

Week's Social News

COLONEL and Mrs. Ezra Hoyt... Wallace McCulloch, at their beautiful home, "Highbank," Thursday night, October 16.

and others equally well known, have secured some of their best ponies from Mrs. Parker, Mrs. in a measure, is the reason for Mrs. Parker's entering into field of thoroughbreds.

The third and last reception given in honor of Mr. John Galpin and his lovely bride at "The Homestead" was on Thursday.

The marriage of Miss Lydia Farrar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrar, of Dunmore, to Mr. Frank J. Pickering, was an event of unusual importance in Dunmore Wednesday night.

The young girls assisting in the dining room were Misses Florence D. Smith, Mildred Marple, Elizabeth Sturges, Alice Blair, Lorrain La Bar, Margaret Barker, Mary Hallstead and Margaret Connell.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Dorrance Laverty to William Vail Johnson, of Newark, will take place at the First Presbyterian church, October 11.

Mrs. Lottie Blair Parker, who has won so cleverly, and whose successes as a playwright are so marked, will honor Scranton with a visit today and will have an informal reception this afternoon on the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Miss Anna McNulty has returned to Bryn Mawr. Miss Ruth Archbald also left for Bryn Mawr immediately after her return from abroad.

There has been a large advance sale of seats for the Semberich concert. The diagram is unique and interesting. It was devised after long study by Architect Harvey Blackwood, and is a study in itself.

Tea will be served at the Country club today—Providence permitting pleasant weather. The gray sides of the past fortnight have discouraged any festive aspirations on the part of the entertainment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Archbald and the Misses Archbald have returned after several months spent abroad. They have had a delightful summer and come home in excellent health.

There will probably be unusual stirring up of artistic tastes and thought this winter in Scranton. It is more than deplorable that the art atmosphere of the United States is only found in a few centers, that is, counted on the fingers of one hand.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rowe, of Los Angeles, California, who are on their way across the continent to New Haven, Conn., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Atherton, of Boulevard avenue.

Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss Louise Sturges, Gladys Watkins and Miss Janet Storer have gone to Rosemary school, Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hand announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Longstreet, to Stephen Francis Dunn, of Battle Creek, Michigan.

Miss Ella Platt is alarmingly ill at Hartford, Conn. Her brother, F. E. Platt, was called there yesterday. Mrs. Platt was called early in the week.

Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archbald gave a dinner last evening at their home on Monroe avenue.

Mrs. E. C. Lynch is visiting Mrs. J. J. Ryan in Dunmore. Mrs. W. D. Kennedy has returned from Princeton, where her son, Harold, is at college.

Miss Jackman, who has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Sanderson on Clay avenue, has returned to her home in Boston.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

more desirable than at any of the great concerts held last season. Madame Semberich, undoubtedly the greatest songstress of her time, will be greeted by an audience worthy of her commendation. The superb programme for the concert appears in another column.

The marriage of Miss Lydia Farrar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrar, of Dunmore, to Mr. Frank J. Pickering, was an event of unusual importance in Dunmore Wednesday night.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Dorrance Laverty to William Vail Johnson, of Newark, will take place at the First Presbyterian church, October 11.

Miss Anna McNulty has returned to Bryn Mawr. Miss Ruth Archbald also left for Bryn Mawr immediately after her return from abroad.

Miss Margaretta Bell, Miss Marjorie Warren, Miss Jean Dimmock and Miss Eleanor Moffat left this week for Farmington.

Miss Adelaide Hand left this week for a fashionable boarding school in New York.

Tea will be served at the Country club today—Providence permitting pleasant weather. The gray sides of the past fortnight have discouraged any festive aspirations on the part of the entertainment committee.

There will probably be unusual stirring up of artistic tastes and thought this winter in Scranton. It is more than deplorable that the art atmosphere of the United States is only found in a few centers, that is, counted on the fingers of one hand.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rowe, of Los Angeles, California, who are on their way across the continent to New Haven, Conn., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Atherton, of Boulevard avenue.

Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss Louise Sturges, Gladys Watkins and Miss Janet Storer have gone to Rosemary school, Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hand announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Longstreet, to Stephen Francis Dunn, of Battle Creek, Michigan.

Miss Ella Platt is alarmingly ill at Hartford, Conn. Her brother, F. E. Platt, was called there yesterday. Mrs. Platt was called early in the week.

Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archbald gave a dinner last evening at their home on Monroe avenue.

Mrs. E. C. Lynch is visiting Mrs. J. J. Ryan in Dunmore. Mrs. W. D. Kennedy has returned from Princeton, where her son, Harold, is at college.

Miss Jackman, who has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Sanderson on Clay avenue, has returned to her home in Boston.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

question worth hearing. It is possible that he may express these views in a group of lectures given at private homes where the listeners will be invited guests, and that a certain degree of art interest will result.

By the way, Mr. Teed has one painting at Griffin's on Washington avenue, a beautiful scene named after the period of Louis XIV, that deserves more than passing notice. It has an enchanting grace and real atmosphere, almost never depicted in an interior. It is unlike any court painting within recall, but has an elusive charm, so delicate, so pure and tender that the on-looker turns to look again and again.

Mr. Sumner Salter was in the city this week and hereafter will come up from New York every Wednesday. He is now permanently connected with the Hardenbergh School of Music.

The Dixie theater had the best bill of the season thus far during the past few weeks and the fact for attendance continues to flourish. A society girl remarked last night that she had been there three times this week, and proposed to go once more. The "Phroso" mystery has aroused so much curiosity that many theater parties have already been arranged for next week.

Miss Ella Platt is alarmingly ill at Hartford, Conn. Her brother, F. E. Platt, was called there yesterday. Mrs. Platt was called early in the week.

Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archbald gave a dinner last evening at their home on Monroe avenue.

Mrs. E. C. Lynch is visiting Mrs. J. J. Ryan in Dunmore. Mrs. W. D. Kennedy has returned from Princeton, where her son, Harold, is at college.

Miss Jackman, who has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Sanderson on Clay avenue, has returned to her home in Boston.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

Mr. J. M. Chance, organist and director, will give a recital at the Lyceum stage after the matinee.

BOOTS $3. OXFORDS $2.50

THE FAMOUS SHOE FOR WOMEN

MAHON'S SHOE STORE Sole Agents 328 Lackawanna Avenue.

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

MAHON'S SHOE STORE Sole Agents 328 Lackawanna Avenue.

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

MAHON'S SHOE STORE Sole Agents 328 Lackawanna Avenue.

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

There are few women who are not acquainted with the reputation and general high character of those shoes...

30--STAMPS--30 WITH A DOLLAR PURCHASE AT OUR

Great 3 Days NEW DRY GOODS Sale of

FRIDAY, SATURDAY, MONDAY, OCT. 3, 4, 6. The unsettled condition of trade induces us to offer extraordinary bargains to our customers.

Advertisement for Mears & Hagen featuring various goods like dress goods, linens, domestics, wash goods, notions, and blankets. Includes a coupon for 30 stamps and a list of items with prices.

Advertisement for Dickson Mill & Grain Co. featuring OATS! and information about the company's products and services.

Advertisement for Kitchen Utensil featuring AGATE NICKEL-STEEL WARE and information about the company's products and services.