FIVE PLACES RESUME WORK

D., L. & W. Started Three and the O. & W. Two Collieries.

MAN HURT AT JERMYN

He Was Pursued by a Crowd of Strikers—Is Now in the Emergency Hospital at Carbondale—Was a Temple Iron Company Foreman in Charge of a Crowd of Recruits Bound for Edgerton—Body of Colonel Hoffman Taken to Pottsville. Statements Given Out at Strike Headquarters About the Amount of Coal Mined.

Operations were resumed at five collieries in this district, yesterday, according to the claims of the operators. The collieries are the Bellevue, Hyde Park and Archdiocese of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company and the Johnson No. 1 and No. 2 of the Ontario and Western company. The Bellevue and Hyde Park are located in this city; the Archdiocese, Plymouth, and the Johnson No. 1 and No. 2, Pottsville. No disorder attended the resumption at any of these places.

Company A, of the Thirtieth regiment and a detachment of the Governor's troop was at Pottsville during the early morning but found everything quiet. They were sent there again in the evening, when the men were returning from work and again had nothing to do.

At the companies' offices, with one exception, it was stated that there was a small increase yesterday in the working force at the collieries that had been operating. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company reported that twenty-two men had reported for work unexpectedly at the various collieries in this district. The Delaware and Hudson company was the one company to make no claim of an appreciable increase. The fact that the men are looking forward to a possible settlement, a Delaware and Hudson official said, keeps them from making a break from the union.

AS TO PRESIDENT BAER.

The story that Baer is likely to make some concessions, today, as a result of Governor Odell's activity, and the later story that John Pierpont Morgan has taken a hand in the settlement of the strike are alleged to be the immediate reasons for the failure of the companies to make a better showing yesterday, than they did. One man reported to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, on Saturday, said that he was one of sixty-five former employees of one colliery who would return to work yesterday. When yesterday came not a single one of the sixty-five showed up. Inquiry developed the fact that they were waiting until Wednesday in the hope that today would see a settlement of the strike. In the afternoon, the spokesman of the sixty-five appeared at the company's office and said they would return to work tomorrow if nothing is accomplished today towards effecting settlement.

A United Mine Workers' headquarters statement was given out that the Bellevue was opened up with seven men secured from other Delaware, Lackawanna and Western collieries and that only one car of coal was hoisted. It was further claimed that the engine, fire house and assistant fire boss at this mine quit work when the non-union men appeared. The claim was also made that since Friday forty men had been induced to quit work in the Scranton district most of them employees of North Scranton colliery, and that the Plymouth No. 2, washery of the Delaware and Hudson company had to shut down, yesterday, because of desertions. At the Delaware and Hudson company's office it was stated that this washery is only worked when the breaker is not being operated, and that yesterday, was one of the days the breaker worked.

OUTPUT FOR TWO DAYS.

Assistant Superintendent Tobey of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company gave it out yesterday that the output of the company's mines and washeries for Saturday and Sunday was 17,000 tons and that the average daily output, now, is 10,000 tons, or about one third of the average output before the strike.

Orlando Schooley is in the Emergency hospital, at Carbondale, as the result of an assault by a mob of Jermyrn and Mayfield strikers. He went from Scranton on the 2:11 p. m. Delaware and Hudson train with about a dozen men, whom he was taking to the Edgerton colliery of the Temple Iron company, and with his men got off the train at Mayfield. A crowd of strikers followed him, as he proceeded down the road towards Jermyrn. The crowd grew in numbers until it reached about 100, and then becoming emboldened began to hoot and yell at the newcomers and act in a threatening manner.

When the crowd began to close in on Schooley and his men, Schooley drew a revolver. At this the crowd pitched onto him and took the revolver away from him. Schooley ran, and the crowd followed. He sought refuge in the Jermyrn station, and talking to the station agent about sending a message to New Mexico and getting an answer in two hours.

While he was in the station, the mob turned its attention to the men who had accompanied him. The newcomers told their questioners that they were from North Wyoming county; that they had been hired by Schooley to work as firemen at $2 a day; that there was no strike of the firemen and they could join the union just as soon as they arrived, and that no one would molest them. They exhibited a letter bearing the purported signature of J. L. Crawford setting forth these terms.

CAME TO THIS CITY.

When apprised of how they had been deceived, all except one of the crowd bought tickets for Scranton and left on the next train. The one man had no money. The United Mine Workers took him in tow and later in the day furnished him with a ticket for Wilkes-Barre.

When Schooley emerged from the depot the crowd gathered about him again and, as his attitude was threatening, he broke and ran. The crowd followed, pelting him with stones and clubs. One of the missiles struck him in the middle of the back and he fell to the ground helpless. Dr. Davis, who was summoned to attend him, was of the belief that the blow had caused partial paralysis, and advised that he be taken to the hospital, which was done. Late last night the hospital reported that the injuries were not serious.

Word of the assault was telephoned to the fourth regular regiment and a detachment of soldiers hurried to the scene in the special troop train. Before they arrived the crowd had dispersed.

Ralph Chermak, of the Brisbin Patch, was held up near his boarding place at 8:20 o'clock last night by George Kapinski and John Malick, both of whom were armed. Friends of Chermak went to his rescue, and the assailants were dispersed and placed under arrest.

Asile from the call to Jermyrn, the Thirtieth had an uneventful day. The soldiers, who were in the camp in the sunshine, but continued their work of fixing up their canvas homes to withstand a possible siege of cold weather. Through the courtesy of Superintendent Manville, of the Delaware and Hudson company, the regiment's tents have been supplied with one of the small stoves used to heat a caboose, and permission has been granted the musicians to help themselves to coal at the Grassy Hill washery. Pipes are being laid from the washery boiler room to convey steam to the camp to heat the headquarters tents and the hospital.

DRESS PARADE.

A drill and dress parade in the afternoon was the extent of the activities of the Twelfth regiment at North Scranton. Colonel Clement is much gratified over the fact that the regiment's drill, which was held at the headquarters of the North End Glee club, composed, as it is, almost exclusively of strikers.

ARLINGTONS AND FRANKLINS BOTH WON

Each Again Took Three Straight Games Last Night—Independents Made a Sorry Showing.

The Arlington and Franklin teams kept up their winning streak last night and are now tied with the Backus bowlers for first place in the Scranton Bowling league race. The Backus players did not roll the Hange team last night, because a number of the members of each team were out of town.

The Arlingtons rolled up another splendid score, making a total of 2,480. The Maennerchor team will have to be very materially strengthened before it will be able to cut much of a figure. The score:

ARLINGTON.

Last week the Cambrians won three straight games from the West Side team. The West Siders got even last night by paying the North End players back in their own coin. Coons made a showing and the bowling of the West Side players was good all around. The score:

COAL SUPPLY FOR SCHOOLS

PEOPLE'S COAL COMPANY OFFER WAS NOT ACCEPTED.

But the Controllers May Purchase Oxford Coal if So Inclined—Offer Includes 300 Tons at $2.75 and $3.50 Per Ton—Several Appointments Made Permanent—Industrial Cabinets Have Not Yet Been Ordered—No. 22 School Building Will Be Inspected This Afternoon.

The question of the coal supply for the public schools was definitely decided at the meeting of the board of control last night, before the members, all of whom were present, had launched into the consideration of routine business. Other subjects which were taken up and acted on, included the appointment of several teachers and the recommendation of the supply committee to purchase a dozen Tiffany industrial cabinets.

Mr. Jayne brought up the coal question, and made a motion to the effect that each controller look after the needs of their respective wards and wherever coal is needed to purchase it wherever available at a price not to exceed $4.50 per ton.

Mr. Hand then read a communication from James G. Shepherd, secretary of the People's Coal company, in which they offered to furnish, at any time within three months from date (October 9) 150 tons of pea coal at $2.75 per net ton, delivered to any of the school buildings within one-half mile of the breaker, 25 cents additional for all coal delivered from one-half mile to one mile from breaker, and 50 cents additional for all coal delivered from one mile to the city limits in any direction.

Mr. Hand offered the proposition as an amendment to Mr. Jayne's motion, and advocated its acceptance as a reasonable offer. H. J. O'Malley, was for refusing the offer, and Mr. Langan moved to have the matter referred to the supply committee with power to act.

Mr. Murphy offered to secure "good coal," as he put it, for $2.50 per ton delivered, and Mr. Leonard objected to the proposition because no bids for coal had been advertised for. Several others made remarks on the question, and finally the roll was called on the amendment, which resulted in its defeat by a vote of 17-4. Messrs. Welsh, Hand, Schreifer and Barker voting for the amendment.

The original motion offered by Mr. Jayne was then put and adopted unanimously. This does not reject the People's Coal company offer, but gives each controller the privilege of purchasing coal anywhere they can get it at a price not to exceed $4.50 per ton.

Mr. Jennings explained that there was sufficient coal at No. 16 to last for some time to come, and Mr. Gibbons stated that No. 7 school had only been without coal for an hour, but if any of the schools needed coal there is a mine in operation in South Scranton to supply it.

Prof. W. P. Schilling asked permission to give an entertainment in the high school auditorium for the benefit of the striking miners and their families. The matter was referred to the high and training committee with power to act.

SOME RECOMMENDATIONS. The high and training committee recommended the permanent appointment of Eugene H. Fellows, as instructor at the high school, granted Miss Sadie Costlet permission to take a post-graduate course in the high school, recommended that the old Home for the Friendless building be advertised for sale and removal, and awarded Clarke Brothers the contract for furnishing window shades for the high school. The recommendations were adopted, together with the following permanent appointments, named by the teachers committee:

No. 3—Teresa Gaughan and Joseph Johnson.
No. 29—Alice Biddell and Ethel Kirk.
No. 22—Agnes Gibbons.
No. 28—Anna Jenkins and Bertha Johnson.
No. 28 Annex—Lucy Imeson.
No. 28—May Greely and Jennie Jenkins.

Anne Jones was granted leave of absence for the balance of the school year. She will take a special course in some Philadelphia school.

The matter of appointments at No. 13 school, which is in dispute between the controllers from the Sixth and Fifteenth wards, was referred to the teachers' committee. The annex to No. 15 school, in the old synagogue building on Linden street, was rented at $20 per month.

Architect Feeney, in a communication, announced that the new No. 22 building in the Third ward is ready for acceptance, and the board decided to accept it. They will assemble at city hall at 2 o'clock, where carriages will be in waiting.

MONEY TRANSFERRED. On motion of Mr. Jayne, the sum of $4,000 was transferred from the unexpended balance fund for the building committee to meet outstanding bills.

The spirit of economy was shown when the proposition and recommendation of the supply committee to purchase a dozen Tiffany industrial cabinets for use in the schools came up. The motion to lay the matter over was lost by a tie vote, and the motion to purchase was also lost by the same vote. The proposition was then referred to the superintendent and principals of grammar grades to ascertain if the cabinets are really wanted.

Mr. Evans complained that someone is furnishing miserable firewood to several schools, and the supply committee was instructed to make an investigation.
