MOODY TO BE WITH US. Secretary of the Navy Will Be the Chief Speaker at Monday Night's Republican Rally.

On Monday night next, at the Lyceum, Scrantonians will have an opportunity of hearing one of the greatest political orators now on the hustings, Hon. William H. Moody, secretary of the navy. Music will be furnished by the Sons of Cambria Glee club and Lawrence's band.

On Friday, Oct. 24, at the Lyceum, will appear Judge Pennypacker, the gubernatorial candidate, and his campaigning party which includes Attorney General John P. Elkin. Music will be furnished by the Sons of Cambria Glee club and the United German singing societies.

Friday, Oct. 23, Congressman John Dalzell, the probable successor of Speaker Henderson, will be the chief speaker at the closing rally of the campaign. It will also be held at the Lyceum.

A series of meetings in the suburbs and the towns up and down the valley are being arranged. It is proposed to make them rousing affairs, and with that end in view the best speakers obtainable will be present.

Ex-Senator S. J. M. McCarroll, of Harrisburg, United States attorney for the Middle district of Pennsylvania, and John H. Williams, a brilliant Wilkes-Barre lawyer, are among those already secured. SIMRELL GIRL OUT OF DANGER. Suffered Little from the Effects of Attempted Suicide by Taking Carbolic Acid.

The parents of 15-year-old Nellie Simrell, of 1618 Dickson avenue, the girl who attempted suicide Thursday night by taking a dose of carbolic acid, deny that the girl had any proclivities for her rash act. She had been a frequent visitor to the Twelfth regiment camp prior to Thursday and her mother chastised her for going there. The girl became plighted because her mother insisted on her remaining at home, and left early in the afternoon, while the mother was out.

The girl went to a nearby drug store and purchased a quantity of carbolic acid, which she took with her to the camp. When Mr. Simrell arrived home at supper time, and found his daughter was absent, he suspected she had gone to the camp. He went there and obtained permission from the colonel to search through the tents for her. An orderly accompanied him, but their search was unsuccessful. The girl was there somewhere, however, as later developments proved.

Her injuries are not as serious as at first supposed, and she was dismissed from the hospital early yesterday morning and returned to her home.

From the stories told at the Twelfth regiment camp, the girl selected that place for the scene of her intended suicide solely to add glamour to the affair.

She was one of numerous visitors who strolled through the camp Thursday evening, and as is a common practice, dropped into one of the tents to chat with the soldiers. There were three privates in the tent she entered, and, according to the officers of the regiment, they are one and all good boys.

The three soldiers' story of the affair is that the girl talked about having had a quarrel with her mother and of her intention to commit suicide. She displayed a phial which she said contained poison, and one of the soldiers took it away from her.

After awhile she laughingly told that the phial contained nothing but a harmless ointment and that the story about her intention to commit suicide was all a joke. Her manner wholly disarmed the soldiers, and the phial was returned to her. A few moments later she was irregularly invited and swallowed its contents, before she could be prevented.

OBJECTIONS ARE FILED. NOMINATION PAPERS SAID TO BE INVALID. Attacks Made Yesterday on the Independent Democrat, Socialistic Labor and Citizens' Party by William H. Reese, of This City, and William Simms, of Dalton—Defects That Are Said to Exist in the Papers Filed in the County Commissioners' Office.

Objections were yesterday filed with Prothonotary Copeland to the certificate of nomination of the Independent Democratic party, the nomination papers of the Socialistic-Labor party candidates and the nomination papers of William Franz, the Citizens' candidate for county commissioner.

William H. Reese, of the Fifth ward of this city, filed the objections to the certificate of nomination of John J. Durkin and Victor Burschell, candidates of the Independent Democratic party for county commissioners, and P. J. Moore, candidate of the same party for mine inspector.

The objections set forth that there is no such party as the Independent Democrats, no call for a convention of such a party was issued, no primary election was held, no delegates elected and no legal convention held.

It is therefore held that the certificate of nomination is without authority and the objector asks that the names be omitted from the official ballot.

OBJECTIONS BY SIMMS. William Simms, of Dalton, filed the exceptions to the nomination papers of William W. Watkin and Henry Miller, candidates of the Socialistic-Labor party as candidates for county commissioners. The chief objection is that the papers do not contain the requisite number of names. It has 22 signatures and ought to have at least 248, it is alleged. At least thirty of the names, it is charged, are in the same handwriting and the addresses in most instances were put on with a rubber stamp.

Because of these facts, it is held that the papers are irregular, invalid and void. Mr. Simms also filed exceptions to the nomination papers of William Franz, the candidate of the Citizens party. Mr. Franz's nomination papers were circulated as individual sheets and the heads were then clipped off eight of them and the same sheets pasted together and sworn to.

HELD TO INVALIDATE THEM. That is held to invalidate the papers, as each sheet ought to have its appropriate heading and be sworn to.

It is also charged that among the signatures are the names of many well-known Republicans and Democrats, who never belonged to the Citizens party. C. P. Jadin, who signed the Franz papers, also signed the Union party papers, and John Thiel signed the Franz and Socialistic-Labor papers.

IT'S UP TO COUNCILS. The Administration Has Done Everything Possible to Secure the Erection of Bridges.

"It's up to the councils now. The administration has done everything it can to meet the difficulty." That's the way Director of Public Works Roche summed up the bridge question yesterday afternoon, and that's the only way it can be summed up. The demand of the people of the Fourth ward for bridges over the Roaring Brook, to replace those washed away by the flood last spring, and of the people of Green Ridge for a structure to replace the Rice street bridge, are recognized as just demands, but the responsibility for their not being recognized rest with councils and not with the city officials.

Both Recorder Connell and Director of Public Works Roche urged last spring that an item of $300,000 be included in the general bond ordinance then pending, for the construction of bridges, but councils refused to consider the proposition and passed the measure without any such provision.

Then when the tax levy ordinance was passed and the statisticians began to figure up, it was found that there would be a surplus of between $35,000 and $50,000. The city officials say this is a trial from which the cost of constructing the bridges could be taken, but the Democrats in select council worked up a political grandstand play and passed a resolution providing for such reduction of the tax levy that there would be no surplus. This was later approved by common council.

The consequence is that there is now no money to build the bridges, and the question as to whether they shall be constructed or not rests with councils. The only possible way of providing for their erection now would appear to be the passage of the $325,000 bond ordinance, which contains a provision for them in a separate bond ordinance.

It is up to the councils.

HALE AND HEARTY. A VERMONT FARMER WHO FEELS YOUNG AT EIGHTY. Rheumatism Once Troubled Him, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People Cured It.

A fine specimen of the hardy Vermont farmer is Joseph Chubb of Readsboro, active and strong in body and mind at the beginning of his eightieth year. A few years ago an attack of rheumatism caused the old gentleman much suffering, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured that and he is now enjoying unusual health for his age of fourscore years. When recently interviewed, he said:

"I was not confined to my bed, but I suffered a great deal of pain. My back and shoulders were lame and my arms were so sore that I could not get my coat on without assistance. Heavy farm work and exposure in all kinds of weather probably brought on the rheumatism and it was so stubborn that I couldn't seem to get rid of it."

"One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People mentioned in a newspaper and I got some. I felt better after taking one box and took four or five boxes altogether. They cured me and the cure was permanent. I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to everyone who is not well, and I know of other cases where they have given good results."

Rheumatism is a disease of the blood and it must be treated through the blood. External applications can give no benefit that will last. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are unlike other medicines because they act directly on the blood and nerves. This makes them invaluable in all diseases of locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent on receipt of price, fifty cents a box or six boxes for two dollars and fifty cents, by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine company, Schenectady, N. Y.

IS A SUPPOSED PROFESSIONAL. Morgan Arrested on Another Charge by Superintendent Day.

Superintendent of Poles Day yesterday swore out an additional warrant for the arrest of F. Morgan, whose attempted forgeries and other escapades were told of in The Tribune. The new charge against Morgan is that of obtaining money and goods by false pretenses.

On Wednesday, it appears, Morgan engaged a messenger boy and sent him to Piche's drug store with a note bearing the signature of Dr. J. F. Saltry, asking the druggist to send at once to his office, by the messenger boy, a gallon of the best whiskey and change for a ten-dollar bill. Morgan waited for the boy at the Conway house, a block and a half away, and took the whiskey and money which the unsuspecting druggist entrusted to the messenger.

At the police station, yesterday, the messenger boy identified Morgan as the man who gave him the note. Morgan is believed to be a professional crook from Chicago. Superintendent Day had him measured and photographed, and will find out, if possible, who he is by communicating with the Chicago police authorities.
