AUTUMN NUPTIALS.

Miss Katherine McDonald and Rev. T. F. Coffey.

There was a pretty autumnal wedding at St. Rose church last evening. Miss Katherine McDonald and Thomas Neary, popular young people of the city, were the principals in the impressive ceremony.

The wedding took place at 5.30 o'clock and was solemnized by Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G. In the beautiful church was a large assemblage of well-wishing

The maid was Miss Elizabeth Mc-Donald, sister of the bride and Patrick Neary, brother of the groom was the best man. The bride and her maid were most becomingly attired in foulard silk with chiffon decorations. The former's gown was steel and the maid's was blue. They were carried by the bride and red by the bridesmald.

There was a reception, followed by a wedding supper at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, on

Mr. and Mrs. Neary left last night over the Delaware and Hudson for uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Neary enters upon her wedded career with the sineere and best wishes of the wide circle of friends in which the was a favorite.

Mr. Neary is popularly known among the young men of Carbondale and en- strumental music and recitations, had joys the confidence of the officials of something to say of bells, Rev. A. F. Mr. Neary has achieved considerable fame locally for his musical programme, which came first, Carbondale Indians foot ball eleven.

WITH WYOMING SEMINARY

That Foot Ball Eleven Will Be Indians' First Opponents-Saturday, October 3.

The first opponents of the Carbondale Indians-"Our Pets" in foot ball-will be the cleven of Wyoming seminary.

Manager Russell Jones has closed the Saturday, October 3, the long-haired, lithe, active and muscular Indians will go down the valley full of hope and seems that there will be no trouble in confidence to begin the season aright by taking home a victory. Manager Jones who is always conservative and discreetly refrains from declaring himself about the prowess of his eleven, thinks it prudent to say that this year the best eleven that has ever represented Carbondale is to be found in the make-up of the Indians. The one or two weak spots which last year prevented the record from being one of unbroken victories have been strengthened beyond question and the big elevens who will be played will find worthy foes in the Indians.

The Thanksgiving game will be at The Thanksgiving game will be at then has steadily grown weaker. The Hazleton, It would be played here, but then has steadily grown weaker. WORK OF THE FLAMES.

House of George Cuff, Sr., Destroyed. Mrs. Cuff's Narrow Escape.

The house of George Cuff, sr., on Hospital street, was burned to ground about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Cuff. who is crippled had difficulty in getting out of the house to An exploded lamp was the cause of the blaze. In a few minutes, the room was afire and the flames were making their way through the guilding. When the Mitchell's and Colombia's reached the scene the house was beyond saving. Soon the frame work fell and there was nothing but embers. The heavens were lighted up with the blaze, giving the impression to those who were around, that a disastrous conflagration was in progress. Mrs. Cuff was not injured, but her escape was a narrow one. The loss was total.

THE RUTHERFORD BROTHERS.

Two Well-Known Carbondalians Are Candidates for 'Varsity Elevens.

Carbondale, it appears, will come in for considerable of the glory in the foot ball world this season. Already Frank Collins, of this city, has made good with the University of Pennsylvania eleven; then the Carbondale Indians are eager for a chance at their adversaries, and now two well-known young

SOUR BREAD.

Annoyed the Doctor.

If you get right down to the bottom your stomach trouble it is wrong ed and the way to correct it is not by drugs but by using the right food. A physician in Barron, Wis., writes instructive letter on this point. He ys: "I am a practicing physician, 45 cars old, and about 6 feet in height. Shen I began using Grape-Nuts last pring I weighed 140 pounds, was thin

id poor, had a coating on my tongue and frequently belched wind or gas and small pieces of undigested bread or po atoes which were very sour, in short I had acid dyspepsia. 'I consulted a brother physician who dvised me to eat about four teaspoonmis of Grape-Nuts at the commenceent of each meal and drink Postum ereal Coffee. I had been in the habit of drinking coffee for breakfast and tea for dinner and supper. I followed the edvice of my brother physician as to let and experienced relief at once. Ever since that time I have eaten Brape-Nuts with sweet milk or cream morning for breakfast and I now igh 155 pounds, and am no more publed with sour stomach. I am very and of Postum Food Coffee and atmy relief as much to that as I to Grape-Nuts. Often when I am called out in the light to see a patient and on my return sme I feel tired and hungry, I eat the aual quantity of Grape-Nuts before oing to bed and then sleep soundly all Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Carbondalians are candidates for positions on 'varsity elevens.

Albert G. Rutherford and his brother, T. A. Rutherford, are the two candldates. Both are sons of James Ruther-Thomas Neary of South Side, United at St. Rose Church by Very bert is a candidate for a place on the same eleven as Frank Collins, the University of Pennsylvania, the law school of which he entered last September. He played at one time with the Carbondale Indians and had the distinction of being the best posted man on the team. He has a great love for outdoor sports, particularly foot ball. Several weeks ago he went in the Patterson lumber camp and by hard outdoor work placed himself in excellent condition physically, increasing his weight by twenty pounds or more. All the conditions to his acceptance are favorable, and his friends here would be clated, and not a bit surprised, if his efforts be fruitful. T. A. Rutherford is attending Princeton, and is trying to make a place on that eleven. Like his brother, he is well qualified for such an honor among the college men, and it would be doubly pleasing to Carbondalians to learn that he, too, was successful.

A NIGHT OF BELLS.

They have a small striker, and give forth a sweetly musical tone. Rev. Mr. Chaffee, in the course of his adiress on bells, gave a history of the old bell, telling of how it called together the first Wyoming conference, tolled farewell to departing soldiers during the Civil war, and tolled again for their burial; also that it tolled the hours for the first town clock. The bells were then offered for sale at one dollar each, which is regarded as arrangements for the game, and on nominal, when the sentimental importance attached to them is considered. There were 600 bells ordered, and it disposing of them.

HARRY WILLIAMS WORSE.

Poor Director Has a Change and Is Very Low.

To the numerous friends who took tope anew a few days ago, it will be sorely depressing news to hear that Poor Director Harry T. Williams has taken a bad change, and that his life hangs by a thread.

Monday, Mr. Williams' condition gave some signs of a rally, but late Tuesday night he had another change and since bring a team from afar to Carbondale has fearfully depleted him and he now As in all typhold cases, where the fever rages for any length of time, there is hope while there is even the least vitality left. This is now all that is left in Mr. Williams, the hope that he will

GREAT GAME TOMORROW.

The Simon Long Team to Be Here Today.

By far one of the best games of the cason will be tomorrow afternoon, when the celebrated Simon Long team of Wilkes-Barre will come up the valley to Duffy's field to go up against "Our Pets." Interest runs high in the contest and perhaps the biggest crowd of the season will be on hand to enjoy the exhibition.

The line-up of the Crescents will likely be the same as on Tuesday of this week. Kelleher will be in the box for Carbondale and Laird, who is a fine twirler will be the Simon Long slot

HINT TO POOR BOARD.

A Tax Payer Makes Suggestion About Election of Tax Collector.

A Carbondale tax payer who keeps imself well posted on the laws governinf this city handed the following to The Tribune last night, apropos of the failure of the poor board to elect a tax collector by reason of the absence of a quorum:

"As it appears to be impossible for the poor board to get a quorum together to elect a collector of taxes, they may save themselves the trouble by looking at an act, passed by the last legislature, which provides for the colection of school and poor taxes by the city treasurer, dated June 20, 1901."

Edward De Laney's Candidacy.

Edward De Laney, brother of Prof. John De Laney, of this city, supervising principal of the Fell township schools, s the Republican candidate for Prothonotary of Wayne county. Mr. De Laney is widely known in Carbondale, where he spends a good deal of his time. Portraits advertising his candidacy are being dis-tributed, a few of which are in this city.

JERMYM-MAYFIELD.

A couple of Russians and a dancing bear had quite a serious time in Jermyn yesterday. About 11.30 o'clock the bear was performing upon the Main street in the vicinity of the Windsor hotel. The children from the public school were on their way home and, of course, could not resist the temptation to stop and witgood sized crowd soon gathered. John Otto, an Archbald teamster, came along with a wagon and team of mules and the antics of the bear caused the come so restive that the driver was uninto a milk wagon which was damaged to the amount of $16. To clear himself from the liability of the damages Otto had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of the two Russians, Luzon Gecart and Peter Benezet, who, accompanied by the bear, were taken in charge by Chief of Police McGinley and given a hearing beore Squire Keifer, who in default of their paying the damage done and costs committed them to the county jail. The chief and the trio started upon their journey, but at the depot the chief was put in a dilemma by the discovery that the railroad would not carry the bear. He therefore took both men and bear back to the borough jail where the two men occucell. As the men persist that they have not sufficient money to pay the fine it is thought they will be released.
