MURDER CASE IS CONTINUED

COMMONWEALTH'S WITNESSES WERE NOT PRESENT.

Wladislaw Knostanowicz, Who Is Charged with the Killing of Joseph Bennovick, Will Not Be Tried Until the Next Term—Verdict of Not Guilty Taken as to Jacob I. Feld, the Junk Dealer, Charged with Receiving Stolen Goods—The Quinn Murder Recalled.

Wladislaw Knostanowicz, who is charged with the murder of Joseph Bennovick at North Scranton on July 25, 1901, will not be tried this term. The case was at the head of the list for the second week of criminal court which opened yesterday morning but District Attorney W. R. Lewis, announced to Judge John P. Kelly, who is on the bench in the main court room this week, that he was not prepared to go to trial because of the fact that several of the commonwealth's witnesses are now in Massachusetts and he could not go to trial without them.

The accused was in court when the continuance was allowed and sat beside his counsel, Attorney H. L. Taylor. He is charged with throwing Bennovick off a porch at North Scranton and breaking his neck and then dragging him into the street and kicking him. Jacob I. Feld was arraigned before Judge Harold McClure who is in No. 3 this week. He is a junk dealer and was charged with receiving iron stolen from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western country, by Superintendent of Police Day. Attorney Joseph O'Brien and Ralph Levy appeared for Feld. When the first witness was called Attorney O'Brien developed the fact that the commonwealth could not prove specifically the iron found in the possession of Feld had been stolen and had been purchased by him from the thieves knowing that it had been stolen and a verdict of not guilty was ordered by the court. Similar action was taken in the case of Feld charged with receiving stolen iron from the D. L. & W. railroad, and a verdict of not guilty was ordered by the court. Similar action was taken in the case of Feld charged with receiving stolen iron from the D. L. & W. railroad, and a verdict of not guilty was ordered by the court.

PARKER NOT GUILTY. A verdict of not guilty was also taken before Judge McClure in the case of Joseph Parker, charged with receiving stolen goods by Lieutenant of Police A. W. Palmer. Parker was found with a lot of iron in his wagon on North Main avenue one day some months ago and was arrested. It was impossible, however, for the commonwealth to make out the offense of receiving stolen goods and the court directed a verdict of not guilty.

By agreement of the parties the trial of Anthony Dunlevy, who is charged with perjury by Robert Wilson, of the Municipal league was continued until the next term. The case of Otto Staub, Adam Brown, Joseph Thompson and Thomas Miller charged with felonious wounding by Martin Langan was also continued because of the absence of one of the defendants.

Domitrik Burke, of Carbondale, did not appear to answer a charge of criminally assaulting Hattie Jeffrey and his ball was forfeited and a capias issued for him.

Louise Gillen pleaded guilty, before Judge Kelly, to stealing a number of articles from the office of S. S. Jones, of Carbondale. He was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

Herbert Brennan, a Carbondale boy, aged 15 years, pleaded guilty to the charge of burglarizing the stores of C. W. Seamans and F. A. Bell, of Carbondale. He will be sent to a reformatory. Mrs. Elizabeth Blackmore, of Carbondale, was tried on a charge of stealing a revolver from George W. Smith. She denied the charge, and at all events, said the weapon belonged to her husband. The verdict was not guilty.

BAIL FORFEITED. The bail of Martin was forfeited and a capias was issued for him because he did not appear to answer a charge of forgery, preferred by William Reese. The case against Michael and John Fareno, who were charged with assaulting and battering by Anthony Brown, was stricken from the list, the defendants having left the jurisdiction of the court. A verdict of not guilty was taken in the case of B. Josephson, charged with assault and battery, the prosecutor, Adam Ervanke, not appearing.

Catherine Peel was tried before Judge Kelly on a charge of having obtained $108 worth of furniture from Reddington by representing that she owned property. Her defense was a denial of the representations. The jury was out at adjournment.

Thomas White was convicted, before Judge Newcomb, of the larceny of a crate of pineapples from in front of Roberts' commission house, on Lackawanna avenue, on the morning of July 23 last. The defendant was engaged in the huckstering business and on the morning in question, according to the story of the prosecution, stopped his horse and wagon opposite Roberts' place of business, walked across the street, picked up a crate of pineapples and carried them to his wagon. His actions were noticed by Roberts, who called an officer and had him take the defendant in charge. The defendant testified that he had arranged for the purchase of the pineapples before taking them. His testimony, however, did not agree with the statement alleged to have been made by him at the time of the arrest. Attorney R. L. Levy was assigned as defendant's counsel, and the commonwealth's case was conducted by Mr. Thomas. A fine of $1 and ten months in jail was the sentence imposed.

REMINDER OF QUINN MURDER. The Quinn murder case was recalled by a case tried before Judge Newcomb during the afternoon, when Joseph Zima, Stanley Novakofski, Stanley Kilinski, Frank Kinivinski and John Wisniewski were charged with feloniously wounding Frank Sipple in John Quinn's saloon, on Keyser avenue, on the night of April 5. It was only a few weeks later that Quinn's sister, Mary, was murdered in a most foul manner a short distance from her home.

The allegation of the prosecutor is that on the night in question, while trying to remove his brother-in-law from Quinn's hotel, he was attacked by the defendants with clubs, glasses and chairs. His ribs were broken and he had wounds about the head and face. There was no direct evidence save against Zima and Novakofski, and the names of the other three were stricken from the case. The defendants denied

STREET SIGNS FOR ALL THOROUGHFARES

Contract Will Be Awarded Today for the Furnishing of Over 1,000 Signs at Cost of $1.70 Each.

The dream of a great many citizens is at last to be realized. Scranton is to have street signs. The contract for their purchase is to be awarded today, and they are to be installed at a remarkably cheap price.

Director of Public Works Roche yesterday afternoon opened the only bid received in response to the advertisement. It was from A. D. Benham, of Milford, Mich., who agrees to furnish and put up all the signs required at a cost of $1.70 each. The contract will undoubtedly be awarded Mr. Benham this morning by Recorder Connell and Director Roche.

The signs will be similar to a sample now in Director Roche's office. An iron pipe will extend seven and a half feet from the ground and at the top will be cast-iron cross pieces bearing the names of the intersecting streets and avenues, in black letters on a white background. These cross-pieces will be of No. 16 gauge galvanized iron and will be practically indestructible. They will run parallel to the streets which they will designate.

The appropriation ordinance for the present fiscal year contains an item of $2,000 for the purchase of street signs. It will permit the purchase of over 1,000 signs, or more than a sufficient number to place one at every street and avenue intersection in the city. The additional signs will be used to designate some of the courts and lanes, or else the additional money will be applied to having additional lettering put on the street and avenue signs, so as to designate the number of the block as well as the name of the thoroughfare.

CONTRACTOR IS EXONERATED.

Accident at South Scranton Church Blamable on the Victims.

An inquest was held by Coroner Saiter last night, in the case of Edward Finnegan and Maurice Van Horn, the two men killed by the collapse of a scaffold at the Holy Trinity Presbyterian church last Wednesday.

Rev. William A. North, pastor of the church; Henry Spruks, the general contractor in charge of the repairs, and the painters who were working with the unfortunate men, were examined. From their testimony, the jury found that the plank of the scaffold which gave way and precipitated the two men to their death, had been selected and set by themselves, and that they alone were responsible for the sad accident. A verdict in accordance with these findings was rendered by the jury. Contractor George Barton, the employer of the unfortunate men, was specifically exonerated.

Attorney John F. Murphy appeared at the hearing in the interest of Mr. Barton.

THIRD DEGREE CONFERRED.

Big Event at the Knights of Columbus Club House.

The third degree was last night conferred on sixty-seven Knights of Columbus in the club house, on North Washington avenue. Forty of the candidates were from this city, seventeen from Wilkes-Barre, five from Pittston and the balance from smaller places between this city and Carbondale.

The degree was conferred by State President J. A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, assisted by a degree corps from that city, made up of a number of prominent members of the organization. The house committee served refreshments at the conclusion of the ceremonial.

Seven contestants scored points yesterday as follows: John Mackie, 21; Lewis Bates, 13; Hugh Johnston, 12; Hendrick Adams, 9; Arthur J. Thayer, 1; Fred Kibler, 1; Chas. W. Dorsey, 1.

This is quite a different array of names from those usually published. Not one of the first nine leaders are in it. This indicates that those who have been hovering close to the bottom are starting up at the eleventh hour to get in line for scholarships. A number of changes occurred in consequence in the center and lower portions of the main table. Lewis Bates passed Frank B. McCreary, Miss Beatrice Harpur and Homer Kresge and holds fifteenth place by one point. Fred Kibler passed Miss Jane Mathewson and holds nineteenth place by the same narrow margin.

John Mackie of Providence made his second appearance in the main table and now holds twenty-fifth position, having passed Arthur J. Thayer, Miss Mary Yeager, Elmer Williams, Henry E. Collins, Leo Culver, Grant M. Decker, Walter Hallstead, Miss Edna Coleman and Hugh Johnston.

Hugh Johnston also improved his chances and went from thirty-first to twenty-sixth place, having skipped over Elmer Williams, Henry E. Collins, Leo Culver, Grant M. Decker, Walter Hallstead and Miss Culver.

As a result of John Mackie's re-entry Arthur J. Thayer was compelled to drop out of the main table, although he scored yesterday. Three points will bring him back again, however, while twelve will make him quite secure for a few days at least.

John Mackie now heads the list for the special contest that began yesterday morning and closes at 5 o'clock on Saturday night of this week. Five dollars in gold will be the reward of the contestant who scores the largest number of points in the six days.

Maxwell Shepherd, of Carbondale, whose portrait appears this morning, was the twenty-third to enter the Educational Contest, starting on April 9 and scoring his first points on May 6. Mr. Shepherd has been in the front rank of the leaders ever since and has never been lower than eleventh in the list. He is a popular young man in the Erie city and his friends are legion there. He is a brother of ex-Select Councilman Russell Shepherd of Carbondale.

LEADERS FOR THE SPECIAL HONOR PRIZE FIVE DOLLARS IN GOLD to the contestant scoring the largest number of points for week ending Saturday, October 18.

1. John Mackie, 24
2. Lewis Bates, 13
3. Hugh Johnston, 12
4. Hendrick Adams, 9
5. Arthur J. Thayer, 1
6. Fred Kibler, 1
7. Charles W. Dorsey, 1

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family in the Autumn Season.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters, and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble in some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains while toiling in the harvest fields, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia.

To the thousands of run-down, sickly and half dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore to the system the vigor and vitality of the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuritic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.
