SUSPICIOUS PRISONERS.

Detained at Police Headquarters Pending an Investigation.

Two traveling men, giving their names as A. J. Gilman and J. W. McDonald, who claim to be on their way to New York, are being detained at police headquarters pending an investigation into their alleged violation of the interstate law relative to the disposition of railroad transportation.

The prisoners were picked up on Sunday for disorderly conduct and trying to dispose of a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employe's pass, issued at Hoboken to P. A. Kelly, to Buffalo and return. The prisoners claim they purchased the pass from the American Ticket agency at Buffalo, and paid $5 for it.

Superintendent Day received word last evening that the men are wanted in Elmira for stealing four dress suit cases from hotels there. One of the cases was recovered in Binghamton, and another was found in their possession.

HAS BEEN TEN YEARS RECTOR

DR. ROGERS ISRAEL AT ST. LUKE'S A DECADE.

The Anniversary Was Observed Last Night at the Parish House with a Delightful Reception—Rt. Rev. Bishop Talbot and Former Rectors Assisted in Receiving—Twentieth Anniversary of Dr. Israel's Marriage Observed in the Afternoon with a Reception at the Rectory.

The twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, rector of St. Luke's church, and the tenth anniversary of his rectorate were celebrated with a reception and a banquet yesterday afternoon in the rectory and last night in the parish house.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the church was brought to a close with a special communion service, conducted yesterday morning at 7 o'clock by the rector. The attendance was large, despite the earliness of the hour, and a large number received the communion. At 10 o'clock there was an informal meeting of the visiting Episcopalian clergymen, held in the rectory, when felicitations were extended to both the rector and his wife.

The reception held yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. Israel and Mrs. Israel at the rectory, in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their wedding, was one of the most enjoyable events of the year and was very largely attended. The dining room was a bower of beauty, with green and white as the motive of coloring. The beautiful rooms were everywhere made attractive by the masses of ferns and palms.

Dr. and Mrs. Israel were the recipients of many gifts on the occasion of this anniversary. Among them was a magnificent service of sterling silver, from the vestry.

The Receiving Party.

Those who received with Dr. and Mrs. Israel during the afternoon were: Mrs. Dick, of Meadville; Miss Lillian Graham, of Carlisle.

Those at the tables were Mrs. Walter Dickson, Mrs. James S. Oakford, Mrs. Weeden, Mrs. Keck. About the rooms were the following ladies: Mrs. E. Moffat, Mrs. E. N. Wilford, Mrs. W. M. Marple, Mrs. A. H. Sherrerd, Mrs. R. J. Foster, Mrs. C. B. Derman, Mrs. J. H. Bessell, Mrs. T. G. Wolf.

The young girls serving in the dining room were: Miss Dorothy Bessell, Miss Bessell, Miss Mott, Miss Blada Hunter, Miss Knauer, Miss Marian Smith, Miss Trystine Morris, Miss Cynthia Quackenbush, Miss Clara Waring. At the frappe table were: Mrs. E. J. Haughton and Miss Yowens.

The reception conducted last night in the parish house was a most delightful event, and was attended by hundreds of the well wishing friends of both Dr. Israel and of St. Luke's church. The auditorium was prettily decorated with immense palms and in the center were placed a number of tables ornamented with bouquets of chrysanthemums and prettily shaded candles.

The receiving party remained in the spacious parlor in front of a bank of flowers and received the guests as they presented themselves. The party was made up as follows: Rt. Rev. Bishop Ethelbert Talbot and wife, of Bethlehem; Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Rogers Israel, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. B. Pendleton, of Schenectady; N. Y.; Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Haughton, Rev. Robert Roe and Rev. Dr. Henry C. Szwetzel, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Dr. Szwetzel is the rector who immediately preceded Dr. Israel and who was greeted last night by hundreds of his old friends.

Among the visiting clergymen who were in attendance were the following: Rev. E. F. Bateman, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd; Rev. R. A. Sawyer, rector of Trinity church, Carbonade; Archdeacon Ratcliffe, diocesan missionary; Rev. Mr. Simeau, missionary to deaf mutes, and Rev. J. A. O'Reilly, rector of St. Peter's cathedral.

Ladies Who Assisted.

The ladies who assisted in serving the visitors in the auditorium were as follows: Mrs. E. S. Moffit, Mrs. E. N. Wilford, Mrs. Everett A. Varren, Mrs. J. H. Bessell, Mrs. Harry Kingsbury, Mrs. L. S. Oakford, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Mrs. C. B. Derman, Mrs. Samuel Derman, Mrs. Sidney T. Hayes, Mrs. E. E. Stevens, Mrs. E. J. Smith, Mrs. S. H. Steves, Mrs. Thomas Sprague, Mrs. Pennypacker, Mrs. T. Cramer, Von Storch, Mrs. Herbert Harzing, Mrs. John Broadbent, Mrs. Fred Hand, Mrs. Charles Hurlbut and Mrs. Robert Jessup.

The young women who assisted those already mentioned were: Miss Mary Yowens, Miss Victoria Broadbent, Miss Gertrude Sprague, Miss Marian Smith, Miss Luella Williams, Miss Frederica Derman, Miss Mary Bessell and Miss Edna Fancton.

The reception continued until 11 o'clock, and a large number of the most prominent citizens of the city were in attendance.

Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel was born in Baltimore, his father being Thomas Israel, having been a member of the firm of Fielder, Israel & Sons, lawyers. He engaged in business pursuits for a time before entering Dickinson college in 1877. He was graduated from this institution in June, 1881, with the degree of A. B.

During his college course he pursued the study of theology in addition to his regular work and shortly after his graduation was ordained as a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church. He accepted the pastorate of the Tabernacle Methodist church at Norfolk, Va. After three years' ministry he accepted the doctrines of the Protestant Episcopal church, into which he was received on February 22, 1884.

He immediately began to prepare for orders and while thus engaged acted as assistant to the rector of Trinity parish, Cleveland, O. On March 11, 1885, he was admitted to the diaconate and a few weeks afterward was appointed to the charge of Christ church, Meadville, where he was ordained into the ministry by Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead on March 6, 1886.

Dr. Israel remained in charge of Christ church until Nov. 1, 1882, when he assumed charge of St. Luke's church, having accepted the unanimous call of the vestry on June 7. He has been signally honored in other ways. He has received both the degrees of A. M. and D. D. from Dickinson college, and has served as a delegate to the general conventions of 1892 and

FRICITION NOT LIKELY TO BE EXTENSIVE

Will Probably Be Places for the Old and New Employes of the Companies.

"The companies will take back all the men they can find places for," was the declaration made by one of the most prominent of the coal company superintendents yesterday afternoon, when shown the paragraph of Mitchell's speech in which he says: "and all men return to work in the positions and working places occupied by them prior to the inauguration of the strike."

The non-union men who worked during the strike naturally selected the best chambers. If they stay at all they will of course want to retain these preferred places. When the miner who had the place before the strike comes along and seeks his old place there may be a clash.

One company official when asked how such a difficulty would be straightened out replied: "Refer it to the commission, of course."

There are pretty good indications already that difficulties of this kind will not be as numerous as might be imagined. Non-union men from distant places who came here to work as laborers, firemen and the like have begun to leave for their homes, not wishing to continue at work when the strikers return. Miners who worked during the strike and who propose remaining at work when the strike is over, will likely be found asking for the places they had prior to the strike, preferring to make a bit of sacrifice than enjoy a preferred place belonging—as the strikers will view it—to another.

That there will be plenty of places for all for a long time to come as the companies will want to get out all the coal they possibly can, and thousands of workmen who have gone into other fields will not come back.

That the miners will be plentiful at our houses even to that extent, will come back as attested by the influx of strikers since Saturday from all points of the compass. Every train brings its quota and before many weeks it can be safely predicted the foreign miners who went to their native land during the strike will be bound back to the coal fields, bringing additions to the mining population with them.

The superintendents of the leading companies in the Lackawanna and Wyoming regions will confer in Wilkes-Barre, yesterday. It was agreed that come what may the men now at work shall not be displaced.

A battalion of four companies of the Eighth regiment, under command of Colonel Speck, has been stationed at Parsons.

The Governor's troop, accompanied by Lieutenant Colonel Stillwell, Captain Kambeck and Captain Murphy, rode down from Olyphant yesterday, and after viewing the new armory took a trip about the city and around Lake Scranton.

Company E has been relieved from duty at Forest City, and Company A sent to take its place.

TEN NEW MEMBERS ELECTED BY BOARD

Meeting of the Board of Trade Yesterday at Which Several Matters Were Acted Upon.

Ten new members were elected and four applications were received at the regular meeting of the Scranton Board of Trade yesterday. The former were: Fred H. Smith, H. S. German, C. S. Scars, C. S. Jewell, Louis Condit, Matthias Stipp, Burr K. Carling, P. M. Koehler, Thomas Palmer and C. Perry Wentz.

A resolution was adopted urging congress to enact liberal laws on behalf of the district of Alaska. It was a request from the Skagway chamber of commerce. The board of Secretary Scarsman was approved, and the delegates from the board to the convention of the National Board of Trade were instructed to use their influence in widening the scope of the national board and increasing its usefulness.

A communication from the Permanent Tariff committee was referred to a special committee. It referred to election reforms and the merit system. R. J. Foster recommended that the board issue a pamphlet containing half-ton pictures and reading matter descriptive of Scranton to be distributed for the purpose of correcting the impression that the city consists of hovels involved much discussion. Owing to the expense the plan would involve it was voted down.

Contractor E. S. Williams made a lengthy speech in which he expressed the belief that there is too much organization in this city. He reviewed the conditions which have existed during the past two years, and thought the board should save its money for a fighting fund, instead of putting it into pamphlets.

DIDN'T LIKE BISHOP POTTER.

Vestry of St. Luke's Wouldn't Have Him for Rector in 1889.

A fact not generally known in this city has been discussed in connection with the anniversary of St. Luke's church, and that is that when the Rt. Rev. Bishop Henry Codrington Potter, of the diocese of New York, was a young, struggling clergyman just in orders, he was a candidate for the rectorship of St. Luke's, and was turned down.

This was in the early part of 1859 when the vestry was considering the selection of a successor to Rev. John Long. The two candidates were Bishop Potter and Rev. C. Robinson. The vestrymen considered the claims of both and unanimously extended the call to Rev. Mr. Robinson, who later joined the Roman Catholic church.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, who was the member of the committee which received Bishop Potter on the occasion of his last visit here, said at the anniversary meeting last Sunday night that the bishop told of the incident with no evident liking.

Frank Curran, aged 19 years, a resident of Forest City, met with an accident at Wilkes-Barre yesterday, and sustained injuries which resulted in his death.

He was employed as a weighmaster at Forest City when the strike was declared, and went to the soft rock regions in search of employment. His mother sent for him to return home, telling him the strike had been settled.

He had reached Wilkes-Barre and boarded a Delaware and Hudson freight train enroute for home. He struck against a switch and was thrown underneath the wheels. Both of his legs were cut off. He was taken to the Mercy hospital in Wilkes-Barre, where he died last night. The remains were later taken to his home.

MME. SEMBRICH TONIGHT.

To My Patrons and the Public:

In presenting Mme. Sembrich to the organization in this city, I am glad to say this evening, and this opening of the musical season here, as well as that of Mme. Sembrich, who gives her concert in Scranton, I take great pleasure in making it possible for all to hear and see this great artist and, in response to the public generally, a fact, which is well known to musicians and a portion of the public, viz: that Mrs. Sembrich, as a musician and artist, is the peer of any artist in the world. Her fame and talent are deserving of a passage and recognition in this city. Her concert, which is the greatest artist who visited us last season, and it is to be hoped that it will be repeated to her on the occasion of this year's concert. This concert is a request has been received from musical pupils and others of moderate means for a still more popular price, that would make it possible for all to hear and see this great artist and, in response to the same, I have concluded to set aside a limited number of seats at 50 cents each, thus giving all an opportunity to be present. These seats may be reserved up to 7:30 p. m. today.

Printing and other bills will be duly acknowledged and that I may have the same liberal support for this event, which has been extended me in the past, I am, Yours truly, Fred C. Hand.

31. Grant M. Decker, Hallstead, 42
32. Lee Culver, Springville, 41
33. Arthur J. Thayer, South Scranton, 41

Seven of the leaders scored points yesterday in The Tribune's Educational Contest. They were:

A. L. Clark, 20
L. E. Stanton, 20
Miss Beatrice Harpur, 12
William Cooper, 6
Homer Kresge, 6
Charles Robinson, 2

Three of these contestants advanced. Miss Beatrice Harpur, of Thompson, passed Frank B. McCreary and went to eightieth place. A. L. Clark, of Green Grove, passed Jan. Mackie, of Brooklyn, and went to seventy-first place.

LEWIS BATES.

Louis Gere, William Cooper and Don C. Capwell and took twenty-third place, and William Cooper passed Don C. Capwell and held twenty-fourth place.

Yesterday was the first day of the last week of the Educational Contest, and from the way it started it appears very probable that some of those who have been way down in the list are going to climb up toward the top before the final hour comes.

That the last week and especially the last day are filled with activity is evidenced by what has happened in The Tribune's two previous Educational Contests, when in more than one instance contestants have turned in more points during the closing hours of the last day than in the whole time previous. Taking last year for an example to show how the returns rolled up to a great wave on the closing evening. On Monday, Aug. 26, a total of 100 points were scored by seven contestants; Tuesday, Aug. 27, 61 points, by six; Wednesday, Aug. 28, 45 points, by three; Friday, Aug. 29, 15 points, by five; and on Saturday, the last day, ten contestants brought in 2,400 points divided as follows:

Miss Wethelina Griffin, Providence, 992
Garfield Anderson, Carbonade, 229
William Miles, Hyde Park, 219
Miss Thea Fiedrich, Clark's Summit, 191
Henry Schwenker, South Scranton, 151
Ray Buckingham, Elmhurst, 125
Meyer Lewis, Scranton, 122
Frank Kenamer, Factoryville, 109
Miss Norma Meredith, Hyde Park, 87
Miss Maudie Wallis, Carbonade, 72

Contestants must bear in mind that every slip turned in must have the name and address of every subscriber written thereon. No blank slips will be accepted, even if accompanied with cash, but each and every one must bear the name of a bona-fide subscriber who is not on The Tribune's list at the time excepting in the case of renewals of subscriptions brought in by contestants earlier in the contest.

Lewis Bates, whose portrait appears in this column, was the last one to enter the contest, having enrolled on Sept. 16, only a little more than a month ago; but since that time he has won his way up from the bottom to fourteenth place, with every indication of being much further advanced before the close.

There are five more days of the contest.

NOTHING LIKE Paine's Celery Compound

FOR CLEANSING AND PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

It Removes the Germs of Disease, Invigorates and Rejuvenates.

Thousands of men and women who have neglected the work of physical recuperation in the summer months, are now carrying a burden of disease. In the majority of cases, impure and poisoned blood and a sluggish circulation are the direct causes of suffering and misery. Are you, dear reader, one of the unhappy victims? If so, the life stream must be made pure, the health-wrecking laxity of the blood vessels must be corrected, the nerves and tissues must be nourished. Paine's Celery Compound is the medicine that physicians recommend for the increase of pure blood in the arteries, and for arousing the purifying organs to cast off the impurities that give rise to disease. Mr. James F. Hudson, Spring Hill, Ill., was a terrible sufferer from impure blood; he tells how he banished his troubles:

"From some cause my blood became impure and resulted in boils and pimples. At one time I suffered from 17 boils. No one can imagine what I suffered. I tried sulphur, sarsaparilla and other remedies, but no relief came. Mr. Sebastian, a merchant whom I used to clerk for, handed me one of your circulars and insisted that I should use Paine's Celery Compound. After using two or three bottles the boils were not so numerous nor as large. After using the fifth bottle, I was entirely cured, and have been myself ever since."
