REV. DR. Y. C. SMITH SUCCUMBS AT RIPE AGE

Death of an Octogenarian, Who Was a Conspicuous Figure in the Wyoming Methodist Conference-Once

Principal of Wyoming Seminary. Rev. Y. C. Smith, D. D., for years ar important figure in the Wyoming con ference and at one time principal at Wyoming seminary, passed away in the evening of his years, in this city, yesterday forenoon at 9.20 o'clock, at the home of his son-in-law, City Solicitor R. D. Stuart, on Canaan street.

The deceased was an octogenarian having entered into his eighty-third year. Death was due to heart failure. accompanying his advanced years. He was abed for three weeks.

Rev. Dr. Smith goes to his reward after a most active life in the minisfry, where his harvest was fruitful. Forty-two years, just over half his life was spent in the salvation of souls, with a zeal and perseverance springing from an abiding faith, an ardent charity and a strong religious spirit. His end closes a career that was interesting and remarkable. He was in-Structor at Wyoming seminary, Kingston, for a long time; he was principal when he left there, and for a number of years he was either treasurer, secretary and trustee of the Wyoming conference of the Methodist church.

Rev. Dr. Youngs Calkins Smith was a native of York state. He was born in South New Berlin, February 14, 1820. After his early school training, he entered Union college, from which he was graduated in 1818. He became an instructor at Wyoming seminary, and being elected principal held that posttion until 1859, the year in which he enchurch, and the same year in which he was wedded. His marriage took place in Newark, N. J. His bride was Miss Mary E. Wood.

Dr. Smith's achievements won him recognition from Dickinson college, which conferred on him, in 1868, the title of doctor of divinity. His missionary werk was quite extensive. His ministry labors covered a wide field, having filled charges at various times at Wilkes-Barre, Pittston, Carbondalo, and Oneonta and Owego, N. Y. Twenty date and remained pastor here for five Seven years ago he came to Carbondale to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. R. D. Stuart. He remained here since then, mingling with a few intimate friends, among whom his gentle influence was kindly exerted and manifested in various ways.

There is no way to measure the results of a life such as spent by Dr. Smith through all his long years; but this time. even those who did not know him or did not come within his influence, it must be believed that his influence must have wrought immeasurable good lasting kickers from Catcher Jim and that he passed away full of promise of the bright reward of the just.

Three sons and one daughter were born of the union of Dr. Smith and his beloved wife, who was called away seven years ago. These were: Rev. Wesley W. Smith, who, like his father, is in the sanctuary, being located at Middleburg, Vermont: Frank Smith. New York city; Lester S. Smith, Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Clara Stuart, wife of City Solicitor R. D. Stuart, of Carbondale. All of them survive.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon. Services will be at the Stuart residence, on Camaan stret, beginning at 1.30. Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, and Rev. Austin Griffin, of back; West Plitston, will officiate. The deceased will be taken to Forty Fort for burial.

The entertainment was offered in recognition of the helpful services which the young men, the guests ! of the evening, volunteered in the | ber of young folks from Carbondale, church work of the year. #### INDIANS, 22; JERMYN, O.

In the Opening Game of the Season in Carbondale the Home Team Ran Away with the Eleven from the Nearby Borough.

The Indians-"Our Pets" in foot ball made their bow this season, on Saturday. And it was all to the good. We had the Jermyn eleven against us, but it was like getting money from home; it was so easy. Honestly, it wasn't even a good practice game; it was like playing alone. The score was 22-0, but it might have been a few more to the good for a' that.

The first half was twenty minutes; the second fifteen minutes. Jermyn got the kick off. In the first half, Jermyn never saw the Indians. It was like mowing down a hay field. Hadgins, the cyclonic half back and coach of the Indians, made the first touchdown without any resistance.

In the second half, the Jermyn kick ers were a little more onto their jobs. But this is not saying so much. The first time they got the ball they gained tried the ministry of the Methodist five yards. In the next two downs they were put back. Hadgins made two of the touchdowns and Tony Me-Donald-smiling Tony-made the other The honors of the individual work among the Indians were divided among McAndrew-Our Owney-Hadgins and McDonald.

McAndrew made some Osgood rushes Without mask or any protection, beyoud his courage and his stout muscles. Owney swept into the Jermyn crowd and scattered them like leaves in an autumn wind. Once he was tac years ago Dr. Smith was in Carbon- kled and thrown, but was up again in an instant and off with the ball. It took three men to down him the next

> Hadgins' scientific knowledge of the game showed itself throughout the play and gave evidence anew of why he is conceded throughout the valley particularly by the Scranton followers of foot ball, to be without a peer among the players in the game hereabouts at

DEAR OLD HONESDALE.

Some Compliments to Carbondale Folks and The Tribune Man.

The man behind the pen that pens he "njeces" in the Honesdale column of the Truth sprinkled bouquets thusly in his daily duty of Saturday.

"It will certainly be a 'hard blow' for The Tribunc correspondent of Carbondale when he learns that the strike is ended, for then his 'dreams' of 'Our Pets' and 'Our Owney' will cease and it will be a case of 'Back to the Mines.' Well, possibly his journalistic talents will not be wasted and soon we may expect to hear of another case of 'dope' incidents which occurred in 'Shaft No. of the 'Blufftown' mine.

"Talents" is great; and we compliment the young man for his discernment, which is uncommonly keen for a Honesdale man.

We likewise thank the young manfor the Carbondale people-for the following honest acknowledgment of how much Honesdate's population depends existence and comfort. This paragraph appeared next to the other in Saturay's Truth. It reads just so:

"The news that the great anthracite strike had ended was received with great joy by the residents of Honesdale and vicinity. Although the Maple city has not suffered any in the line of manufacturing or business interests, yet the employes about the railroads will resume their duties and our citizens will not have to 'waylay' the drayman to secure five hundred weight of the black diamonds."

was of special interest, inasmuch as the seminary team is a possible competitor of the Indians. It was one of the best games that Mr. Jones ever witnessed in this section. The Blair Hall eleven were mere boys as compared with the Seminary kickers; but they had a scientific knowledge of the game and playing as one man, fairly ran away from their competitors. The score was 23-6. The only score of the Seminary team was made by the ball going behind the line on a fumble. The average weight of the New Jersey eleven was not more than one hundred and fifty pounds, while the Seminary team was considerably higher.

DAVIES' POST'S INSPECTION.

Colonel John McComb Has Issued His Order in Reference Thereto. and the Event Is to Occur Wednesday Evening. Next to Memorial day, the annual inspection of a Grand Army post is an event of importance with the veterans of the Civil war. On that occasion the year's work is passed in review, and the officers of a post are required to give an exhibition of their capabilities and efficiency. It is an event which gives an oppo tunity to a commander to illustrate and exemplify the beautiful ritualistic work of the order; and if he is a man of strong personality, good memory and dramatic skill, he can win a high rating

Post Davies has the distinction of having one of the best commanders in the Keystone state, and the comrades appreciate this fact. In contemplating any Grand Army function, the members of our local veteran organizations Colonel McComb is identified with it. Regarding the coming inspection. Post Davies has in its chief executive officer a man of recognized ability as a student of national events, a writer of great force, a poet already famous, an orator whose incisive language holds attention, and a soldier who saw active service all through the war of 1861-1865.

So when it is said that Commander John McComb will on next Wednesday evening stand as the exemplar of G. A. R, work for Post 187, the language is intended to convey the idea that he will stand for the highest grade of work done in the order, and that his post will add lustre to the brilliant record that it has attained since he assumed its man-

Following is Colonel McComb's order Comrade: Davies' post is to be inspect d Wednesday evening, October 22, 1902. Adjutant O. B. Wright, of post 139, has been designated to officially conduct the will be accompanied by Captain P. DeLacy, inspector-at-large, who ntends to favor our post with a visit. I shall esteem it a great kindness if you will come to the hall as early as 7 o'clock —in proper uniform if possible, and give us the pleasure of your company. ## AMUSEMENTS.

"Faust" This Evening.

"Faust." which never grows old, will be offered to the patrons of the Grand this evening. The piece is under the direction of Shipman Bros., which is a nd of the anthracite belt.

The Indians' line-up was: McLain, staging will be fully up to the standard required to make this production successful. Five sets of scenery are carried and there is a myriad of electrical effects.

The "Mephisto" of the piece will be Maplewood cemetery. Alan Tabor, who is credited with giving a finished bit of acting. This will be the last attraction at the Grand for two weeks.

Saturday Night's Play. "My Friend Hogan," a farce-comedy with sufficient nonsensical absurdities to create lots of laughter, was the attraction at the Grand on Saturday night. There have been funnier shows at the Grand and there have been shows not any funnier. There were good singing and dancing, some new jokes and a few old friends. Altogether the attraction amused and pleased the good-sized audience. Mullen, the leading comedian, and Annie Dunn, his wife, were both here before in "Mc-Doodle's Flats."

STRENUOUS FOOT BALL.

The Brokers Score a Victory Over the Swiftwinds. was an interesting game of foot ball between the Brokers and the Swiftwinds, wherein the former the contest by a score of 10 to 0. The on Carbondale for a good part of its game was a fierce battle for supremacy, and the Brokers, by stress of their heavy line, managed to score twice, although their lighter adversaries constantly menaced the Brokers' goal and claimed two touchdowns which officers of the game did not allow.

The game was interrupted by disputes too frequently to be of great interest to the spectators along the side

In a recent issue of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene, the recognized authority on all matters pertaining to health, James H. Montgomery, M. D., says editorially:

"After a careful investigation of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, a specific for kidney, liver and bladder troubles, rheumatism, dyspepsia and constipation with its attendant ills, we are free to confess that a more meritorious medicine has never come under the examination of the chemical and medical experts of the New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene. In fact, after the most searching tests and rigid inquiry into the record of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it becomes a duty to re-commend its use in unequivocal term to every reader of this journal whose com-plaint comes within the list of ailments which this remedy is advertised to cure. We have obtained such overwhelming proof of the efficacy of this specific-have so satisfactorily demonstrated its curative powers through personal experiments— that a care for the interests of our readers leadsus tocall attention to its great value."
