The evening was passed with music and games, and at a late hour refreshments were served. the children were compelled to go home from school after meeting with young Ford.

Peter Foaley, Joseph Kearney, George McCrea, Peter Welsh, Fred Owens, Har-ry Stevens, Joseph Williard and Joseph Blume all testified to pepper throwing acts of young Ford, and after hearing the evidence the boy was placed under $200 bail on the charges of trespassing and malicious mischief, the charges be-ing preferred by P. J. McAndrew, the janitor of No. 16 school.

Spoiled His Ketchup.

Nicholas Bengorgi, of 412 North Main avenue, is a very much abused man. After going to the trouble of making ketchup and to the expense of buying fifteen baskets of tomatoes to make the ketchup, two small boys passed by and mixed a few pounds of dirt with the hot ketchup.

He appeared before Alderman Kellow and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Bennie Smith and Willie Straff, both of North Main avenue. They were arrested by Constable George Donlin and held under $200 bail until they pay the costs in the case, and also pay for the fifteen baskets of tomatoes.

No one can appreciate the ter-rible condition I was in except those who have gone through the same ordeal. From a strong, vigorous man I had been transformed into a helpless cripple. I could only walk by the aid of crutches, and only then with the greatest difficulty. Having read about the almost miraculous Ures that were being performed daily by Dr. Byers I concluded, as a last resort to ry his treatment. I began to improve al-most immediately and this improvement has been so rapid and my present con-dition so sultfactory that I feel it a duty or mankind to make a public statement of what the great Quaker Physician has done for me. He has real-ized that during the past few months many people in Scranton have been suf-fering from financial depression owing to the existing labor conditions. Hun-dreds of people have asked to be treated at a reduced rate. They have stated that their financial condition was such that it would be impossible for them to pay the ordinary fee charged by physicians. Doctor Byers' offices are crowded to their utmost capacity. His practice in this city is the largest ever accorded to any physician in the history of medicine. Hundreds of hopelessly sick have been restored to perfect health and his name is a household word throughout the state of Pennsylvania. It would be manifestly unjust to treat a few at a reduced rate and charge others a higher price. TAILORED SUITS For Ladies' Wear,

કે પ્રેપે પ્રે

High-Class

There are many Suits advertised, all represented as of more than ordinary merit. But none know better than the well informed woman who has tried, and tried in vain, to buy a ready-to-wear gown that would fully meet her ideas of merit, how hard it is to get such a thing.

We cordially invite the ladies who have tried to get suitable ready-to-wear gowns, and failed, to visit our Suit Department this week. We are thoroughly convinced that we have succeeded in overcoming the objections they had cause to find in most of the socalled "highly tailored suits." These gowns-specified below-have all been made to our especial order E and fully represent our ideas of what correct tailor- 2 made gowns ought to be like.

At $22.00

Suits in fine Black Venetians, models of lady-like elegance, and perhaps the best examples of correct fashion that this season will produce. The jacket has embossed satin slot seams, cut satin ruff, is prettily lined with Skinner satin; blouse shape, with satin ripple. The skirt is cut in the new seven-gore style, with full sweep, welded seam and satin edge. Price, $22.00.

At $20.00

High Grade Pebble Cheviot Suits (camel's hair lustre), in black, blue and dark grey. Jackets are tight fitting, doublebreasted, with reveres faced with sllk and full taffeta linings. Some plain, others trimmed. The skirt is flared and has stitched finish. A very handsome gown at a moderate price.

At $18.00 LadiesLadies' Black Broadcloth Suits, double-breasted jackets, with two ripples; silk faced, welded seams and full slik lining. Seven-gore skirt with full flare. For those who like quiet elegance, coupled with correct style and unquestionable quality, this suit at $18.00 will meet their utmost expectations.

At $15.00

Dark Gray and Black New Style Blouse Jacket Suits, with ripple, taffeta waist band and six rows of stitching. Lined through-out with silk taffeta. Skirt has graduated triple flounces, with ucks. A smart suit for smart women and not too expensive.

At $10.00

A new Walking Suit, in dark grey and other shades; good winter weight and very stylish. The jacket, Norfolk effect front and acket, Norrow effect front and lack; darts finished with velvet; satin lined throughout. Skirts are unlined, as the materials used are all double faced.
