Joint Services to Be Held on Sunday, Nov. 2, in the Parish House of the German Presbyterian Church-New St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church to Be Dedicated on Sunday, Nov. 16-Surprise Party at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Barnickel.

The anniversary of Luther's Refor-mation will be observed on Sunday, November 2, at the parish house of the German Presbyterian church, on Hickory street. The pastors and members of the German Evangelical churches in this vicinity have been invited to participate, and a committee of clergymen have been selected to make arrangements and prepare a suitable programme for the occasion. Rev. Dr. E. J. Schmidt, of the Church of Peace; Rev. Felix Steinman, of Petersburg, and Rev. Jacob Schoettle, of West Scranton, comprise the committee.

They have secured the services of Lawrence's orchestra for the accompaniment to the Choral union and other talented singers who will take part, while addresses will be made by Rev. Dr. Hausser, of St. Paul's church, on Prospect avenue: Rev. Felix Steinman, of Petersburg, and Rev. Weisskopf, of Priceburg. Other speakers will also address the gathering, which takes place at the parish house, because of repairs being made to the church. The building will accommodate almost as many persons as the church.

New Church Nearly Complete.

The new St. Paul's Methodist Episco pal church, at Pear street and Pittston avenue, is almost finished and will be dedicated to the service of God on Sunday, November 16.

The church is a substantially built frame structure on a bluestone foundation, and has a frontage of 44 feet and a depth of 75 feet, which includes the tower and parsonage, which has been made a part of the structure. After the touchdown Allen kicked the ball well into Keystone's territory, and one of the Factoryville boys fumbled it. Evans dropped on the pigskin. On the line-up Edwards was given the ball, and by good interference he made fifteen yards around right end, then Levi added twenty-five more, and the ball was on Keystone's three yard line. Stone went through for another two yards, and then High school hurled their whole team into Keystone, but Keystone was immovable and the only hope High school had of scoring was gone. Keystone then with irresistable force battered down High school's weak defense and sent Cure through for the fourth and last touchdown. The gam ended with the ball on High school's thirty-five yard line. The line-up:

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham: - I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. Haves, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice-although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine-which she knew would help herher letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: - Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. Haves, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass. Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; al ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and dis placements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painfugnenstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial let ters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for dout

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.
