

WEST SCRANTON

Batch of Aldermanic Cases—Red Men Visit Moosic—Other Happenings of General Interest.

John Davinsky appeared before Alderman Kellow yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of William Kutick, on the charge of assault and battery. The prosecutor claimed that the defendant entered his home and abused his wife, and when he attempted to put Kutick out of the defendant grabbed him by the throat and choked him and otherwise hurt him. The case was settled by Kutick paying the costs.

Just after leaving the alderman's office Davinsky met Joseph Macoski, who asked what the trouble was. Davinsky said it was a family trouble, and none of his business. This precipitated a fight, as the result of which Davinsky was arrested and compelled to pay the costs in the case.

Before Alderman Noone.

William P. Joyce, of 718 West Lackawanna avenue, appeared before Alderman Noone yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Charles H. Major, of Lackawanna avenue, on the charge of receiving goods under false pretenses. The defendant was placed under arrest and given a hearing last evening.

The prosecutor testified that the defendant had secured goods from time to time by various representations, and when the bill amounted to $25.81 he refused to pay. Major agreed to give a judgment note to cover the entire claim, and so the case was settled.

Joseph Herfery, of 422 Emmet street, was the defendant in an assault and battery case before Alderman Noone. Herfery is about 8 years old, a small, innocent-looking youngster, and seemed quite contented in the office of the alderman.

Ellen, the mother of young Joseph Frantzek, appeared and testified that while her son and Herfery were coming home from school, Herfery set upon her son and after cutting his face, hands and breast, pushed him in a mud puddle. The alderman paroled the youngster.

Cousins at War.

James O'Donnell, of 923 Scranton street, appeared before Alderman B. Davies and swore out a warrant for the arrest of his cousin, Agnes McLaughlin, of the same address, on the charge of assault and battery.

Constable Timothy Jones served the warrant and at the hearing the defendant was represented by Attorney J. E. Hiller Ross. After the evidence was submitted the alderman decided that the program be as follows:

SOUTH SCRANTON CONDEMNED TO DIE

A HEARTBROKEN MOTHER HEARS HER LAUGHTER'S LOOM.

Life's prospects should be brightest for the American girl at fifteen. She feels the charm of the budding graces of womanhood and the world dally presents new attractions as the awkward days of her girlhood are left behind. Can anything be more tragic than a girl at this age—condemned to a bed suffering with no hope for the future but that death may end her sufferings? All too often the bent and heartbroken mother hears from the doctor's lips the sentence that the child she loves shall die—only to be told that her life cannot live to brighten her life. Mrs. Ellen Lloyd, of No. 399 Academy street, Plymouth, Pa., is a mother who has heard these fearful words but in whose case the threatened tragedy was averted. To a reporter recently she said:

"My daughter Lavinia is alive and well today. It is due entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When she was in her sixth year she had a severe attack of scarlet fever which left her in a dreadful state of health. She was thin and pallid and was tortured with violent headaches and backache. It almost broke my heart to see her suffer so."

"She would lie on the bed with no strength or ambition to move or even speak. She could not eat a thing. Her bowels would swell up and the back of her head would get so hot that I thought her brain would be affected."

"Two of our best doctors treated her but both said she would never be cured. That she would either die of Bright's disease or her trouble would turn into quick consumption."

"She had been suffering this way for about eight years and constantly growing worse when, upon the recommendation of a friend, I had her stop all other medicines and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills saved her life. She began to improve with the taking of the first box and in a short time was perfectly well. Since then she has never been in bed from sickness, nor has she lost a day's work."

Results fully as wonderful as the above have been accomplished three and four again by the marvelous agency of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They have been proven to be an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatitis, neuralgia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box or six boxes for two dollars and a half (they are never sold in bulk or by the hundred) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Avoid imitations; substitutes never cured anybody.

RENDED BY FRIENDS.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered to Miss Mary Young at the home of her parents, on Brook street, Thursday evening. Games of various kinds were indulged in until 11 o'clock, when refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Annie Wills, Mary Miller, Justina Klein, Maggie Young, Anna Klein, Lily Wilson, Susie Lewis, Maggie Martin, Lois Nye, Carrie Von Bergen, Maggie Reiche and Messrs. Arthur Miller, Elmer Thompson, William Westphal, Peter Lessing, Walter Hopkins, Albert Bidinger, John Gebhardt, John Zies, Jacob Kaiser, James Cadden, Charles Heeneey and Amos Kiblich.

ALDERMANIC DOINGS.

A. E. Bodish, of Hallstead, was arraigned yesterday for larceny, the charge being preferred by W. J. Scott, of Birch street. Bodish was formerly post owner of the Speedway. A horse blanket belonging to Scott disappeared, and witnesses were ready to testify they had seen it at Bodish's home in Hallstead. He was held for court in $200 bail.

A search warrant was issued by Alderman Lentex yesterday, and August Mehren, John Mahl and Frank Lopatka were arrested for the larceny of an E flat bass horn, belonging to the Ringgold band. Mahl and Mehren put in an appearance, but Lopatka is at Olyphant for some time and his commitment had become intolerable, hence his arrest. Alderman Lentex held Schultz for court in $600 bail, in default of which he was sent to the county jail.

NUBS OF NEWS.
