Another Boy Injured by Getting in Front of Wagon Aldermanic—Doings—Other News Notes and Personals.

Harley, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eaton, of 1317 Jackson street, was the victim of a very unfortunate accident yesterday afternoon, while playing with a number of his young friends in front of the parental home on Jackson street, near the corner of Sumner avenue.

The young fellow had a false face on and was walking up the middle of the road behind a wagon loaded with lumber. When near the corner he made a dash from behind the wagon and fell in front of a spirited horse, attached to a light buggy. The horse was frightened and jumped, striking the little fellow on the head and making a quite deep wound.

Willing hands picked the injured boy up and carried him to his home, where Dr. Jenkins was summoned and took several stitches in the cut on the forehead. Besides a few more or less severe bruises, no serious injury was sustained. The gentleman driving the horse stopped and did all he could for the little fellow. He expressed great sorrow at the accident, although it was through no fault of his.

Saville Given a Hearing.

Patrolmen Peters and McColligan yesterday morning arrested Joe Saville, against whom a warrant was sworn out on Thursday evening, before Alderman Davies, on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and discharging firearms.

It will be remembered that young Saville and two companions were passing along Chestnut street on Thursday evening, when he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the sidewalk. The bullet glanced and passed through a window in the home of R. E. Post and became imbedded in the plaster. The police were notified and arrested the boys who were with Saville. They told his name, hence the arrest. At the hearing last evening in the police station, the alderman discharged the defendant with a reprimand.

Assault and Robbery.

Barney Barkosky, of 1236 Lloyd street, appeared before Alderman Kellow last evening and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Barozzi and Charles Bellesus, Constable Donnan placed them under arrest.

They were taken before the alderman for a hearing, at which the prosecutor claimed that on Oct. 16 the defendants set upon him while on his way home and gave him a severe thrashing. He also alleges that they tried to get their hands in his pocket and rob him. They were placed under bail for a further hearing on Monday.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

Antonio Phillips, of 1209 Emmet street, appeared before Alderman Kellow, yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Ignatz Caporuskey, of 210 Fifth street, for attempting to commit a criminal assault on Phillips wife. Constable Jacobs made the arrest.

At the hearing held last evening, the prosecutor claimed that while he was locked up in the county jail, Caporuskey was in the habit of calling on his wife. The prosecutor insisted on the truth of his charge, the defendant denied it and after a great deal of wrangle the alderman placed the accused under $200 bail. It was furnished by William Roth, the Emmet street saloon keeper.

Mrs. Jones Entertains.

At the home on Jackson street, Mrs. Randolph Jones, last evening entertained about sixty members of the Ladies' Relief corps, No. 50, of the G. A. R. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Powell, the district secretary of the Relief corps.

During the evening the guests enjoyed a number of very fine solos rendered in a faultless manner by Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage, and Mrs. Sarah Powell, of Wilkes-Barre, Miss Gertrude Loomis also favored with several selections. At a seasonable hour the ladies sat down to a bountiful collation. Mrs. Jones was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Loomis, and Miss Etta L. Price.

A Western Opinion.

The following clipping taken from the Oil City Herald of October 13, refers to Rev. J. S. Wright, D. D., the newly elected pastor of the First Baptist church:

"At the morning service of the First Baptist church, the congregation were painfully surprised to have its pastor, Rev. J. S. Wright, D. D., tender his resignation as pastor of the church, in which he has labored for the past seven years in a most satisfactory manner. Dr. Wright has been called to the First Baptist church of Scranton, Pa., which has the second finest church edifice in that flourishing city of 110,000 population. A congregational meeting will be held to take action on his resignation, and if accepted he will commence his pastoral duties in the new charge about December 1. Since his coming to Oil City he has done a great deal for Christian work and for the betterment of social conditions in the city. By his affable manner he has won a host of true friends, who will view his departure with profound sorrow."

Lonhonschocke in Trouble.

After several constables had been looking for William Lonhonschocke, of the South Side, for almost two months, one of them succeeded in arresting him last evening. He was taken before Alderman Davies and given a hearing.

Lonhonschocke is accused by Mrs. Ellen Bartel of attempting to commit a criminal assault, and also assault and battery. William Davis, of Kelly's patch, also claims that the defendant assaulted him. Lonhonschocke gave bail for a hearing next Tuesday.

Poem of Welcome.

Lines read at the reception given to Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church, South Main avenue, on his return from an extended trip to Wales:

WELCOME,
Dear pastor, it is true that I
May not surpass thee in
To represent societies
Or Sabbath school as seen;
But, as a member of the church,
I represent the sisters all,
And bring their love to thee,
Though instantaneity we seem,
We have a heart of love
And hands that work quite willingly
God's kingdom to improve.
Thy words of love went out to thee,
When dark clouds hover round;
When joy attends thee, then our hearts
In joy and gladness sound.

We have among us Dorcas,
And Abigail, wise and true;
Esther we have, although uncrowned;
Martha and Miry, too.
If Mary could our Master serve,
Why, surely, cannot we,
In this great world of vice and sin,
Of service be to thee.

Now, Deborah was the greatest judge
That Israel ever knew
And so among these sisters, dear,
There are Deborahs to be seen.
Our judgment is solicited
Quite often, is it not?
Especially when in need of cake—
Also the coffee pot.

Priscilla was a teacher, too,
Who taught Apollo how
To know God's word more perfectly—
This truth that must follow
We have Priscillas with us, too,
Who know the Word of God,
And we would all show the way
Our blessed Savior trod.

And we have mothers, who cannot
The service stand,
But they are home beside the crib,
Their every aid they lend
To build the kingdom of our God,
They to the children sing
The songs of praise to Him
Their little ones they bring.

They teach the child to kiss the name
Of Him we love
The story of the great cross
They often to them tell.
These are the ones I represent,
And ones again I would adore,
Welcome, we're glad to have you home,
And long may you stay.

—Mrs. George W. Powell (Morford).

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

All Correspondence Is Sacredly Confidential

This is a very important consideration in a woman's correspondence with Mrs. Pinkham. It is a great satisfaction to feel that one woman can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, — a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and with a knowledge of woman's ills greater than that possessed by any other person.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she publishes thousands of testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer.

The reason Mrs. Pinkham is so amply qualified to give advice in cases of female ills is for the reason that over one hundred thousand cases come before her each year, — some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day, and day after day. Twenty years of constant success, — think of the knowledge thus gained. Surely, women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

As an illustration of the good coming from such advice we herewith publish two letters and portrait of Miss Hattie DeGroat, the recipient of which should give every sick woman confidence in Mrs. Pinkham's ability to help them. This is only one of thousands of the same kind of letters which Mrs. Pinkham has on file.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — I have read with interest your advice to others so much that I thought I would write to you, for I have been suffering for a long time. I have such bearing-down pains, and such shooting pains through me. I have headache, backache, and feel tired. Menstruation is very painful, sometimes have to stop work and lie down. My stomach bloats terribly, and I am troubled with whites. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,
July 24th, 1900.
MISS HATTIE DEGROAT, Successima, N. J."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — I can hardly find words to thank you for your advice and wonderful Vegetable Compound. I was in a terrible state, every part of my body ached, was very nervous, had hysterical spells. I think I would have become insane had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Your letter told me just what to do, and your medicine cured me, and I cannot express my thanks.
March 8th, 1901.
MISS HATTIE DEGROAT, Successima, N. J."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles or such hosts of grateful friends. Do not be persuaded that any other medicine is just as good. Any dealer who suggests something else has no interest in your case. He is seeking a larger profit. Follow the record of this medicine, and remember that the thousands of cures of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
