VERY BRILLIANT SOCIETY EVENT

Was the Wedding of Miss Letitia Pugliano and Mr. Vincent Casse-

With a brilliancy of ceremony rich and dazzling in its splendor, and that was a hint of the show of pageantry in the courtly days of their native home

The simple church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, on Fallbrook street, was the scene of the beauty, the magnificence and ostentation that dignified the eventful happening of the young people's lives.

The labor of loving hands, guided by an artistic hand, wrought much beauty about the altar and sanctuary, and when the church was filled with the eager, expectant throng there was much to admire in the droll, embellishments while the coating of the bride and her long train of attendants was awaited.

At 7:30, the hour of the nuptials, the church was thronged. The assemblage was rarely representative. The fashion and society culture and, it might be said, the whole municipal family, from the executive to the least subordinate office, were there.

Shortly after 7:30, the joyful music of the wedding march from Lohengrin announced the presence of the bridal party. The expectancy and anticipations of the assemblage broke into a ripple of comments as the first figures of the procession came in view in the center aisle.

From the sacristy came the ten ushers, who acted as a guard of honor to the groom, followed by the groom, himself, and his best man, Joseph Callarone, of New York city.

Perhaps the most impressive feature was that the glittering spectacle was illustrative of the custom in Italy, where, as one learns, a wedding, there is such sentimental importance attached to the courtly air and pomp of wedding festivities.

The display of wedding robes in the procession was a charming sight. The bride in her trousseau seemed to realize the ideal bride that one pictures. Her gown was truly an artistic creation.

COLONY LIFE.

Effect of Climate Overcome by Proper Food.

The necessity of pleasant, nutritive and proper food is highly appreciated in the Philippines, particularly by Americans unused to climate and native custom in cooking.

Some friends suggested Grape-Nuts Food, and I gave it a trial. To my surprise and pleasure, it did all and more than was claimed for it. I am now, after using the food for 18 months, in good health; my digestive apparatus in perfect order, and I have long lost all feeling of pain or discomfort after eating.

by a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. She carried a half shower bouquet of bridal roses.

Miss Felicitia Pugliano, the maid of honor, was likewise charming in a gown of white silk, trimmed with Valenciennes lace.

The four bridesmaids were Miss Angela Obiel, of Wilkes-Barre; Miss Lorenza Pugliano, of Carbondale, sister of the bride; Misses Emma and Frances Casseuse, of Scranton, sisters of the groom. They wore white handkerchiefs, trimmed with cream satin ribbon and chiffon lace.

The cute flower girls were Elvira Pugliano, of Carbondale, cousin of the bride; Jennie Casseuse, of Scranton, niece of the groom; Teresa Morisini, of Scranton; Marguerite Casseuse, of Scranton, sister of the groom.

Michael Casseuse, of Scranton, nephew of the groom, was the page. He was most interesting, dressed in his court uniform of white satin, with cuffs of lace. He wore white silk stockings and white, silver-tipped, slippers.

The Pugniano residence on Dunduff street, recently erected, was brilliant with decorations. The handiwork of Elvira, here and there, was particularly effective in the parlor, where Mr. and Mrs. Casseuse received the guests and their warm-hearted felicitations.

At 1 o'clock the bride and groom, accompanied by a host of friends, left on a special train over the Delaware and Hudson for Scranton, whence they departed on their wedding tour, via the Lackawanna. They will be at home in their home, 1922 West Lackawanna avenue, after October 25.

The groom is a member of the firm of Casseuse Bros., bankers and manufacturers, of Scranton. His bride is an accomplished young lady, who has a wide circle of friends in Carbondale, to whom she is endeared.

FIVE TO NOTHING.

Our High School Boys Lose a Game to the Scranton Eleven.

The Carbondale High School football team journeyed to Scranton yesterday, and were defeated by the High School team of that place by a score of 5-0.

The first half started at 2:45 o'clock, Scranton kicking off. Conant got the ball, but was downed before he made much gain. Then came a very hotly contested game, both sides having the ball frequently, but Carbondale's goal was never in any danger.

hard throughout this half, part of the field being mud about two inches thick. Scranton got the ball and began rushing the center. As the grass was slippery it was hard work holding them, and they got near our goal, but we finally stopped them by pulling off half of his sweater, and Frank Wynn, who downed him inside the goal. This was the only score.

Scranton has a good team, and they showed their opponents an excellent time. Wynn, Maze, Shepherd, Murrin, Hansen and nearly all the Carbondale players put up a good game.

GREAT BASE BALL THIS AFTERNOON

The Famous Reds of Taylor to Oppose Our Local Favorites on Duffy's Field—Two Closely Played Games Filled Off Yesterday That Drew Big Crowds.

The renowned Taylor Reds will try conclusions with the Crescents on Duffy's field this afternoon for the first time this season. This aggregation of ball tossers is one of the most respected in amateur circles.

They were two teams of base ball decided on the local grounds yesterday afternoon, and each game was won by a single tally. The first contest was between the "Old Maids" of Vandling and the South Side "Hoboes."

The men of teas, coffee and sugar proved "too many" for the dispensers of the novel exhibit of Swift and Armour in the second contest, defeating them by the close score of 12 to 11.

The game was very interesting and some very earnest playing was indulged in. For four innings the score was a tie, but finally in the Ninth the grocers made a run for the good and left the hold humming "In the good old summer time" to the evident discomfiture of the ham slingers.

The personnel of the contending forces were as follows: Grocers—Golden, c.; Boylan, p.; Small, 1b.; Hendricks, 2b.; Rivenburg, 3b.; May, ss.; McKenna, lf.; Hobert, cf.; Golden, lf.; Butcher—Schuster, b.; Brokenshire, 1b.; McGarry, 2b.; Reese, 3b.; McDonough, ss.; Forbes, lf.; Scanlon, cf.; Conerton, rf.

Connolly & Wallace

Scranton's Shopping Center

Not another such stock of Dry Goods under any Scranton roof. The largest and the best. The freshest. The most varied. The most exclusive. The most for your money.

If you are a stranger, will you ask for a guide to take you over the store? Or, if you prefer to wander about alone, feel sure that nobody will bother you. If there is anything we can do to help you, ask the first person you meet.

Hosiery and Underwear

Men's, Women's Children's

A professor of mathematics doesn't work harder over his intricate problems than we work over the proportions of this underwear. Makers say "what's the use," and go along turning out misfit after misfit, because other dealers are not particular. The best fitting underwear to be had is right here.

Striped Waistings

75c goods at 50c a yard—A Connolly & Wallace bargain—28 to 30 inches wide and in thirty different color combinations of pretty stripes.

Black Dress Goods.

Forty feet of counter shelves occupied only by black dress goods, and every piece different—think of it! And all to be seen under the best and clearest daylight that the sun can give. But the backbone of our black dress goods is cheviot.

Four special pieces of news about the black goods are these: 75c Black Serge, 52 inches wide, 50c a yard. 65c Black Cheviot, 40 inches wide, 50c a yard. Other good Chevots at 65c, 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50. Other good Serges at 65c, 86c, $1.00.
