Eight-Year-Old Boy Run Over by a Brewery Wagon and Terribly Crushed, Yesterday—Other News Notes.

The 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Ruhe, of 450 Wright's court, was the victim of a painful, and probably fatal, accident yesterday afternoon, while returning from school with a few companions.

When they reached the corner of West Lackawanna avenue and Seventh street the unfortunate boy stepped out into the street and almost immediately was knocked down and run over by one of E. Robinson's heavy beer wagons. Both wheels passed over the lower part of the chest, crushing in the ribs.

Killed at a Crossing.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 22.—William H. Huff, a prosperous farmer of Mill Grove, Harford county, Md., was killed at a point near Fanning Island, on the Columbia and Port Deposit railroad this morning. He attempted to cross the track in a wagon in front of an approaching passenger train. The engine struck the wagon and Huff was caught in the wagon and carried fifty feet, when he was hurled into a ditch. He died in a few minutes. He was 45 years old, and married. A few years ago he was the Prohibition candidate for judge of Harford county.
