THE HOLY CITY IS GOD'S ABODE

SERMON BY REV. A. K. BATES. OF LIMA, N. Y.

Former Pastor of Grace Reformed Episcopal Church Tells His Congregation of the Life Beyond, Where There Is Plenty of Room for All Who Trust and Believe in the Word of God-No Strikes or Social Differences to Contend with in the Eternal City.

Rev. A. K. Bates, of Lima, N. Y., rmer pastor of the Grace Reformed piscopal church, occupied that pulpit t both services yesterday, preaching in ne evening on "The Eternal City." His xt was taken from the twenty-first hapter in the Book of Revelations, 'And I. John, saw a holy city." In the ourse of his remarks, he said:

"The tide of population these days is wards the larger cities, where the ajority live, and where Christlanity unds, together with centers of moral nd criminal life, where good people inermingle with the criminal element. But I invite your attention to some eets about that great city which we ill expect to see.

"Nowadays people are disposed to tive attention to certain tastes and do of give proper attention to what we night, so I invite your attention to the great city to which we are all travelng, if we are the children of God. It a great walled city, the purpose of which is for seclusion as well as exclusion, for God protects those inside and shuts out those outside who do not believe and trust in Him.

A Great City.

"Certain people must be shut away from society to keep society decent, and so it is in God's abode, where only the clean and pure in heart can enter. "There is plenty of room for all in this great city, and multitudes of God's people will be there. It is called the city of God, the new Jerusalem. And why should not God make a city for all His people, where He can gather them together. There will be no hespitals ere, no sickness, no pain, no churches, o temples, no saloons, no jails. olice, no cemeteries, no politics, no train or worry, and everybody will talk in the light of Christ Jesus.

"It is a blessed city where we will ot say good-bye, and there will be no urt room where you will blush to be No artificial lights are needed re, because God is the light. THAT CARPENTERS' STRIKE.

Central Labor Union to Make an Effort to End It.

The Central Labor union held lengthy session in Carpenters' hall yesterday afternoon, and transacted & penters' strike, which has been hanging fire for a long time. A special committee is now at work trying to bring about a satisfactory adjustment.

The Central Labor union expressed their willingness to co-operate with the Builders' Exchange and do what they can to bring about an amicable adjustment of the carpenters' grievances. A portion of the fund raised to defray the expenses of the mass meeting intended for yesterday, was turned over for relief purposes to District No. 1, of the United Mine Workers.

The union meeting was put off until after the mine strike excitement has subsided.

Mr. Clark came here at noon vesterday from Elmira, and left for home at 6.50 last evening, at the conclusion of his conference with the local conductors. He had nothing to give out regarding the import of his visit, but in esponse to a question as to whether or not be proposed to serve on the mine strike commission, he said:

"I have not as yet made answer to President Roosevelt's invitation to act on the commission, because I have not yet received the official notification of my selection. I understand it is at my office at home. I will, of course, accept. It is a duty of citizenship that Clarke, president; Louis Conrad. W. M. in a time like this one cannot well refuse to assume."

The Bennett-Moulton Co.

During the engagement of the Bennett yesterday afternoon, and transacted & Moulton company, which begins a considerable routine business. One of week's engagement at the Academy to-the subjects taken up was the car-night with "Darkest Russia," a number of Metropolitan successes will be added to its extensive and popular repertore. The same care and attention to detail has heretofore characterized all productions by the Bennett & Moulton companies, will be prominent features of the presentation of these latest successes.

New scenery, furniture, properties and quipments will be employed, and the ompany for this season has been especially engaged for their adaptability to the various roles assigned to them. The opening play has been selected with a view of showing the full strength of the company to the best advantage, and i will be presented for the first time in this will be presented for the light time in this city at the people's popular prices. The stock of special scenery, etc., is so great that they are enabled to make complete productions of every play they present. Daily matiness will be given commencing Tuesday afternoon.

This Week at Dixie.

The bill for Dixie's theater common ing this afternoon is one of the strongest yet presented and abounds with merriment, Eugene O'Rourke, assisted by a very elever company, presents a laugh-able sketch entitled "Parlor A." Mr O'Rourke is well known and his work al-ways pleases and never falls to meet with hearty appliance wherever he appears, Mary Carrington will furnish the musical treat of the senson so far. The young lady is the possessor af a rich soprano voice and a charm of manner which carry all before her.

George Murphy and company present "The Absent Minded Secretary." This skit is brim full of the merriest kind of comedy and is sure to meet with warm approval. Ascott and Eddy do a wonder fully skilful comedy, acrobatic and dang-ing turn. The little lady is a fine too dancer and the man a clever acrobat. Carleton and Terry, billed as "Two Comedians" will furnish plenty of laughs with their original dialogue and comic Rio brothers, sensational acrobats, de ome marvelous feats, which are at times fairly hair raising. Charles Hartley is a ventriloquist of marked ability. He is a scranton boy and everyone is interested in his work, which has won as high place in the leading vaudeville houses of all the large cities. Do not miss this ciever bill. It will drive away the cares of every-day life and make you merry whether you will or not.

At the Star Theater.

The attraction offered at the Star next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be that popular burlesque and vaudeville organization, Rese Sydell's London Belles, which made a favorable impression when here last season. The ollo, which occu niest burlesques ever staged, has more star specialty artists than any other similar organization en tour. In the burlesques are introduced many girls, dazzling costumes, and scenic electrical effects, making life seem. ingly one whole round of merriment. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Madame Sembrich.

Of all the notable, delightful musical entertainments of the highest class with which Scranton audiences have been favored within the last twelve-month, there has been none to exceed, possibly none to rival, that which awaits them tomorrow evening when the exquisite can-tatrice, Madame Sembrich, will make her appearance at the Armory. It is a pleas-ant thing to remember that the great prima donna has chosen this city as on of the favored places for her brief song recital senson. The interest she has warmly expressed in meeting the people of the metropolis of the coal regions whom she has also heard of as musically appreciative to a degree that many larger cities fall to reach, will undoute edly be reciprocated by our citizens, and shown in crowding the Armory to listen to the singer.

No one in our city will be willing to have her go away disappointed, thinking that more had been said in praise of musical culture here than is warunted Sembrich will surely have an audience and a welcome that will make her re-member Scranton all her life with affeetlon.

Much interest in Arnold Lohmann's first public appearance as violinist sine his return from Berlin is expressed by his many friends who are all on tin-toc of expectancy over the reports of his improve-ment. To accommodate the many from down the valley the special train on the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, leaving Wilkes-Barre at 7 p. m. will stop at Kingston, Wyoming, West Pittston, squehanna avenue, Pittston Junetic and Taylor. This train returns at 11.15 p Night trains on the Delaware, Lack awanna and Western east and west will stop at all stations after the concert.
