Mine Worker Assaulted on His Way to Work-Thomas Freeman Stoned. Notes and Personals.

Several mornings during the week | few days ago, a small bible, which was crowds of men, women and children | presented to him in 1862 by the Maryhave congregated along South Main avenue in the vicinity of Lincoln Heights and on the fields leading to pany G of the Sixty-seventh Regiment the Bellevue and Dodge breakers, the purpose being to intercept men on their way to work in the mines. This action culminated in some disturbance yesterday morning between 6,30 and 7 o'clock, and as a result one man was injured and another narrowly escaped. From what could be learned of the disturbance, it seems that a man the Edinger family, of Monroe county, named Evans, employed at one of the mines, was passing along Main avenue, near Stratford avenue, and was set upon by a crowd of men and roughly handled.

The other crowd, about 200 in number, were assembled in the field, near Landis street, when Thomas Freeman, fire boss at the Dodge, was passing on his way to work. A number of stones were thrown at him, but he escaped uninjured. A report was circulated that he was severely injured, but this proved to be untrue. The police were not notified of the disturbance, but word was sent to Sheriff Schadt, who went down late in the afternoon to post some notices about the mines and be on the ground in case of further trouble when the workmen returned home from the mines. A number of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company's special officers were stationed about the mines, but were not notified of the disturbance until Mr. Freeman reached the mines. The names of a number who were it the crowd are known and warrants will be issued for their arrest. The disturbance on Main avenue occurred near the home of District President T. D. Nicholls.

Arranging for Picnic.

The committee in charge of the Father Mathew day parade and picnic have awarded the contract for building the stands in the Round Woods to William Hawley. They have engaged the Star orchestra to furnish dance music at the picnic.

Arrangements have also been made with the Scranton Railway company for extra street car service during the day. Invitations have been issued to city officials to participate in the parade.

The Hyde Park Father Mathew se ciety will conduct their annual ball at Mear's hall on the night of October 10.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

The Star Social club met in weekly session at their headquarters, 612 Pittston avenue, last evening and transacted much business of importance. Officers were placed in nomination for the ensuing term as follows: President, David Lewis, William Rosar, Matthew Damal; vice president, Charles Kellerman, Charles Roth, George Hartman and George Mirtz; financial secretary, Jacob Mirtz; recording secretary, Mat-thew Miller; treasurer, Peter Phillips; librarian, William Rosar; trustees, Charles Kellerman, William Rosar, George Hartman, Charles Roth, David Lewis, Alonzo Hubbard and George Mirtz. At the conclusion of the meeting a social session was convened," when the members were treated to refreshments by their associates, Peter Phillips and Charles Roth, whose birthday it was. The election will take place at the next regular meeting.

Peter Alabach was defendant in a case heard yesterday before Alderman Lentes. It appears that some years ago Alabach chose as a place of residence a property near Mountain Lake and owned by Mrs. Robinson. The deed was made out, but as he neglected to pay either interest or principal, the property reverted to the Robinson estate. The place was sold some time ago to Joseph Rosar and yesterday's suit was brought by him to gain possession and oust Alabach. A jury of twelve good men and true were empanelled to hear the evidence and it took them only a short while to decide that the defendant should vacate, as he had never held a deed of the property. Alabach was represented by Attorney Comegys and the plaintiff's interests were cared for by Attorney D. J. Reedy. The jury in the case was composed of Charles Neuls, foreman; Joseph Albrecht, Benedict Brendle, Nicholas Heen, Adam Brier, Rudolph Schaffer, Owen Dundendorf, William Hammen, jr., John Wippig, William Sumbrum, August Schimpff and Fred
