FELLOWSHIP MEETING OF THE GREEN RIDGE BAPTISTS.

An Enjoyable Social Gathering Held Last Night in Connection with the Celebration of the Tenth Anniversary of the Church—Addresses Were Made by Former Judges J. W. Carpenter, E. F. Chamberlin, Thomas Johns and Others—Programme for Tomorrow.

The second meeting in connection with the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Green Ridge Baptist church was held last night in the spacious Sunday school rooms and parlour of the form of a delightful social gathering.

Supper was served by the ladies of the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Three long tables, extending the full length of the room, had been arranged and decorated, with the assistance of McClintock, the florist, who had banked palm at one end of the room. About 150 members of the congregation sat down to the elaborate supper which had been prepared.

PASTOR MADE ADDRESS. Shortly before 9 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. H. S. Potter, who occupied a seat at the head of the center table, made a brief address, serving to introduce in a general way the speakers who were to follow. The first address was made by Thomas Johns, who was one of those most active in organizing the church, ten years ago. He spoke of the past history of the church and told of the struggle made for an existence at first and of the gradual growth in both temporal and spiritual things. Ten souls were saved in the mission from which the church sprang, he said, and dozens have been brought to Christ since the organization of the church itself.

The second speaker was Prof. E. M. Loomis, of the High school, who spoke of the future of the church. "God rules the universe," he said. "He rules individual lives and He rules churches. If we take a broader outlook of life, we will realize that God's promises are being fulfilled in our church life. The success of this church in the past has been due to the faithful, consecrated souls who have devoted their lives to its service. Now that our membership is increased, we are assured of far greater success in the future."

FINANCES OF CHURCH. E. F. Chamberlin, the treasurer of the church, next gave a talk on the church finances. The total receipts for ten years, he said, have been $26,000, of which amount $16,000 has been expended for current expenses and $10,000 for property and interest on the mortgage.

In 1892 he said the church was twenty-third on the list of the Abington Baptist association as far as membership was concerned. In 1894 it was ninth on the list in membership and fifth in the matter of contributions for benevolent and missionary work. In 1901 the church was sixth in point of membership and second in the matter of contributions being only surpassed in this latter respect by the Penn avenue Baptist church.

"No church in the Abington association," said he, "has a better field and a better prospect for the carrying out of the Master's work. If we work earnestly and zealously for His cause we shall find pleasure not only in a sense of duty done but in the enjoyment of health, of body and above all, the growth in grace which will come to us all."

J. Nelson Garret, the superintendent of the Sunday school, sketched briefly the history of the congregation of the church, which started ten years ago with but twenty-four scholars and which now has a membership of 360.

JUDGE CARPENTER'S REMARKS. "There is no doubt," said he, "but that the time which is now being spent by this church in celebrating its tenth anniversary will have a tendency to renew the spiritual strength of the members of the congregation and enable them to accomplish greater achievements in the future. The record of this church has been remarkable both for its growth in membership and for the character of its membership. Your past is secure. The future is your only concern and with such a beginning as you have had you need have no cause for anxiety."

a common evil it will constitute a power whose influence will be irresistible." Brief addresses were also made by Mrs. G. T. Pritchard, who spoke for the ladies; Miss Agnes Nicholson, who told of the Junior work; E. George Trimby, who spoke of the Young People's society and Bert Hall, the musical director. A greeting from across the sea was presented by H. H. Lougham, of England, who is visiting friends in this city. The celebration will be continued with special services on Sunday. The theme of the morning service will be "Retrospect." Communications from Rev. Warren G. Partridge, D. D., of Cincinnati, Ohio; Rev. J. C. Brookings, of Auburn, N. Y.; and Rev. William J. Ford, Ph. D., of Jamestown, N. Y., will be read. The theme of the evening service will be "Prospect." Miss Cornelia Freeman, Miss Julia Clapp Allen, and Tom Gippel will assist in the musical part of the services. The Sunday school will hold a special "rally service" at the usual hour. The Juniors and the B. Y. P. B. will also hold special services.

AN IMMENSE SEWER.

Nineteenth District Sewer Will Be Nearly Twelve Miles Long.

Bids will soon be opened by Director of Public Works Roche for one of the largest sewers ever constructed in this city. This is the sewer to drain the Nineteenth district, comprising the Bellevue section of the city. It will be upwards of twelve miles long, and the estimate of its cost, prepared by the superintendent of engineering, is $185,000.

Some most interesting figures regarding the proposed sewer have been compiled from the specifications by Superintendent Phillips, of the bureau of engineering. The figures show the immensity of the undertaking better than anything else.

There will be 5,260 feet of brick sewer required, ranging in diameter from thirty-three to sixty-three inches. The total length of pipe sewer to be laid will be 5,775 feet. Of this number of feet 18,185 feet will be eight inch, 17,855 feet, ten inch, and 10,220 feet, twelve inch.

In addition to this, 28,100 feet of six-inch house connections will be put in, requiring the use of 1955 bends of six inch pipe.

There will be 364 ordinary manholes and seven tunnel manholes. Sixty-three corner basins and ninety-eight side basins will also be put in.

Work on the sewer cannot be commenced until spring, but the bids will be advertised shortly, to save any delay.

In the afternoon officers were elected, as follows: President, Mrs. Martha DeGraw, of Scranton; vice-president, Mrs. D. B. Hand, of Scranton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Beck, of Eckville; recording secretary, Mrs. Gabel Swartz, of Dunmore; treasurer, Mrs. Squires, of Carbondale.

CONSULTED WITH ARCHITECT.

School Board Committee Wants High School Plans at Once. The high and training committee of the school board consulted last night with Gilbert N. Edson, the architect selected to prepare the plans for the new high school annex, to be erected on the Adams avenue site, adjoining the proposed manual training school.

There was a general interchange of ideas on the proposed annex, but no definite conclusions were reached. Mr. Edson will consult immediately with Edward Langley, the architect who is preparing plans for the training school, so that there will be harmony in the general plan of the two buildings. The members of the committee desire to have the plans prepared as quickly as possible, so that some work may be accomplished before winter sets in. It is desired to have both buildings ready for opening by September 1 of next year.

CRYING NEED OF THE Y.W.C.A.

MRS. E. H. RIPLEY SAYS IT IS A NEW BUILDING.

In Her Annual Report as President, Delivered Last Night, She Referred to the Necessity for a Building Where Young Women Can Be Boarded in a Home-like Manner. Public Meeting to Be Held in the Elm Park Church Sunday Afternoon at 3:45 O'clock.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian association was held last evening in the rooms of the South Scranton branch, when reports of the work done in the past year were read, and the following members elected to the board of managers: Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. A. F. Law, Mrs. James McNulty and Mrs. Robert Williams. The board will hold a meeting next week and elect officers of the association.

The present officers are: President, Mrs. E. H. Ripley; first vice-president, Mrs. J. A. Price; second vice-president, Mrs. C. D. Simpson; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Derman; treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Hall. In the president's report, Mrs. Ripley says: "Ever since our organization it has been our aim to be a help to women and girls, and until the secret of all hearts is made manifest, no one can estimate what has been done for those among us in these fourteen years. Our work has been constantly limited by not having the means to carry it on a larger scale, but our lunch-room is daily crowded and our noonday services well attended."

"Our crying need at present is to own a building, where we can board and lodge in a home-like way the many girls and women who find it hard and burdensome to work and really have no home life in the boarding houses. May we hope ere long there shall rise in this city a building for the Young Women's Christian association, where the young men are provided for. God will surely reward those who do it."

FOR CENTRAL BRANCH.

The report of the central city branch, submitted by the secretary, Miss Bertha M. Wood, was a review of work done at the rooms on Washington avenue, showing the average attendance at noonday meetings, Sunday afternoon gospel meetings, extension classes, domestic science department, etc. She emphasized the great need in the center of the city of a good boarding home for self-supporting young women in connection with this Christian organization.

The report for the South Side branch, submitted by Miss Marie J. Meredith, showed the urgent need of more equipment to carry on the work among the young women, and the importance of attaching to the junior work of which there is a class of from 45 to 100. Similar reports were also received from the North End branch, where the junior sewing school has registered 120 girls from 6 to 14 years of age.

CANNOT COME.

Miss Wood, secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, received a telegram yesterday, stating that Mrs. Margaret E. Sangster is unable to fulfill her duties as secretary of the association, because of a cold, which has deprived her of her voice. This is a great disappointment, for Mrs. Sangster's coming was anticipated with extraordinary interest. Her beautiful poems are familiar as household words; her gentle, helpful thoughts are known and loved the world over, and she would have received a hearty welcome. But it has been decided not to postpone the public meeting in Elm Park church at 3:45 tomorrow, when it is expected that a great audience will be present to hear about the work of the association, and when an excellent programme will be presented.

NEEDS OF THE GIRLS.

A great deal is being done for the young men and little children and always appeals to the kind hearts of public-spirited citizens, but the work for the throng of young girls who are a large percentage of the wage earners in this region, receives very little attention, except from the few devoted women who have long toiled in its behalf, amid very discouraging conditions. At the meeting tomorrow at Elm Park church, many points which have been hitherto unpublished will be given to the public. It will be a meeting of exceptional interest and value. No one who has any sympathy for one of the greatest of all philanthropic efforts will fail to be present.

A HUSBAND'S ADVICE

AND THE SATISFACTORY RESULTS TO WHICH IT LED.

The Story as Mrs. Cooper Told it to a Reporter After Her Recovery.

"It all came about through the advice of my husband," said Mrs. Sadie Cooper, of No. 329 Main street, Auburn, Me., to a reporter. "I suffered intensely with inflammation of the stomach for four months," she continued. "I had a naturally weak stomach and in December, 1897, it began to trouble me more than usual. I could not bear the least pressure on it without feeling a terrible faintness, and I had so much gas in it that it caused pains to go all through the upper part of my body. When I got up quickly my head would feel so dizzy that I would have to lie down again and then rise gradually. There was a poor circulation of the blood and for days at a time I was obliged to lie down nearly all the while. I was under a doctor's care for about four weeks. I felt slightly better just while taking his medicine, but it left no lasting benefit. My husband, who had taken them himself with good results, at last induced me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. In January, 1898, I began taking them and in two weeks I was able to notice a decided gain. I kept on taking them for three months when I had entirely recovered. I am glad to say that I have never suffered with the trouble since."

The pills which cured Mrs. Cooper are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from disorders of the blood and nerves. Among the many diseases they have cured are locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuritis, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post-paid in receipt of price, and by sending a box; six boxes for two dollars and a half, by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
