ONE FEATURE WAS SCHLEY

HE MADE A SPEECH AT BINGHAMTON EXPOSITION.

Was Escorted to the Grounds by a Section of the Sixth Battery of Light Artillery of New York—Besieged by Autograph Hunters—He Enjoyed the Races and Watched the Horses with Keen Interest. Summary of the Different Events. Balloon Ascension.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Today was one filled with interest at Stow Park, where the Binghamton Industrial Exposition was held. First in importance was the visit of Rear Admiral Schley and his felicitous speech from the balcony of the grandstand. Then there were three good horse races, a balloon ascension and parachute drop, which had a sensational climax, and the unusually good vaudeville show on the open-air stage.

Fully 25,000 persons were at today's meeting, this attendance eclipsing any record hitherto made in the twelve years of the association.

It was intended to start the first race at 1.30 this afternoon, and the field was brought out and scored several times fruitlessly when word was received that the distinguished guest was about to enter the grounds. The order was then given to blanket the horses, and in a minute or so the big gates were thrown open and the advance guard, a section of the Sixth battery, Light Artillery, New York Volunteers, dashed in. The battery went half way round the course at a gallop, wheeled into the middle of the lawn and prepared for a noisy welcome.

Hardly had the boys in blue got into position when the gates were again opened and Baker's band filed down the home-stretch filling the air with melodious strains of "Maryland, My Maryland," and after them came the gallant son of Maryland in a barouche drawn by four white horses. Following him came two other carriages, filled with members of his party, while the salute of thirteen guns filled the air with noise and smoke.

WAS WITH SCHLEY.

In the first carriage, besides the admiral, was Lieutenant Commander Sears, of the cruiser Brooklyn, who was with Schley off Santiago; D. W. Cooke, general passenger agent of the Erie railroad, who had arranged the details for the journey, and G. Tracy Rogers, president of the Binghamton Street railway.

In the second carriage was the Lieutenant commander's father, C. W. Sears, Mrs. C. W. Sears, Miss Eleanor Sears, and Mrs. James H. Sears. In the third carriage were Miss Jennie O'Neil, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. White.

The admiral got a rousing welcome from the immense throng on the grandstand and in front of it, who completely filled the homestretch. After a rest of about twenty minutes Admiral Schley was introduced to the audience by G. Tracy Rogers, of the Binghamton Railway company. The admiral, who was attired in a long, gray overcoat, over a black frock, and wore a tall hat, spoke about five minutes in a patriotic vein, and commented upon the coincidence that his first long cruise was under an eminent officer from Binghamton, Commodore W. W. McKean, and in his last cruise he was associated with a naval officer from Binghamton, James Hamilton Sears. He paid the Parlor City some happy compliments.

Lieutenant Commander Sears was loudly called for, and in response spoke about two minutes.

Then the races were started and the admiral leaned back in his chair to enjoy himself, lit a cigar and watched the trotters go around the track with a keen relish. But he was not allowed to enjoy himself long. Autograph hunters, introductions and finally handshakers disturbed his sporting ideas, and finally he had to shake hands with several hundred admirers, which kept him busy until the time for him to leave the grounds, at 4.30.

RACES WERE GOOD.

The races were all good ones, and although each was won in straight heats there was plenty of excitement and close finishes. In the first race there were ten starters, and Edwin C. had the first heat cinched by a half length when he broke ten feet from the wire, and Jeffrey Wilkes got the heat by a nose. This startling beginning got everybody interested. The crowd was so big that they swarmed all over the track, and the police had their hands exceedingly full in keeping the course in condition to conduct the races.

The balloon ascension took place about half past three, and the aeronaut kept in the air until the huge gas bag was nearly a mile up. By that time it was away over on the other side of the city, and Prof. Phelps, who was on the parachute could hardly be discerned when he cut loose. An hour afterward the report was current throughout Binghamton that he had landed in the river and been drowned. This report could not be verified. Manager Clarke said that it was not so, but the daring sky pilot had landed on the roof of a house near the centre of the city. But the crowd believed the rumor and went home satisfied that they had seen an actual balloon disaster.

The three races were a considerable trouble to get started, partly on account of the large fields in two instances and largely because of the unruly crowds who persisted in getting so close to the edge of the race course that it was a wonder that the horses did not step on their toes.

Starter Harry W. Brunell, of Cobleskill, N. Y., presided over the speed events. He proved extremely satisfactory in this trying place, and although he contended with a number of difficulties, demonstrated his ability to cope with them. His starts were good ones in every instance and he deserves commendation for the manner in which he got the field of ten away in the first race when the course was swarming with people and the air was blue with powder smoke from the salute to Admiral Schley. Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

TOO GREAT EXPENSE

Not the Reason.

It is not because Pyramid Pile Cure is so expensive that many people decline to give it a trial, but because they find it too great a tax on their credulity to believe that the published letters bearing testimony to the merit of this remedy are genuine and bona fide; especially to those who have realized the suffering incident to piles is it incredible that any one who has been afflicted twenty-five and thirty years with the worst form of protruding and bleeding piles should be cured by the application of a simple remedy, when their physician has assured them that the only relief is in a surgical operation. This is rightfully viewed with dread by all those afflicted, as it means at the least a great shock to the nervous system, with more than a possibility of utter collapse and death; in the majority of cases, too, their is a return of the complaint, owing to the fact that the cause is not removed.

The proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure agree to forfeit one thousand dollars to anyone who will show a single published testimonial to be not genuine and unsolicited; this latter feature is most gratifying, inasmuch as these letters are written solely out of gratitude, and with the hope that those who are afflicted as the writers have been may learn that relief is at hand, at a comparatively trifling expense. Pyramid Pile Cure is for sale by druggists at fifty cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of price.

Mr. Wm. Lichtenwalter, head of the largest printing house in Canton, Ohio, says: "It is with the utmost pleasure and satisfaction that I can say I believe I am cured of protruding and bleeding piles, after suffering more than twenty-five years. I have been in bed for two weeks at a time. I have not suffered in the least for over a year, and I used only three fifty-cent boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure. I advise every person suffering with this distressing and painful complaint to give this remedy a trial. I have every confidence in it." Write the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on the causes and cure of piles.

THEATRICAL.

"The Messenger Boy."

"The Messenger Boy," which has had long and successful runs in most of the large cities of the country, was presented at the Lyceum last night. It is a musical comedy of the brand that has been made famous by the Gaiety theater of London, and on its initial presentation in this city last night was seen by a large audience.

The title role, which was in James T. Powers' possession when the comedy was first presented in this country, was in the hands of Frank Deshon last night. Mr. Deshon was one of the comedians who last season made so much fun in the "Bob White" company.

"The Messenger Boy" is in two acts and three scenes, the first scene in London, the second at Brindisi, and the entire second act at Cairo. The company last night was a large one and the members worked like Trojans to make the comedy "go." Several of the numbers won encore after encore.

What the Dixie Is Doing.

Up to this time, Scranton has never had vaudeville presented in an up-to-date manner, and at reasonable prices. The advent of the Dixie theater has given to the public of this city the same opportunity that New York, Philadelphia and Boston have. High class vaudeville is being enjoyed in Scranton, twice daily, and the best and most expensive acts on the stage are being presented with the same care and detail as in the big cities. The Dixie theater is centrally located, is comfortably seated, well ventilated and absolutely safe from fire.

The management has done everything in its power to give to this city a theater of which Scranton may be proud, and at the same time giving the people so many happy and restful hours from business and home cares. "Where Laughter Reigns" is a good watchword. You can run into the theater for a half hour. It will serve as a tonic to your system. The twentieth century Mystery Phroso will be at Dixie's next week, and every one is asking "Is it alive"?

City Sports at the Star.

Phil Sheridan's Big City Sports Burlesque company opened a three days' engagement at the Star yesterday, giving two of the best performances seen at the house this season. The musical farce comedy, "A Mistake in Society," is given as the opening burletta, and during the presentation a number of new musical selections are rendered by a strong chorus.

The olio includes several clever performers, among them being Hazel Burt, vocalist; Beeson, Ferguson and Beeson, singers and dancers; Renzetta and La-Rue, comedy acrobats; Dryden and Leslie, comedy sketch artists; Short and Edwards, a clever musical team, and the Everett trio of acrobats.

The concluding burlesque is on "Fun at Brighton," in which a number of pretty costumes are shown on shapely girls. Two performances will be given today and two tomorrow. The house will be closed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, reopening on Thursday, Oct. 9, with Barnes' "Balnty Paree."

At the Academy.

The Irene Myers Stock company will present "The Tide of Life" at the Academy of Music tonight. This afternoon, "The Stowaway."

"Arizona" Tonight.

Augustus Thomas' powerful play, "Arizona," is a most elaborate spectacular production of one of the best of all American military dramas. The scenic investiture of "Arizona" is particularly good. It is considered the most perfect play ever written by Augustus Thomas. It will be presented at the Lyceum tonight.

"Under Southern Skies."

William A. Brady's production of "Under Southern Skies," the coming of which to the Lyceum Saturday afternoon and evening is being awaited with expectant interest, is by Lottie Blair Parker, who wrote "Way Down East." The plan of "Under Southern Skies" is unusual, but not unreasonable. The company and production is said to be excellent and a thoroughly enjoyable performance may be loked for.

"In Old Kentucky."

"In Old Kentucky" will have its annual presentation at the Lyceum Monday night. What play on the boards today is looked forward to with keener anticipation by theater-goers or greeted with more enthusiastic audiences everywhere? "In Old Kentucky" can keep on coming for many more seasons, and it will never wear out its welcome. This year a brand new scenic production is promised and a stronger cast than the piece has ever had. Seats on sale this morning.

"The Span of Life."

The famous athletes, the Donazettas, who are a strong feature and mainly responsible for the lasting popularity of that sterling melo-drama, "The Span of Life," are not only the most skillful and daring acrobats of the present time, but are all good actors and quiet gentlemen.

They will be seen in this season's production, which will be given at the Academy of Music for three days, commencing Monday, and they will add to the past sensation of the scene by the addition of some new acrobatic feats never before attempted on any stage.

TRIFLING WITH YOUR HEALTH

Is like Playing with a loaded Gun. If you have Kidney Trouble attend to it at once.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle or glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored, ropy or stringy, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night, and puts an end to the scalding pain when passing urine.

The Rev. Henry P. Miller, pastor Baptist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., writes:

"For years I suffered with Kidney, liver and heart troubles, swimming in the head, dull headache and numbness of the limbs. Physicians prescribed for me and I took different medicines, but none of them did me any good. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me in about two weeks."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.
