

The News of Carbondale.

A DRY SUNDAY.

In the Saloons in the Central City at Least, Yesterday, There Was Nothing Doing—The Reason Thereof.

Yesterday was an exceedingly dry Sunday in Carbondale, as compared with recent Sabbaths, at least. Some one suggested it "didn't even rain." But aside from this pardonable levity, it was a dry Sabbath as compared with the moist Sabbaths in the strong refreshment line that we have had since the outbreak of public opinion of last winter, against Sunday selling of liquor.

The notification through the chief of police was due to a communication sent to Mayor O'Neill by Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen, pastor of the Berean Baptist Church. The letter notified that Dr. Whalen, a few Sundays ago, was able to gain entrance to a Main street saloon and that from the sights and noise about these places it was evident that the law was not being observed.

ELECTION WAS LEGAL.

Attorney Butler's Opinion in the Case of Tax Collector George Collins.

In the question raised as to the legality of the election of George Collins as poor tax collector, Attorney H. C. Butler, solicitor for the board, submits an opinion in which he declares the election legal.

"As I have stated before there is no statute prescribing how or by what method the poor directors of the city of Carbondale shall appoint a tax collector, therefore, the election of a tax collector by a majority of a quorum of the poor directors of the Carbondale city poor district in regular meeting assembled is legal.

"Where there any doubt on this question it should be finally set at rest by the opinion of President Judge Archbold in the case of the Commonwealth ex rel. vs. Schulmeier, reported in 3 Lackawanna Legal News, 186. The evidence produced at the time of this case shows that on March 11, 1896, the council of the borough of Olyphant met for organization. Mrs. C. A. Schuchman, president of the council, presided. The minutes of the meeting show that upon an election for the office of secretary six members voted for Schulmeier, the other three being present but not voting.

"George Collins is the legally elected tax collector for the poor district of the city of Carbondale, and if he files with your board a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $500, approved by your attorney, he should be given the duplicate."

An Up-to-Date Innovation.

Endre Wiessen, the Salem avenue barber, has added an appliance to his shaving parlors that speaks well for his effort to keep abreast of the times. He has installed the compressed air system which has just come into vogue in the large cities. Compressed air is supplied through rubber hose and is applied in effectively spraying the face with an after-shaving lotion, to quickly

FOOLED HIM.

But in the Pleasant Way of Peace.

Good thing some men are married. Their wives keep a sensible watch over them, and have a way to help overcome their troubles. Mr. E. Lewis, of Shamiko, Ore., was located for several years at various points in the South American continent. He became a customer of frequently drinking coffee. He says: "I took to using it the same as those nervous, excitable people in South and Central America. They make very black coffee and it becomes more or less an intoxicating beverage. At the end of about four months, I began having severe sick headaches and nervousness, but supposed it was from the tropical sun. At last my wife became alarmed at my headaches and stomach trouble. She tried to induce me to quit drinking coffee, laying my trouble to that, but I continued to use it."

"She read of Postum Food Coffee, and ordered some from the States, but kept it a secret from me. The very first time she made it, when I came in for my coffee and roll it was Postum, and I was pleased to find it so different from the coffee I had been drinking. It was a new brand of coffee and asked me how I liked it. I tried two cups of it with 'Leche-de-Choua,' which is used by everyone as milk in Panama, and thought it excellent. After a couple of days, my headaches stopped, and in a short while my nervousness disappeared as if by magic. I have been using nothing but Postum for the past year, and have been completely cured. And my wife has also been cured of constipation by changing to Postum, and we shall never go back to coffee again."

INCIDENTS OF STRIKE.

Carbondalians Tell How Coal Is Being Aroused Away from Home.

Ever since anthracite coal has become such a precious article outside the coal regions, Carbondalians, who are located in other cities, have written home relating some amusing incidents of how the black diamonds are treated as curios.

Joe Rosier, the star felder of the Crescents this season, writing from St. Michael's college, Toronto, Canada, where he is a student, says: "They feel the effects of the strike up here. I was down to the city the other day and saw in a jewelry store a small heap of anthracite. A large lock chain was attached to it, with a guarding bulldog at the other end. There was a sign near it that read: 'Anthracite coal. This was once used as fuel by the people of Toronto. Any person leaving his name can secure a specimen.'"

Another student writing from the South describes a placard in a Jeweler's window that reads: "We have cornered the supply of black diamonds in this section and offer some bargains in stickpins, earrings or watch chains."

Attorney Henry Singer, of New York city, who spent Saturday and Sunday here, left with his brother, Isaac Singer, one of the stick pins of anthracite coal that are readily being disposed of as a novelty in the metropolis. It is in reality not coal, but a small piece of slate, as big as an ordinary peanut.

Another item of interest in connection with the meagre coal supply is that local teamsters were busy Friday and Saturday hauling coal over the mountain to Honesdale. Perhaps twenty-five loads were thus disposed of. The price ranged from $6 to $7.50.

OLD FOLKS SERVICE.

Interesting Day at Berean Baptist Church—Four Octogenarians Participate with a Festival, Interest and Zeal.

A service that was interesting, impressive and edifying to the highest degree was the "Old Folks' day" at the Berean Baptist church yesterday, when the morning's religious exercises were dedicated to those who had grown old in years, but not in fervor and zeal, in the work of the church.

The exercises were notable for the number of octogenarians who participated. There was the venerable Rev. W. B. Grow, whose silvered hairs have been changed by eighty-six years; Saturday was his birthday anniversary; and there were Deacons P. S. Joslin, W. Adams, George B. Stone, E. S. Joslin, Nicholas Moore, A. C. Purple and William Howell, all of whom are in the evening of life, were seated in the pulpit beside Rev. Dr. Whalen and Rev. W. B. Grow. There were also a number present who were bordering on fourscore years.

The interesting programme was arranged so that the deacons, the pastor and Rev. Mr. Grow each participated. The blessing was asked by Deacons Williams and Stone; Rev. W. B. Grow announced the second; Deacon Joslin offered prayer; and Deacons Purple, Moon and Howell spoke apropos of the occasion with a deep religious feeling. Rev. Mr. Grow, who has had such a remarkably fruitful career in the pulpit, gave a brief talk on "How Life Looks at Eighty-six." Dr. Whalen likewise spoke wisely, offering on "Connections of Old Age." A particularly pleasing feature of the order of exercises was the duet, "Come Unto Me and Rest," by Mrs. H. J. Whalen and Hugh Williams. The singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," concluded the edifying observance.

The old folks, to whom it was such a pleasure to attend, were conveyed to and from the church in carriages, kindly loaned by Hon. E. E. Hendrick and S. S. Vall.

CONVENTION TUESDAY.

Daughters of Rebekah of Three Counties to Meet Here.

Tuesday will be an important day among the Daughters of Rebekah, the ladies' auxiliary to the Independent Order of Old Fellows. The occasion is the tri-county convention of that order, Lackawanna, Luzerne and Wyoming counties, to be held here.

The convention will be held in Cambrian hall, on South Church street, and will be called to order at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The gathering will be important, for it will have to do with the future government of the order. The grand assembly meets soon in Lebanon, at which changes will be made in the constitution. What changes or modifications the lodges in these three counties believe should be made will be suggested and discussed at the convention, and after being adopted, to be embodied in a report which the delegates will submit before the Lebanon meeting. The convention will not be public; the session to be for members only.

The members of the local lodge of Daughters of Rebekah, who will be hosts, have arranged to entertain the visitors, and will conclude the meeting in this city with a showing of the warm-hearted hospitality characteristic of Carbondale. The form of entertainment will be a banquet, which will be held in the parlors of the First Congregational church on Tuesday evening, a happy conclusion to the day's business.

After Nearly Forty Years.

W. T. Dale, who left Carbondale the year the Civil war ended, and went out to the Dakotas, was in Carbondale Saturday, after an absence of nearly two-score years.

Mr. Dale is now located in North Dakota. He has prospered since leaving this section, and is now postmaster at a Dakota town named Mellett. He wore the blue in the Civil strife, and

It was the fact that he is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic that brought him Carbondale way. He came to Washington to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army and took advantage of the opportunity to visit the scenes of his earlier years. He reached Carbondale Saturday evening, and after a brief, pleasant visit among old friends, he left on the stage for Royal, where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Henry Bennett.

WOOD-WHITELOCK.

Pleasant Nuptial Surprise That Has Aroused Happy Felicitations.

The news of the nuptials of Miss Maty E. Wood, of Terrace street, and Charles F. Whitelock, of Belmont street, which were solemnized at Hancock, N. Y., on Wednesday, is a topic that is being pleasantly discussed among the wide circle of admiring friends of the young folks.

The couple were unattended. Rev. Mr. Haynes, pastor of the Hancock Baptist church, officiated. The bride was gowned in blue broadcloth. After a week at New York city and another week at Havre-de-Grace, Md., they will take up their abode at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. E. MacMynne, 92 Terrace street.

Mrs. Whitelock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, of Montour Falls, N. Y., but has lived here for several years. She has acquired a host of friends since making her home here.

Mr. Whitelock is one of the most prominent and highly esteemed young men of Carbondale. He is timekeeper with his father, who is roadmaster of the Ontario and Western. He is conspicuous in fraternal circles, being chief of the Young Men's Christian Association, Patriarch Militant, secretary of Olive Leaf Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and secretary of Crystal camp, Woodmen of the World. He is a graduate of the Carbondale High school, class of 1894.

OBITUARY.

PATRICK LINNEN, who until recently forced to retire by ill-health, was a foreman at No. 1 colliery of the Delaware and Hudson, passed away at his home, on Gordon avenue, at 4 o'clock Saturday morning of dropsy. He had been confined to his home for three weeks.

The deceased was born in this city forty-six years ago and had spent his entire life here. He was a man of praiseworthy characteristics and a devoted member of St. Rose church.

The deceased is survived by his wife and eleven children: Mrs. F. Judge, John, Edward, Patrick, Frank, Joseph, Alice, Mary, Katie, Josephine and Annie Linnen, all of this city. He is also survived by two brothers and three sisters.

Funerals of Saturday.

The last rites over the late Mrs. Electa Snyder, relict of the late Henry Snyder, were held Saturday afternoon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George P. Achman, No. 21 Lincoln avenue, services were conducted at 2 o'clock by Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Chaffee delivered a touching eulogy. A quartette rendered several selections during the services. There were many very pretty floral offerings. From the house the cortege proceeded to Maplewood cemetery, where interment was made. The following acted as pall-bearers: T. C. Robinson, P. C. Olyer, D. W. Humphrey, William H. Williams, Frank Roemmelmeyer and Levi Shoum.

The obsequies of the late Patrick Lanny were held Saturday morning. The cortege left the house at 9:30 and was a long one. At St. Rose church high mass was celebrated by Rev. George E. Conner, father of the deceased, an eloquent eulogy of the deceased. The body was borne to St. Rose cemetery and there laid in its final resting place. The following were pall-bearers: E. E. Edmunds, of Jermyn; John Conner, of Bryn Mawr; Patrick McKeown, of Jermyn; Jeremiah Gilmarin, of Jermyn; P. J. Kelly, and Bernard Mulvey.

Home on a Brief Visit.

M. J. Horan, who recently resigned his position as salesman in Singer's Park clothing house to become the window decorator for Saranoff, the latter, in New York city, came home to spend Saturday and Sunday at the home of his parents on the West Side. Mr. Horan returned to the metropolis last evening. The news that he is well situated with bright prospects of advancement will be good news to his wide circle of well-wishing friends in Carbondale.

Chef in Scranton.

James Thompson, Jr., who closed his restaurant in this city a few weeks ago because of the lessened appetites due to the coal strike, is now well located in Scranton. He is the day chef at the Commercial, one of the busy restaurants of the Commercial area, assured of appetizing dishes while Jimmie is the man behind the gas stove.

The Burly Boys Are It.

The Burly Boys proved their title to their appropriate name by defeating the second team of the Carbondale High school in a scrappy game on Sunday field, Saturday morning. They shut out the High school boys by the score of 7-0. The Burly lads are ready for their next victims at any time that's convenient.

A Monster Cabbage.

This is not a shakering story in a Whitney, but a Carbondale fact. W. H. Deaver, the South Main street meat dealer, purchased an immense cabbage last week that he regards as a record.

THE ESQUIMO

The Eskimo eats blubber. The lumbermen eat pork. These people are constantly exposed to cold and physical strain. Experience has taught them that fatty foods give warmth and nourishment.

For those who have cold and thin bodies, or are threatened with consumption or any wasting disease, there is no fat in so digestible and palatable a form as Scott's Emulsion, Physicians prescribe it.

breaker. The big-leaved vegetable balanced the scale at 26 pounds and 12 ounces. This overgrown and greatly developed cabbage, which Mr. Evans as well as the growers prize, was purchased from the Hall brothers and was grown on the Hollenback farm.

VERY FAST FOOT BALL.

The Swiftwinds Defeat the Heavy Cottage Athletic Club.

The game of foot ball, between the Swiftwinds and the Cottage Athletic Club, on Alumni field, developed many very unusual features. The most surprising part of the contest was the result, as no one expected the Swiftwinds to score on their seasoned opponents, little less to defeat them, as they did, so decisively by the score of 5-0.

That the game was one of the most earnestly contested of the season's sport, everyone was aware. The Swiftwinds, under the guidance of Captain Monaghan, exhibited a dash and accuracy which bewildered the Cottage Athletic boys and kept them constantly on the defensive.

The game consisted of two halves of fifteen and twenty minutes, respectively. The Cottage Athletic Club won the toss and chose the north goal, with the field their back. Monaghan, the "Swifts" kicked to the 10-yard line, where Nealon and McCann smothered Higgins on his catch. The Cottage Athletic Club lost the ball on downs by the marvelous defense of Monaghan, Nealon and McHale. The "Winds" started their drive only by the most strenuous efforts that they bent the brilliant quartette, McHale, Nealon, Monaghan and McGarry, from scoring. The line-up was as follows:

An Extraordinary Elk's Head.

The local office of the National Express company handled in transit a few days ago, the head of an extraordinary size and the animal must have been a noble specimen of this family. From the top of the head to the end of the larger antler it measured 9 1/2 feet. It was a splendid product of the taxidermist's art. It was shipped from San Francisco, Calif., to Bloomsburg, Pa. The total express charges were $28.75.

Trauant Officer Ill.

Joseph Mannion, trauant officer of the Carbondale school district, has been seriously ill for several days. He has manifested all the symptoms of an attack of typhoid fever, his temperature ascending as high as 104 degrees. Yesterday the symptoms abated somewhat and there is hope that the typhoid element has been checked.

Ill of Diphtheria.

A case of diphtheria, the first in some time, has been reported to Secretary J. Russell Shephard, of the board of health. The sufferer is Leona Roemmelmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Roemmelmeyer, of Hirkett street.

Taken with Illness.

Ernest Yarrington was taken ill while at work at the Locomotive shops Saturday which necessitated his retiring from work for the day. He will be able to resume work this morning.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Miss Bertha Hathaway entertained the members of the Young Ladies' cooking club at her home, on Salem avenue, Friday evening.

Prof. A. Wilson Geary has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be out again, and he was at the High school again for a time Friday.

John Moran and wife, of Lebanon, have removed to this city and taken up their residence in the Moon house, on South Church street. Their son, William Moran, the South Main street barber, has been a resident here several years.

Mrs. A. E. Isgar, of River street, has been confined to her home for the past two weeks by illness. It was thought that her trouble would develop into a case of typhoid fever, but her condition is reported to be somewhat improved the past day or two.

JERMYN-MAYFIELD.

The funeral of Katie, daughter of Mrs. Champion of West Mayfield, took place yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the home by Rev. M. D. Fuller, D. D., pastor of the Methodist church. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege, among whom were the members of the Sunday school. The floral gifts included a wreath, an anchor and several casket songs, and were carried by the members of her Sunday school class. The pall-bearers were James Harris, Jr., John McLean, Willie Martin, Walter Reeves and George, and Charles Evans, of Carbondale.

A forty hours' devotion opened in Sacred Heart church yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, of Scranton, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jones, of Main street.

Henry Maxwell is confined to his home, on Main street, with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is being treated by Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, of Carbondale, spent Sunday in Jermyn.
