Pretty Wedding in Washburn Street Presbyterian Church—Call Extended Rev. Humphreys—Other Items.

David J. Griffiths, one of the chief clerks in the office of President Wilson, of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company at Buffalo, and Miss Mabel Clementine Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spencer, of Jackson street, and for many years a cashier in the Globe Warehouse, were happily united in marriage last evening by Rev. J. P. Moffat, D. D., at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church.

The edifice was filled with friends and relatives of the contracted parties, and the event was one of the leading social functions of the season. The pulpit was banked high with palms, autumn leaves and ferns, behind which the organist, Miss Carrie Brill, sat and played Mendelssohn's march as the wedding party entered the auditorium. Misses Minnie Wilson and Eleanor Griffiths, wearing white Persian lawn gowns, over muslin-de-sole, trimmed with lace and tucks, and carrying chrysanthemums, entered from the room on the right of the pulpit and proceeded to the end of the center aisle, and there met the ushers, Edward D. Morse, Furman S. Spencer, Leslie E. Morse and Edward R. Maycock, who preceded the bridesmaids up the aisle to the pulpit.

Then came the maid of honor, Miss Harriet E. Bevan, of West Pluston, dressed in pale green silk, under-trimmed with ecru lace, and carrying chrysanthemums. The bride followed, leaning on the arm of her father. She wore embroidered chiffon, trimmed with duchess lace, with medallions over silk, and carried bridal roses and maiden-hair ferns. She also wore a bridal veil, caught with a diamond sunburst, and looked like a fairy queen.

The groom and his attendant, William McCracken, approached the pulpit enclosure from the right aisle, followed by the pastor, and as the party grouped together formed a semi-circle, with Dr. Moffat in the center. He read the church ritual, which is very brief, and after pronouncing the words, which united the happy couple, the organist began playing a recessional, and the party left the church by way of the center aisle.

The participants and guests were immediately driven to the Electric City Wheelmen's palatial club house, which had been especially decorated for the event, and there several hundred people passed the remainder of the evening in luncheon, conversing and dancing. At midnight Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths departed for New York, and after a brief honeymoon, will establish their home in Buffalo.

Father Mathew Parade.

Preparations for the Father Mathew day parade, picnic and ball on Friday, October 10, are being made rapidly, and it is expected the detailed programme will be ready for publication in a few days. The committee in charge cannot tell, as yet, how many societies will participate in the parade, owing to the unsettled state of affairs in the Lackawanna valley.

They have requested merchants and others to decorate along the line of march. The parade will start about 10 o'clock, and the picnic will be held immediately afterward. The annual ball of the Hyde Park Father Mathew society will take place at Meers' hall in the evening.

The following officers and committees have been appointed to conduct the ball: Master of ceremonies, John Shaughnessy, Jr.; assistant master of ceremonies, M. S. Lavelle; floor committee, J. H. McNulty, Thomas McGraw, Michael Donohoe, M. A. Callahan, Richard McHale, T. J. Fleming, M. J. Jennings, Patrick Devers, William Kirk, Charles Canavan, James Regan, John McHale, William King, Edward J. McHale; reception committee, John Crowley, John Clarke, Hugh Logan, J. C. Gallagher, A. J. Lunny, Michael Coleman, Anthony McAndrew, Edward Kenny, John Murphy, John Coleman, Anthony McAndrew; cloak room, John Shaughnessy, Sr.; John Donohoe; door committee, John W. Carroll, Daniel Coleman, William Graney, T. P. McHale; box office, M. T. Walsh.

Simpson Church Meetings.

The Young Ladies' auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society will hold their annual social in the church tomorrow evening.

The Mothers' Jewels will meet Friday afternoon, the Probationers' class Friday evening. Mrs. Josie D. Knauss, of Jackson street, will entertain the Young Ladies' auxiliary Friday evening.

There will be a special meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Simpson church this evening, after prayer meeting, to consider an appeal.

Metz-Mauer.

Adolph Metz, of South Main avenue, and Miss Mildred Mauer, of Tenth street, were married in New York city on Saturday last by Rev. G. Parson Nicholas, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The couple are now enjoying a wedding trip and upon their return will reside on South Main avenue.

Funeral Announcements.

The funeral of the late William G. Cretor occurred yesterday afternoon from the house, on West Linden street. Deceased was a Spanish-American war veteran and a member of the Painters' union, both of which were represented at the funeral. Interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery.

The services were in charge of Rev. Gallenkamp, of the Millin Avenue church. The pall bearers were J. Atchison, M. Langruth, A. J. Shaffer, J. Driesbach, Owen Moon and Edward Sampson.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary Sullivan will take place at 9 o'clock this morning from the home of her mother, 329 South Ninth street. Services will be held at St. Patrick's church, and interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

A Unanimous Call.

The members of the Plymouth Congregational church held a meeting last evening to consider the advisability of extending a call for a pastor. Since the withdrawal of Rev. E. A. Boyl they have been without a leader.

The result was unanimous in favor of Rev. T. A. Humphreys, of Sharon, Pa., who has so acceptably filled the pulpit during the past three Sundays. He is a graduate of Oberlin college, and has been very successful in Cleveland, Johnstown and Sharon.

The meeting was presided over by Richard Owens, and the church clerk, Miss Elizabeth Evans, was instructed to communicate the call to Rev. Humphreys. He returned to his home on Monday. In all probability he will accept the call.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used sixty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething the child is liable to suffer from colic, wind, and wind-colic. By giving the child a few drops of the syrup, the child is made comfortable and the mother is relieved. Price, twenty-five cents a bottle.

NORTH SCRANTON

STARS MET LAST NIGHT AND ELECTED OFFICERS.

They Made a Great Record in the Basket Ball World Last Season. A Lemon Party Held at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Snook of Depot Street—Shamrocks Defeated St. Mary's Team of South Scranton by a Score of 18-5—Notes and Personals.

The North End Stars Basket Ball team met in John's hotel last evening and elected the following officers: Robert Connolly, treasurer; John Tighe, captain; Michael Wells, secretary; Robert Connolly, temporary business manager, until Manager Haswell comes back from West Virginia.

The team this year consists of William Davis, John Tighe, James McCluskie, Daniel Thomas, Peter McCluskie, Robert Connolly, James McCluskie, Michael Wells and Thomas Evans.

The team made a great record last season by defeating the teams of Philadelphia, Allentown, Archbald, Pottsville, Wilkes-Barre, Pittston, Danville, Nanticoke, and several teams from Scranton. It has been decided by the management to open the season in two weeks. The opposing team has not yet been decided upon, but a game with South Scranton is wanted.

A "Lemon" Party.

A "lemon" party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Snook, of Depot street, Monday evening. The parlors were beautifully decorated with golden rods, and presented a very pleasing appearance. Singing and games were indulged in until a seasonable hour when refreshments were served.

SOROSIS

The Perfected Shoe for Women

The women who have worn "Sorosis" Shoes all think alike when you ask their opinion of shoe style or shoe comfort, and the perfection of manufacture has been admitted by many of the best shoe manufacturers. It's not the best leather alone that makes the best shoe; it's the genius of the man who designs the models and lasts, it's the man who makes and finishes the shoe, following closely every line of his model. Such men are employed on "Sorosis" Shoes, and it's their only reason for being popular among women all over Europe and America. Price $3.50 always the same . . . . .
