Beautiful Temple on Madison Avenue Formally Dedicated Last Night.

Dedicatory Sermon Was Delivered by the Brilliant Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch of Chicago.

RABBI A. S. ANSPACHER.

The first of the three days' series of believe man is the highest beast on earth; ervices, with which the new temple of that his life issues out of nothing, is for services, with which the new temple of the Congregation Anshe Chesed, on Madison avenue, near Vine street, is being dedicated, took place last night. A most interesting programme, of which a sermon by Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch, of Chicago, was the predominant feature, was listened to by a large assemblage, which contained, besides the members of the congregation, many of the city's most representative Gen-

Interesting formalities appropriate to the opening of the temple made up the first part of the programme. To the strains of Guilmant's "Triumphal March," the pastor, Rabbi Abraham S. Anspacher, Rabbi Hirsch and the other visiting clergymen, together with the lay officers of the church, proceeded up the main aisle and took places on the altar platform or the choir loft to the right. The choir occupied the loft to the left. After two Hebrew anthems by the choir, the president of the board of trustees, E. Morris, turned a switch which lighted all the electric lights of the building, and the lamp above the altar, the ceremony being termed "The Kindling of Perpetual Light."

THE KEY PRESENTED.

The key to the church was presented by a dainty little miss, Evelyn Samter. with a well-recited and appropriate poem to Chairman Solomon Goldsmith, of the building committee, who in turn presented it to President Morris, of the Man is not deprayed and man has not fallen. Not that God is one so much as that God and man are a unity is what this temple proclaims. It is a reis what this temple proclaims. It is a re-ligion of life and not of death, a re-ligion of this world and not of the next. It never speculated on what will be hereafter. A synagogue is a protest against the assertion that Judaism lost its right to be, either now or nineteen hundred years ago. Judaism has no quarrel with Christianity. We have no quarrel with our daughter religion. We believe she has a mission. The light that was lighted nineteen hundred years ago, however, did not eclipse the Jewish lamp. None is revered more than He of Nazareth for what He has done. He tuned the same note as did the Jews. His prayer, 'Our Father, Who art in Heaven,' is still repeated by us in the original. He but echoed an old Jewish' prayer, And, too, we have no dispute with the religion of him of Tar-The synagogue is a prophecy that some day Judaism will die and mankind will be gathered together in one fold. Judaism prays for its own undoing—the day that it will be, iwthout a mission, when it will be no longer needed. The day the Jew's task will be done will be the day of universal peace; then when the planter of the vineyard shall eat the fruit there-of; when virtue shall be a prized jewel in every woman, and a kohinoor worn proudly in every man's chaplet; when freedom and not license shall be all-pre-valent; when national lines shall be simply a convenience in assembling men for co-operation in the nearer purposes; prayer service, led by Rev. William Lowenberg. A brief congratulatory sermon was delivered by Rabbi Anspacher, after which Rabbi Hirsch preached the dedication sermon.

The scholarly and eloquent Chicago divine, who is probably the most noted exponent of Judaism in this country, all men so live that human dignity is not accommodate to the country of delivered an address which made it acquired, Judaism has done its work and readily understood why he is regarded acquired. Judaism has done its work and its task is at an end.

VULGARIZING THE JEW.

In concluding, Dr. Hirsch dealt for a being delivered to a congregation not time on the attempts at vulgarizing exclusively Jewish, and to those not of the Jew, by those who know the least the Jewish faith was particularly in- about him. He pointed out that some who revere Jesus, Mary and the apostles, who were all Jews, are content to lamation, a protest and a prophecy. From worship Jews, yet shut the doors of self it knew well that He whose throne is heaven and whose footstool is the earth cannot be confined within walls. Everywhere the Jew gathers is a synagogue. The Jew never needed a temple as an incentive to prayer. His home is a temple; his table an altar; the father a priest and preacher, and the mother a ministering Levite. The Jew believes that if the household has not religion, that if the household has not religion, the synagogue cannot supply it.

The synagogue is a proclamation of the convictions of Israel; as a protest to the misconstruction of Jewish history, and as sh mission. It is a proclamation to the nations of the conviction of a unity of God and a contradiction of the idea of a trinity or other multiple God. It pro-claims the belief that all forms of Poly-

Happily Surprised. Mr. H. C. Hartman, a well-known citizen of Anamosa, Iowa, has every summer for several years been troubled with attacks of diarrhoea, which were frequently accompanied by severe griping pains. "I used to call a doctor," he says, "but it became a regular summer affliction, and in my search for relief I became acquainted with Champerlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This proved so effective and so prompt that I came to rely exclusively upon it, and what also happily surprised me was that while it stopped the diarrhoea it never constipated. This is a favorite remedy for diarrhoea wherever known. It is not an a string-ent, hence does not constipate. For

Bishop's House, Scranton, Pa.

Mr. F. It. Wormser, Chairman.

Dear Sir: I beg to thank you for your kind invitation to the dedication services of your new temple. While I cannot promise myself the pleasure of being present on that occasion. I sincerely praythat the God of Abraham, of Isanc and of Jacob may bless us all and give us grace to do His holy will.

Very truly yours,

Michael John Hoban.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Grain speculators had a quick change of faith today. Geneneral early conditions, especially foreign wheat advances, were hearlsh. Prices momentarily weakened but on a strong northwestern situation in wheat and sharp eastern buying in corn, with greatly reduced estimated offerings of stock prices turned rapidly upward for good gains. The local selling sentiment vanished and at the close Sentember wheat was 1½c higher; December wheat, ½a½c lagher; December wheat, ½a½c lagher, and December oats, ¼c lower, January provisions closed unchanged to ½c, higher, and December oats, ¼c lower, January provisions closed unchanged to ½c, higher, Steady; No. 2 spring wheat, 74½c, No. 3, 67a35c, No. 2 yellow, 60a045c; No. 2 oats, 28½c; No. 2 white, —; No. 2 white, 25a34c; No. 2 rye, 50c; good feeding barley, —; fair to choice malting, ¾a.35c; No. 1 flax seed $1.36; No. 1 northwestern $1.36; prime timothy seed, $3.90; mess pork, per barrel, $16.15a16.39; kard, per 100 pounds, $10.53½a10.55; short rigs, sides, $10.72½a 10.82½; shoulders, 9½a3½c; short clear sides, 11¼a11½c.

Our Inducements Are Appreciated by The Trading Public...

People come to the same source again and again, hoping for a repetition of past experiences. We are thoroughly aware of this fact, and keep continually at it, making inducements in the way of low prices for superior goods. A well kept stock free from old and out of date goods, can't help winning new patrons as well as retaining the old ones.
