Carbondale—quickly followed the successful and profitable finish of the game at Archbald yesterday forenoon.

Mr. Tappan went to Archbald in the afternoon, where he met Manager Edward Philbin. Backed by plenty of assurances from interested rosters, Mr. Tappan reasserted Carbondale's faith in her team and offered to raise the forfeit of each club to $200, making the purse $400.

The articles of agreement which were, of course, signed by Managers Tappan and Philbin, and witnessed by Will F. Loftus, of this city, and Charles Ready, of Archbald, specify the names of some players who were in uniform at Archbald at yesterday's game constitute the teams of this afternoon's contest.

Carbondale—Hopkins, West Scranton, catcher; Harrison, Scranton, pitcher; France, South Scranton, shortstop; Emmett, first base; Touhill, Scranton, second base; McTierny, third base; Murray, right field; Flannery, center field; Cuff, left field; Monahan, McCandrew and Kelleher, additional.

These players, therefore, will be on the ground, and it is likely that they will be played in the same positions as yesterday.

The agreement further provides that both clubs will abide by the decisions of the umpire to be mutually agreed upon; that in the event of a dispute his decision will be final; that each club deposit $45 with Charles Ready, of Archbald, as a forfeit; that the balance of $155, on each side, be deposited with Mr. Ready one-half hour before the game; that the winning club take the purse of $400 and the gate receipts, and that the losing club pay the rental of the grounds and the umpire.

Manager Tappan was easily prepared to put up the purse, and even $500, if the Archbald sports could afford to meet the raise.

Special Fare to Scranton. Everything, therefore, with the exception of the selection of the umpire, has been decided upon. The rosters, therefore, from Carbondale and vicinity are assured of a great game, and there is an extra inducement to draw an immense crowd from this vicinity. Arrangements were made last night with the Delaware and Hudson for a special excursion rate. The single fare, fifty cents, will prevail today, for the round trip. The train that will specially accommodate the rosters will leave here at 1:43 in the afternoon.

As to the game in Archbald yesterday forenoon, a good deal might be said, but in view of the fact that both teams are to meet this afternoon to fight out the battle in earnest, the less fighting on paper, the better, perhaps.

The game, as is known, broke up in the beginning of the second inning by Captain McTierny taking his men from the field, after the Archbald management refused to remove Umpire Patrick Mahon, of Archbald, whose incompetence was glaringly apparent and recognized by every fair-minded person at the game. Mahon's decisions on strikes were woefully bad. He repeatedly called strikes that were over the base, but also over the batters' heads.

In the second inning, Harrison was sent back to home after hitting a ball directly in front of the base. Catcher Toy knew it was fair and tried to throw Harrison out at first. Halligan, however, dropped the ball. It was then that Mahon sent Harrison back, declaring the ball was foul, that it hit Harrison. The error of this decision was apparent to every one near the home plate, but more so to Catcher Toy, who played the ball as fair. The next ball decision, the one which broke up the game, was when McDonald endeavored to catch Hopkins at second on a double play, after Golden's catch of Murray's fly. Hopkins easily slid under McDonald, who failed to touch him because the ball was caught too high.

Hopkins made the base, which, to make matters worse, was fully two feet away from its proper place.

This being the climax of Mahon's poor work, Captain McTierny, who was backed by the whole Carbondale delegation, insisted on the removal of the umpire before he would permit his men to go on. Manager Philbin was half willing, but later refused; then McTierny and several of the team made for the cars. The newspaper men endeavored to have Manager Philbin acquiesce in the clamor for Mahon's removal, but it was not until the players were on the cars that the request was yielded to. Then it was too late. Manager Tappan did not deem it prudent for the team to return to the ground. All through the game feeling ran high; on the way to the cars young lads pelted the Carbondale players with stones, hooted and jeered them, and altogether there were signs that there might be interference with the game if it resumed.

The only criticism that we would make is that Manager Philbin should have immediately yielded in the request for Mahon's removal. His lack of judgment or his dearth of knowledge of the game was quite apparent, and did not require an X-ray to discover it. It was even freely admitted by fair-minded Archbaldians. It must have been apparent, too, to Mr. Philbin, who, candor compels us to say, is always irreproachable just and fair. His only course, therefore, it would appear, would be the removal of Mahon after the second or third kick. He finally took this step, but after it was of no avail. An additional circumstance looking to this end was that Mahon was criticized, as we were informed, for his umpiring in Friday's game.

In discussing Mahon's work, there is no intent to make out that he was partial with malice aforethought. We do not doubt that he was honest in his purposes. What is here said refers to his work as an official. We accord all that is due him for honest motives; we do not doubt that he meant to be fair; but we are of the opinion, as hundreds of others were, that umpiring a ball game is hardly in his line; his work throughout clearly demonstrated this. This qualification is made because of the reputation for fairness that Mr. Mahon has among his friends and neighbors.

Special Fare to Scranton. Efforts were successful last night in securing a fifty-cent round trip rate to the ball game at Scranton today. The excursionists will leave on the 1:43 p. m. Delaware and Hudson train and can return on any train before midnight. It is expected that at least 500 will go from Carbondale. The cheap rate also applies from Jermya and Archbald.

LEON BLY'S WORK. Carbondale Musician Composer of "Syracuse University March." Leon L. Bly left Sunday evening for Syracuse university, where he will complete his musical training.

Mr. Bly has already succeeded in composing a very pretty two-step, called the "Syracuse University March," which has become quite a favorite in this section. He also has under way several more two-steps and waltzes, which promise to eclipse any of his earlier efforts. Not only is Mr. Bly an expert on the piano, but has shown talent clearly in the composing line, and is regarded as one of the coming violin players of this section. He will return home to spend the Christmas vacation. Carbondalians will watch with growing pride the musical career of this gifted son.

COLONEL PRATT NOMINATED. The Wayne-Susquehanna Senatorial Deadlock Broken by the Umpire. After a long and tedious suspense in political circles in the counties of Wayne and Susquehanna, on account of the deadlocked and other friction known to the disgruntled, eleven members of the Twenty-sixth senatorial district met yesterday in the American house of this city and nominated Colonel C. C. Pratt, of New Milford.

The vote stood six to five. The deciding vote was cast by E. E. Jones, of Harford, who had recently been appointed umpire by the chairman of the Republican state committee, at the request of the tired conferees.

SELECT COUNCIL ACCEPTS RESIGNATION

At Last Night's Meeting It Dissolves City Engineer F. E. Kupp from His Relations with the City—Chairman Davis Still Pursuing Mr. Kupp Nathan English for Board of Health—Other Business.

Select council at its meeting last night formally accepted the resignation of City Engineer F. E. Kupp, who left the city yesterday to take up his new position with Burke Bros., the extensive contractors, with headquarters at Scranton.

After the acceptance of the resignation, Chairman Davis asked council if there was not some way by which the city engineer could be compelled to hand over the specifications of certain surface sewer work which according to Mr. Davis had not been properly carried out. He specified the sewer recently laid by Contractor Killeen, on Brooklyn street, wherein Mr. Davis said the pipes were laid at a depth of only two feet, while the specifications called for five. The other members of council, however, could not see how Mr. Kupp could be held, and further believed that as Contractor Killeen has not as yet been paid, the city has a chance to protect itself. It was the specifications, however, held by Mr. Kupp that Mr. Davis wanted, to see how the work was carried out, and he decided to refer the matter to the streets committee.

The name of Nathan English, was submitted by Mayor O'Neil in place of G. W. Norris, as a member of the board of health, the successor of A. E. Tiffany, of the old board. Chairman Davis yielded the name to go over. Mr. Manning asked for immediate confirmation. Finally Dr. Fletcher moved for the suspension of rules and for confirmation without referring to committee. This was carried, and Mr. English is now a member of the board of health, completing that body.

The sidewalk ordinance passed final reading, also the lighting contract for the city building and the hose house. An ordinance appropriating $172 to pay fire insurance premiums was introduced by Chairman Davis and ordered to be printed.

The concurrent business from common council was adopted. Among the measures were the recommendations for fire hydrants and fire alarm boxes. A resolution providing for the repair of the white bridge on Cottage street was adopted.

Mr. Manning endeavored to have Mr. Kennedy's ordinance for lights in the Fourth ward taken up for first reading and immediately pitched into Chairman Davis his alleged dilatory tactics in holding the measure up. Finally Mr. Manning, after a bustling talk, agreed to let the matter go over until the next meeting.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD. An exciting game of base ball was played on Duffy's field, Carbondale, yesterday, between the Young Men's Institute of Jermya and the Ontario and Western employees. Unfortunately the game was broken up in the twelfth inning when the score was 12 to 12.

Happily Surprised. Mr. H. C. Hartman, a well-known citizen of Anamosa, Iowa, has every summer for several years been troubled with attacks of diarrhoea, which were frequently accompanied by severe griping pains. He used to call a doctor, he says, "but it became a regular summer affliction, and in my search for relief I came acquainted with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This proved so effective and so prompt that I came to rely exclusively upon it, and what also happily surprised me was that while it stopped the diarrhoea it never constipated. This is a favorite remedy for diarrhoea wherever known. It is not an astringent, hence does not constipate. For sale by all druggists.

A GIRL'S PROBLEM. How to Feed Herself When Running Down.

"I am a stenographer!" That statement brings up a picture of a girl (of those indoor confinement, close mental concentration and subsequent exhaustion and brain fog. Then comes up the food question.

A young lady in Dayton, Ohio writes, "Some time ago I was a stenographer in a large city retail store and as a result of the responsibility of the office work resting largely upon me my health began gradually to decline, and I stood facing the difficult problem of finding relief of some kind or leaving my situation. Very truly, I became dyspeptic and nervous, and suffered with insomnia and restlessness at night.

I was speaking of my illness one day to a trained nurse, who recommended that I begin a systematic diet. Of Grape-Nuts at once she had seen its beneficial effect upon several of her patients who had suffered as I did.

So I began to use the food conscientiously. It formed my entire breakfast with perhaps Postum Coffee or some other nourishing drink and a salad dish was taken at the evening meal. In about two weeks time I began to feel stronger and more hopeful; my digestion, and appetite were better; I was less nervous and could sleep. I continued the diet steadily and soon courage and vitality began to revive and once more I began to think success lay somewhere in this big world for me.

My back grew smoother and easier and after seven months of this diet I could do almost twice the amount of work in a day and do it easily and without feeling exhausted.

Today I am filling a much more responsible position and do the work easily and satisfactorily. I attribute it all to Grape-Nuts which I still continue to use. For a palatable and healthful diet, there is nothing on the market to equal it, and the fact should become of common knowledge." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
