Culm Dump on Fire.

The fire which destroyed the Taylor Coal company's washery on Wednesday night spread to the culm dump and the North Scranton companies were kept busy nearly all day yesterday extinguishing the blaze, assisted by the General Phinney Engine company.

Fire in Freight Car. A car of charcoal in a freight train in the Central Railroad of New Jersey yard, caught fire at 1.30 this morning just as the train was ready to move out. The car was cut out and the flames subdued. It is suposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion.

Route Mapped Out.

A. B. Dunning, caler engineer for the Scranton, Dunmore and Moosic Lake Rallway company, has completed the work of surveying and has mapped out the route to be followed. The plans and maps have been prepared and Burke brothers are about ready to begin the vork of construction.

A Magascopic Exhibition.

A large audience gathered in the base-ment of the Elm Park church last night in attendance at a megascopic exhibition conducted by F. L. Meyers under the suspices of the King's Daughters. A number of interesting views were thrown upon the screen and ice cream was served by a number of young ladies.

Malicious Mischief Charged.

W. F. McDonnell, of West Scranton, yesterday swore out warrants for the arrest of Patrick Forkin and William Lieweilyn, two boys whom he charges with malicious mischief. They were arrested and arraigned before Alderman M. J. Ruddy, who held them under $200 ball for a hearing next Monday.

yster Roast a Success.

sixty members of the Scranton club drove up to the Speedway le yesterday afternoon and par-an oyster roast which had been under the direction of Dr. G. E. oysters were roasted in a pit otel grounds and with them was reen corn and sweet potatoes.

A Peculiar Address.

A letter just received at the local postoffice hears the following rather remarkable address: "Robert Travis, Workinsville Farm, 23½ Miles from Scranton, Pa." The letter was sent by Travis brothers, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. A dead letter addressed to William Sayres, of Philadelphia and signed "Jessis," is also awaiting a claimant.

Accidental Shooting. John Hudjack, of Taylor, accidentally shot and seriously wounded his wife yesterday morning at their home. He was cleaning a revolver in the kitchen where she was engaged at her household duties when the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet entered Mrs. Hudjack's right breast but was extracted later by Dr. Homestead, who says she will recover, though there is a danger of blood poisoning.

SAID IT WAS SCAB COAL. Pupils of No. 31 School Go on

About twenty-five children, pupils at No. 31 school, on Jackson street, left the building yesterday morning, alleg-ing that "scab coal" had been put in the building for heating purposes. Principal Watkin H. Williams tried to ex-plain to them that the coal was not of 'scab" origin, but had been picked from the dumps, but the pupils would not listen to him, and left the school. They did not return in the afternoon. John Kulick, of Luzerne street, who is employed at the Mt. Pleasant colliery, had Joseph Magoch, of 214 Broadway, arraigned before Alderman Noone last evening for calling him names and hreatening to shoot him. Magoch objected to Kulick continuing at work. He was held in $300 bail.

Benjamin Evans, foreman at the Central mine, yesterday caused the arrest of Michael Hudack, on the charge of pointing firearms. At a hearing before Alderman Ruddy, Evans swore that Hudack shoved a pistol in his face on Thursday morning and threatened to shoot him. Alderman Ruddy held Hudack under $300 ball for his appearance

GUESTS OF E. L. FULLER Scranton.

Trustees and Directors of the Y. M. C. A. Met at the Scranton Club Last Evening.

An enthusiastic meeting of the trusees and directors of the Young Men's Christian assosciation was held last evening at the Scranton club, the gentlemen present being entertained as the guests of E. L. Fuller.

The purpose of the meeting was to report progress on the canvass for the balance of the furnishing and equipment fund. As reported last week, decision was reached to order no work done without pledges to guarantee an amount sufficient to pay for each con-

The secretary was able to report that during the week an additional amount was pledged of $5,435. This amount, with what has been previously reported, was found to be sufficient to permit of closing up the contract for the electric lighting plant, the decorating of the building and the gas and electric fixtures. These contracts will accordingly be executed and work will begin at once. The work of securing the balance needed will be rapidly pushed by men who are not only solicitous for the building but themselves heavy givers. It is interesting to note that out of thirty-six men who have been asked to contribute within the past three days, twenty-eight cheerfully responded with subscriptions, five promised to give later on to the furnishing fund, and only three men positively refused to give anything. A trip through the building is the strongest inducement to liberal giving. The secretary will be glad to act as guide to any one who would like to know how and for what his money is being spent. The letting of the contracts abovementioned will greatly facilitate the opening of the building, and if funds were in hand now to complete all the needed contracts, the hearts of the management, of interested friends, and of the hundreds of prospective mem-bers would be at rest. Who will come forward with a generous gift to close up the whole matter. Two subscriptions of $5,000 are conditioned on getting two other subscriptions of like amount. It is these gifts that the directors are now earnestly looking for, while thankfully receiving all gifts, no matter for how small an
