THE PRESIDENT CALLS AT OTHER CONFERENCE

A New Scheme to Settle the Anthracite Coal Strike Is Now on Foot.

AN APPEAL MAY BE MADE TO THE MINERS

In an Earnest Effort to Expedite the Adjustment of the Difficulty Between Mine Workers and Coal Operators, President Roosevelt Calls Another Meeting at the White House...

make an inquiry, perhaps hastening the usual method by calling an extra session. But these pledges were given only on condition that the men go at once into the mines and get out with all speed the coal for which the people are suffering.

Purpose of the Conference. So, it is believed that today's conference was called by the president with the purpose of putting in exact shape the details of a plan conceived in his rough outlines even before the departure of President Mitchell last Friday afternoon from the mixed conference.

One object of the conference was to consider some of the propositions that have been sent to the president for settling the strike. These came from every section of the country, and a large proportion from men of standing and reputation.

SOFT COAL OPERATORS ARE SYMPATHETIC

President Russell Intimates Their Sympathy Has Been Demonstrated in a Substantial Way.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 5.—The Washington conference between President Roosevelt, the coal operators and the representatives of the anthracite coal mine workers having been without result, the strike leaders are now engaged in tightening up their lines and preparing themselves to combat any move made by the operators to break the ranks of the strikers.

Nature of Proceedings. In this state of absolute reticence of every one of the parties to the conference, it is almost impossible to do more than draw the most general of conclusions as to the nature of the proceedings, based upon what preceded the meeting.
