As foretold by the weather wire, the line storm has been a long and wet one, completely knocking out the attractions at the Wayne county fair. None of the races or attractions scheduled have taken place, and the many thousand people who visit the fair annually have not appeared on the scene. It has proven an expensive storm to the management of the fair, and to many others. The special attraction brought here for the fair was put on the stage at the opera house, Friday evening, by the managers of the fair.

The farce comedy company, "Dennis O'Day, Esq.," with a full band and orchestra, will be the attraction at the opera house, Wednesday, Oct. 1. On Friday, on account of the rain.

all races at the Wayne county fair were declared off, and a postponement announced until Wednesday and Thurs day, Oct. 8 and 9, when they hope to have the races.
