

STRIKING MINERS REMAIN FIRM

They Praise President Roosevelt, but Show No Disposition to Yield to His Wishes.

WILL STAY OUT UNTIL THE BLUE BIRDS COME

Though Different in Form, the Resolutions Received at Strike Headquarters Express Unanimous Sentiment Against Returning to Work Upon Conditions Proposed by Mr. Roosevelt—The Resolutions Praise President Roosevelt; Denounce the Coal Operators and Governor Stone.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 8.—Unless President Roosevelt's hurried visit to New York bears fruit, the end of the miners' strike seems a long way off, and the prospect of sufficient coal being mined to satisfy the public demand is extremely poor.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 8.—The President Mitchell's hurried visit to New York bears fruit, the end of the miners' strike seems a long way off, and the prospect of sufficient coal being mined to satisfy the public demand is extremely poor.

President Roosevelt Praised. It was a busy day for the miners, especially the officials about headquarters. From early this morning until late tonight the returns came in constantly.

RESIGNATION RUMOR REVIVED

The Story That Mr. Baer Has Resigned Cannot Be Confirmed. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—A rumor was current here tonight that George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, had submitted his resignation to the board of directors. Inquiry at Mr. Baer's house here elicited the information that he had retired for the night, leaving strict instructions that he was not to be disturbed.

MITCHELL IN NEW YORK.

The President of Mine Workers Visits the Hotel Where Senators Quay and Penrose Are. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 8.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers' association, arrived at the Pennsylvania depot in Jersey City tonight, having come on a Lehigh Valley train from Wilkes-Barre, Pa. With him were District President Nicholas Faby and DuBois.

THE HONSDALE FAIR.

Splendid Programme of Races Offered Yesterday—Henry H. Pierce Narrowly Escaped Injury.

Honsdale, Oct. 8.—There was a good crowd of racing at the Wayne county fair yesterday. The day was one of the spectators, thought it was rather chilly for the speeding horses.

NO CONFERENCE HELD.

Coal Operators Display No Anxiety to Meet Committee of National Manufacturers' Association.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The visit to this city of the committee representing the National Association of Manufacturers, for the purpose of conferring with the presidents of the anthracite coal-carrying roads who last week met President Roosevelt and the officials of the miners' union at Washington, appears to have been fruitless.

HEARING THE OBJECTIONS

Lackawanna Democrats Invade the Dauphin County Court In Force.

HAVE HUNDREDS OF WITNESSES PRESENT

Attorneys for Both Sides Present the Claims of the Rival Conventions, and Then T. P. Hoban Was Put on the Stand—His Testimony Was to the Effect That the Convention of the Faheyites Was in Defiance of All Rules for the Government of the Party.

HEARING POSTPONED.

Proceedings Against Coal Carrying Railroads Have Been Continued. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

THE HONSDALE FAIR.

Splendid Programme of Races Offered Yesterday—Henry H. Pierce Narrowly Escaped Injury.

Honsdale, Oct. 8.—There was a good crowd of racing at the Wayne county fair yesterday. The day was one of the spectators, thought it was rather chilly for the speeding horses.

NO CONFERENCE HELD.

Coal Operators Display No Anxiety to Meet Committee of National Manufacturers' Association.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The visit to this city of the committee representing the National Association of Manufacturers, for the purpose of conferring with the presidents of the anthracite coal-carrying roads who last week met President Roosevelt and the officials of the miners' union at Washington, appears to have been fruitless.

THE TRAMP OF THE VETERANS OF '61

Glimax of the Thirty-Sixth Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

THE GRAND PARADE AT WASHINGTON

For More Than Six Hours the People of the National Capital Hum the Chorus of the Old Civil War Song, "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching"—The Route of the Parade Down Historic Pennsylvania Avenue Where Many of the Veterans Marched as Raw Recruits in 1861, and Many More Took Part in the Grand Review at the Close of the War in 1865—The President Rides Up and Down the Line and Is Received by the Veterans with Loud Applause.

BURIED ALIVE IN CAVE-HOLE.

Terrible Fate of Raphael Gerre, a Striking Miner, at Pittston. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

JUDGE PENNYPACKER'S TRIUMPHAL TOUR

Meetings Largely Attended—Attorney General Elkin Speaks for the Whole Ticket.

TWO NEGROES HANGED.

Garfield Burley and Curtis Brown Hanged by a Mob of 500 in Tennessee.

Dan Patch's Great Feet.

New York, Oct. 8.—On a track between two and three seconds last night Dan Patch won an exhibition mile in four corners course this afternoon in 2:01 flat.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

New York, Oct. 8.—Arrived: Kaiserin Maria Theresia, Bremen; Graf Waldersee, Hamburg; Teutonic, Liverpool; Cleared: Auguste Victoria, Hamburg via Plymouth and Cherbourg; La Champane, Havre; Friedrich der Grosse, Bremen via Southampton. Sailed: Philadelphia, Southampton; Germania, Liverpool; Steamer Pasadena, New York via Boston; Southampton, Cherbourg-Sailed; Kronsberg, Wilhelm (from Bremen and Southampton) New York; Lizard—Passed: La Savoie, New York; La Havre, Southampton—Arrived: St. Louis, New York.

THE TRAMP OF THE VETERANS OF '61

Glimax of the Thirty-Sixth Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

THE GRAND PARADE AT WASHINGTON

For More Than Six Hours the People of the National Capital Hum the Chorus of the Old Civil War Song, "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching"—The Route of the Parade Down Historic Pennsylvania Avenue Where Many of the Veterans Marched as Raw Recruits in 1861, and Many More Took Part in the Grand Review at the Close of the War in 1865—The President Rides Up and Down the Line and Is Received by the Veterans with Loud Applause.

BURIED ALIVE IN CAVE-HOLE.

Terrible Fate of Raphael Gerre, a Striking Miner, at Pittston. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

JUDGE PENNYPACKER'S TRIUMPHAL TOUR

Meetings Largely Attended—Attorney General Elkin Speaks for the Whole Ticket.

TWO NEGROES HANGED.

Garfield Burley and Curtis Brown Hanged by a Mob of 500 in Tennessee.

DAN PATCH'S GREAT FEET.

New York, Oct. 8.—On a track between two and three seconds last night Dan Patch won an exhibition mile in four corners course this afternoon in 2:01 flat.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

New York, Oct. 8.—Arrived: Kaiserin Maria Theresia, Bremen; Graf Waldersee, Hamburg; Teutonic, Liverpool; Cleared: Auguste Victoria, Hamburg via Plymouth and Cherbourg; La Champane, Havre; Friedrich der Grosse, Bremen via Southampton. Sailed: Philadelphia, Southampton; Germania, Liverpool; Steamer Pasadena, New York via Boston; Southampton, Cherbourg-Sailed; Kronsberg, Wilhelm (from Bremen and Southampton) New York; Lizard—Passed: La Savoie, New York; La Havre, Southampton—Arrived: St. Louis, New York.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER

Local data for October 8, 1902. Highest temperature..... 90 degrees; lowest temperature..... 62 degrees; relative humidity..... 85 per cent.; precipitation, 24 hours ended 3 p. m., trace.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Forecast for Thursday and Friday: Eastern Pennsylvania—Fair Thursday and Friday; variable winds.

MR. MITCHELL'S ANSWER IS NOT RECEIVED.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 8.—The answer of President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, to the letter of President

THE GRAND PARADE AT WASHINGTON

For More Than Six Hours the People of the National Capital Hum the Chorus of the Old Civil War Song, "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching"—The Route of the Parade Down Historic Pennsylvania Avenue Where Many of the Veterans Marched as Raw Recruits in 1861, and Many More Took Part in the Grand Review at the Close of the War in 1865—The President Rides Up and Down the Line and Is Received by the Veterans with Loud Applause.