

TROOPS ARE MOVING IN THIS DIRECTION

(Concluded from Page 4)

Jose, Louis Kaser, James Mash, John Plo, Angelo Theonis, Angelo Pierr, Louis Peukos and Frank Sanecky. All of them were Italians, except the last named, who is a Pole, and speaks good English.

WEAPONS THEY CARRIED.

When searched the following concealed weapons were found on prisoners: Three revolvers, two razors, two stiletos, one big dirk knife and five ordinary pocket knives. They were arraigned for a hearing in police court before Magistrate Howe at 2 o'clock on the charge of disorderly conduct.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

A number of other witnesses were sworn, but their testimony was about the same. Magistrate Howe finally disposed of the case by committing to jail for disorderly conduct, and in default of money were sent to the county jail for thirty days each, with the exception of Frank Sanecky, the Pole, who paid his fine.

In the meantime Anthony Jordan, Michael Frelch, Peter Jordan, Meigel Deyll, and Louis Pietro, the workmen who were held-up appeared before Alderman Kason and had warrants issued for the nine prisoners on charges of inciting riot, carrying concealed weapons, making threats, assault and battery and other offenses.

There was no evidence in the police court case of assault and battery, and this charge was withdrawn. The defendants waived a hearing and were committed in default of bail. The bail for five of them was fixed at $1,000 each, and four of them $1,500 each, making a total of $15,000 bail required for all of them. Sanecky furnished bail.

Twelve men and boys were arrested yesterday at the Taylor street of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, for picking and hauling away coal from an opening at that point. They were arraigned before Alderman Howe last evening for a hearing. They gave their names as follows: Peter Frelch, William J. Richards, William Deyll, George H. Stubbline, Matthew Evans, Amos Thomas, Andrew Medley, William Conners, Frank Frelch, Harry Oyster and Vine Alex.

Conners and Frelch satisfied the allderman that they were not picking coal, but simply watching others. They were discharged. Matthew Evans, who came here a week ago from Pitsburg to visit his brother, did not know it was unlawful to pick coal from the dumps, and he was released on promise to keep away in future.

Vine, Alex, was also discharged, as he satisfied the allderman that he was not picking coal. He is a milkman and was employed by Stubbline to haul coal from the dump. All those not discharged were held in $300 bail each for court.

ANARCHISTIC CIRCULARS.

A number of anarchistic circulars were distributed in and about Duncree yesterday by parties unknown. They were rather poorly printed, and call for the extermination of all the enemies of the mine workers by assassination. The circular reads as follows:

BROTHERS:

Remember the history of the French Revolution, how when the Nobles thought to CRUSH THE WORKING MEN OF FRANCE, the workmen took the Government on THEMSELVES and punished their Oppressors as they deserved. You have a remedy for your ills and the gross insult to your PRESIDENT.

By Judge and Jury composed of MINERS try these CATHOLIC NUNS secret; if NOT GUILTY, acquit them, but if GUILTY, let no soft feelings deter you from executing JUDGEMENT. REMEMBER how a woman, Charlotte Corday, rid the World of an enemy of mankind, "MARAT."

Yours for Justice, Equality and Fraternity.

The officers of the Eighth regiment, when questioned last night, did not know that the circulars had been distributed. One of them remarked that if any one was found passing around such incendiary documents that person would be promptly placed under arrest.

MASS MEETINGS OF MINE WORKERS

The mine workers throughout the valley met in mass meetings at various places yesterday in response to the request made by President Mitchell and passed resolutions declaring that they

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life, and from every state in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greenhouse, of Fratsburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by all druggists.

To the Voters of Lackawanna County: I Beg to Announce That I am a Candidate for the Office of County Commissioner on the Citizens' Ticket.

I have filed nomination papers for my candidacy for the office of County Commissioner and such move was made only upon the urgent request of many friends who, in the interest of good government, directed me to this duty. My nomination papers bore the endorsement of 292 sound representative citizens of this community.

Having taken up the fight, I appeal to the voters of this county to consider my position and recognize the character of my past record. With no small amount of pride I point to the following notice which appeared in the Scranton Tribune.

"It is not every county which can present such a showing in the management of its finances as Lackawanna this year; but then it is not every county which can show such a showing in the management of its taxes. The rate of taxation is in half, but who actually follow that up by showing a clean reduction of outstanding indebtedness from $215,000 to $100,000, or well nigh 50 per cent. The only possible inference from such an exhibit is that Commissioners Franz, Flanagan and Halstead, instead of indulging in loud talk, have been quietly saving wood, and from what I have seen of their methods, this is precisely the milk in the coconut. They are business men first and politicians afterwards. And the outcome of their labors would seem to clinch the contention that this is the order which taxpayers most need."

In the interest of the people of this county permit me to call your attention to the fact that in addition to standing resolutely for honest government I have been an aggressive and persistent fighter for improvement on the county roads, bridges and other affairs under the jurisdiction of the County Commissioner and a watchful guardian of the county's finances.

I have not the means to hire carriages on election day and have no committeemen to extol my virtues from the street corners, but I do go before you as a plain, honest citizen, who promises, if elected, his best service, and one who can point to his past record as a guarantee of what may be expected of me in the future.

WILLIAM FRANZ.

Wall Street Review. New York, Oct. 8.—There was decided relief today from the panic of the credit contraction by the banks and the result was a sharp recovery in the price of stocks. The demand to cover short contracts by the bears was a considerable factor as the recent heavy declines have made operators on the side of the market hold and quite active. There was some show of enthusiasm in the closing and considerable gains were established. Some confidence and ceased their efforts to cover. Some points of strength persisted to the last, notably Union Pacific, but the market generally became somewhat pathetic and closing prices were generally below the best. A stiffening in the money rate late in the day to 15 per cent, and a heavy selling movement in Amalgamated Copper helped to unsettle the late dealings. The weakness of Amalgamated is due to the decline in price of copper both in New York and London. Total sales for the day, 69,750 shares. The bond market was more irregular than stocks and developed points of weakness as the day progressed. Total sales, par value, $5,000,000. United States is advanced on the New York market.
