ably the property of some foreigner. Near the trunk was found an empty pocketbook, several collars, ties, and a badge, on one side of which was the Inscription, "Prasidejo Lietum Drawgiste, St. Juozopo," On the other side was a cross, and this inscription, "22nd Lopkriczo, 1891, Scranton, Pa." In the trunk was a receipt for fifteen roubles, sent to Russia. It was signed by M. T. Kiesel, and was made payable to Simen Furanskus.

The West Side police were notified, and they gathered up the scattered contents and took them to the police station. As yet, the mystery of the trunk is not solved.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used sixty years with never-failing suc-tess by millions of mothers for their chil-dren. During the process of teething it value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the lowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. people will go to do good in this world. The proprietors of Warner's Safe Cure is soon as they heard that the Government statistics showed there are over 5,000,000 people suffering from kidney trouble in one form or another, immediately made an arrangement by which any reader of The Scranton Tribune who wants to can have & free trial bottle of Warner's Safe Cure by simply asking the company for it in a

This is the remedy that the papers wrote so much about in connection with the cure of General William Frost Nuttall, of the British army, whose kidneys became so clogged with Uric Acid while campaigning in South Africa that he he was entirely cured by Warner's Safe Cure. Only recently the exclusive society of Washington was startled by the cure of one of its leading members, Mrs. Francis W. Gresham, secretary and treasurer of the Higher League of Education, who was cured with the same remedy, and the papers of Wisconsin were full of the remarkable recovery of Miss Rosalie T. Teller, see retary of the Floral Club of Milwaukee who doctored for many years for female trouble when she really had kidney disease, and this remedy promptly restored her to her family and friends. Others of our readers will remember the case of Mrs. Rebecca Smith, of Westfield, N. J., who was cured at the age of 92, and Miss Virginia Townsend, V. P., of the Young People's Temperance Union, who had pretty nearly bankrupted herself buying medicine when luckly she heard of Warner's Safe Cure, It is one of the oldest remedies in America, and has by actual Nearly two hundred citizens attended last night's Republican rally in Athetic hall, when a permanent organizacount cured nearly a quarter of a miltion, to be known as the South Side

Their argument is that most all sickiess comes from the kidneys getting logged with Uric Acid, a poison that hins the blood and weakens every organ of the body, and it is the kind of an argument that should appeal to all sensible people. Therefore, any one who is alling ought to have the free rial bottle. It will quickly cure pains in the back and loins, rheumatism in any form, gout, weak back, diabetes, swelling of the feet and ankles, Bright's disease, dropsy, eczema, inflammation of ir., George W. Voritch was visiting several of his friends in Marvine patch, and in Harrington's hotel met two of his countrymen, chatting for some time he decided to go home, and started in the direction of North Main avenue. His two countrymen cut through the fields, headed him off and demanded that he should return to the hotel and treat. This he refused to do, saying he wanted to go home to his family. At this one of the men knocked him down. The two set upon and beat him into insensibility, rifled his pockets and threw him over an embankment near the Marvine culm dump. It was 3 o'clock in the morning when he regained consciousness. He went back to his relative's home in the Marvine patch, and later in the day had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of Stamerick, Alderman Myers held

IN THE REFERENCE ROOM.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean In the reference room of the Chicago Public library a student of physiog nomy has a good opportunity to study character. Here every day are assembled persons in all walks of life, The broken-down business man, the writer, the inventor, the theological student, the college professor and the inevitable "hobo" form the largest number of readers who frequent the place.

"Do you see that gray-haired fellow over there?" said a library attendant, pointing to an old man who was writing laboriously at one of the tables, Well, he is writing a history of the civil war. He has been working on it for over a year, and has only got to the battle of Fair Oaks. By the time he gets to the siege of Vicksburg, I fear, his manuscript will have grown a beard.

"That man at the next table is an inventor; at least he says he is. I am told that he has haunted the reference room regularly every day for twenty years. He never fails to get here early every morning, and is one of the last to leave at night. We never see him go out at noon or at supper time. If he eats we never caught him at it.
