NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, Oct. 2.—Dr. J. F. Butterfield, of South Montrose, was a prominent exhibitor at the Harford fair on Tuesday, his fine herd of Ayeshires always winning enough premiums to repay him for the trouble of getting them here.

The Presbyterian parsonage presents a very fine appearance in its new coat of paint.

The following from this place were in Binghamton this week: C. M. Hawley, John Horton, John H. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Frink and John Mahon. Large quantities of poultry are being shipped daily to the city markets, the high price of meat creating the demand.

At the Harford fair on Tuesday, M. L. Smith was awarded first premium on E. C. Lake's horse, the class being best all around road horse. The second premium was captured by Arthur L. Harrington, also of this place. The same premiums were awarded to the same parties at the Montrose fair.

Prof. E. Button gave an excellent entertainment in sleight-of-hand and ventriloquism at Village hall, Tuesday evening, to a fair-sized audience.

Albert Hawley returned from Towanda Wednesday evening, after visiting his brother, Charles, for a short time. He expects to return to his home in Tacoma, Wash., on Friday.

Mrs. W. J. Maxey is convalescing rapidly and all danger is considered past.

George A. Darrow attended the Harford fair, Tuesday.

The Montrose High school expects to play the Sayre High school foot ball team on Saturday, Oct. 25.

Glenn Guy, a prominent young electrician of Schenectady, is home for a couple of weeks, as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Guy, at the Montrose house.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beck and son, Ward, have been visiting in Binghamton this week.

Charles F. Watrous injured his foot Monday afternoon, by a box falling upon it, and has been forced to walk with a cane for the past few days.

The Gun club have their room in condition for occupancy, their billiard table having been placed in position this week, and other things done to increase their comfort and amusement.

Daniel G. Stark, of Waverly, N. Y., arrived in town Tuesday evening, to arrange for the removal of his household goods to Waverly, where he recently took up his residence.

James Morris, jr., shipped his goods to Binghamton on Monday, where he, with his family, will in the future make their home.

Eben Flumerfelt returned Sunday to Scranton, after visiting in this place, and at the home of his uncle, F. E. Cobb, at Dunraven, N. Y.

HALLSTEAD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Hallstead, Oct. 2.—Michael Hayes is moving his family to Buffalo this week. Charles Scales and family will occupy his residence, on Pine street.

Joseph Grustin and family are moving to Scranton this week.

Ernest Read, who recently secured a position in Buffalo, but who has been at home here for about a week, on account of ill health, left for Buffalo today.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, Oct. 3.—"A Sister's Love" will be the attraction at the opera house, Saturday evening, October 4. A melodrama, interpreted by Misses Cook and Clinton, supported by an excellent company, with magnificent scenery.

The Dennis O'Dour troupe, which gave an entertainment in the opera house, Wednesday night, disbanded in Honesdale, Thursday morning. There were fifteen people in the company. Their receipts would not meet expenses.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church has completed arrangements for their annual entertainment course. The first number will be given November 24.

Howard Northup, of Clark's Green, was a business visitor in Honesdale on Thursday and Friday.

A term of the Wayne county court will commence on Monday next.

The ladies of Captain James Ham circle are arranging to hold a rummage sale the latter part of October.

It is a novel sight, when a car of the black diamonds (so precious these days) is placed on the coal pockets, to see one hundred wagons of every description waiting for a turn to get half a ton, the allowance to each while it lasts. Many go away empty.

At the Wayne county fair, postponed to October 7, 8 and 9, there will be fast running and trotting races, bicycle, foot and sack races; a grand display of merchandise and machinery, parade of decorated farm wagons and floats. The guidless wonder will trot, without rider or driver, and there will be many other attractions. In case of storm, postponement will be made to next fair day.

The barrel factory of the McKenna Bros. presents a scene of much activity. The demand for apple barrels is so great that by working nights and turning out nine hundred barrels daily they cannot supply the demand. Teams from the farm districts stand in waiting for the barrels, which are taken direct from the hands of the workmen. The apple crop is large and is a source of much revenue for Wayne county farmers.

WYALUSING.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Wyalusing, Oct. 2.—At the Presbyterian church, Wednesday morning, October 1, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Jennie Belle Slocum, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Frances Slocum, and Francis R. Parks, of Westfield, Mass. Owing to recent deaths in the family of both, H. W. Hines, of Pasadena, uncle of the bride, and R. W. Parks, the father of the groom, only the immediate family witnessed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in white silk mull over taffeta, trimmed with rare old point lace, and wore a veil and orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a diamond necklace, the gift of the groom. Her only sister, Bessie Slocum, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of white Paris muslin, with a white picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. The bride was given away by her uncle, L. B. Hines, of Scranton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Croft, of Angelica, N. Y., who had performed a like ceremony for the parents of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Parks, after a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride, Orchard cottage, departed on train No. 8 for a tour of the southern cities, after which they will be at home at 69 Court street, Westfield, Mass. Among the relatives from out of town who witnessed the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Polen and daughter Lydia, of West Pittston; Mrs. R. W. Parks, of Westfield, Mass.; Miss Mina Hines, of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. L. B. Hines, of Scranton.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section ten of article one of the Constitution, so that a discharge of a jury for failure to agree or other necessary cause shall not work an acquittal.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution; that is to say, that section ten of article one, which reads as follows:

"No person shall, for any indictable offense, be proceeded against criminally by information, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger, or by leave of the court for oppression or misdemeanor in office. No person shall, for the same offense, be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall private property be taken or applied to public use, without authority of law and without just compensation being first made or secured," be amended so as to read as follows:

No person shall, for any indictable offense, be proceeded against criminally by information, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger, or by leave of the court for oppression or misdemeanor in office. No person shall, for the same offense be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; but a discharge of the jury for failure to agree, or other necessary cause, shall not work an acquittal. Nor shall private property be taken or applied to public use, without authority of law and without just compensation being first made or secured.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment.

Add at the end of section seven, article three, the following words: "Unless before it shall be introduced in the General Assembly, such proposed special or local law shall have been first submitted to a popular vote, at a general or special election in the locality or localities to be affected by its operation, under an order of the court of common pleas of the respective county after hearing and application granted, and shall have been approved by a majority of the voters at such election: Provided, That no such election shall be held until the decree of court authorizing the same shall have been advertised for at least thirty (30) days in the locality or localities affected, in such manner as the court may direct.
