

EYESTRAIN Relieved by Glasses

Headaches

Many persons fail to find relief from headaches, in the use of favorite remedies which cure for others. The cause is not the one supposed. Eye strain produces more headaches than all other irregularities of the human system combined. The only PIG-MAXENT CURE is properly adjusted glasses. I correct any visual defect which may cause headache.

The Eyes of Children

Better be over-cautious about your children's eyes rather than take too much responsibility unto your own hands. Neglect may bring regret to you and serious eye trouble for your child.

One charge covers the entire cost of examination, glasses and frames.

Birthday Social Tonight.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Holy Trinity Lutheran church will hold a birthday social tonight at Gurney hall. All are invited.

Slight Wreck at Foster.
A slight wreck occurred on the Lackawanna railroad at Foster yesterday afternoon in which several freight cars were derailed. Train No. 6, in this city at 3 o'clock, was over half an hour late in consequence.

Union League to Meet.
All members of the Union League Republican club are requested to meet at Republican headquarters on Washington avenue, at 7 o'clock this evening to act as escort to Hon. Samuel Pennypacker on his way to the Lyceum.

Supper at Elm Park Church.
The ladies of Elm Park church served an elaborate supper last night to more than 300 patrons. The committee consisted of Mrs. S. T. Jones, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. J. Powers, Miss Phillip Warren, Mrs. J. L. Coffey, Mrs. C. M. Gifford, Mrs. Walter, Mrs. W. A. McDonald, Mrs. H. M. Prendergast and others.

Why Charter Was Relinquished.
The Imperial Underwear company of this city has not gone out of business as might be inferred from Wednesday's dispatch from Dover, Del. The company has been chartered in this state and therefore relinquished its original charter which was issued in 1892. The Imperial company is in a thriving condition, having recently purchased the old Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's store building on Lackawanna avenue and greatly increased its working force.

DIVORCE MILL STILL GRINDS

FOUR DECREES HANDED DOWN YESTERDAY.

In Each Instance a Woman Was the Applicant, and She Alleged That Her Husband Had Been Cruel to Her—Another Woman Seeks a Divorce Because Her Husband Deserted Her—Cases That Were Heard in Argument Court—Orphans' Court Matters.

Four more divorces were granted by the court yesterday. Those who secured them were Mrs. Annie Brown from Morris Brown, Mrs. Nettie White from Thomas White, Mrs. Adelia D. Ensign from Enos Ensign, Mrs. Jessie Kinkle from Frank P. Kinkle.

The Browns were married at Blinghamton in 1894, lived at Clark's Summit for nine months and then came to this city, where Brown deserted his wife. He lived in Tunkhannock for a time after he left her, and then returned to the regular army and was sent to the Philippines. Since that time nothing has been heard from him. Mrs. Brown has supported herself by dressmaking ever since her husband left her.

Mrs. Nettie White was wedded to Thomas White on September 9, 1893, by Rev. Warren G. Partridge, in this city. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Nettie Phillips and resided in West Scranton, and there she went to live with her husband after their marriage. After a time he began to drink and abused her, and then he deserted her again.

His last desertion was in August, 1900, and has been persisted in ever since. Since that time he has contributed nothing to her support.

In Hornellsville, in 1888, Adelia D. and Gross Ensign were joined for better or worse. They went to live on his farm at Vardon, Wayne county, where, according to the stories of Mrs. Ensign and her witnesses, she suffered about everything it was possible to heap upon a woman in the way of punishment. Her husband drank, beat her with his fists and a rope, refused to contribute to her support or buy her clothes, and compelled her to go without shoes in the winter. She left him in 1896 because of his cruelty, and has since supported herself and their five children.

Mrs. Jessie Kinkle was granted a divorce from Frank P. Kinkle, to whom she was married in 1886, in this city. He used to get drunk and announced himself by putting her out of the house, blocking her eyes and thrashing her with a horsewhip. After the marriage they lived at Coxton and Clark's Summit.

A divorce was granted, Wednesday, in the case of Henry Scheuer against Pauline Scheuer, and yesterday, by consent of the court, the petition of Mrs. Scheuer for a divorce from her husband was withdrawn.

Mrs. Mabel Haney yesterday filed an application for a divorce from Edward Haney, to whom she was married January 13, 1888. She alleges that her husband deserted her on April 12, 1888, and has not lived with her since.

Quarter Sessions Argument List.

The quarter sessions argument list was taken up yesterday and the rules against Charles Moore, D. F. Redding, Thomas J. Hayden, Anthony Landy and Joseph Spitzer, to show cause why their leases should not be revoked, for selling liquor on Sunday, were continued until the next term.

Other cases continued were rules to restrain costs in the cases of the commonwealth against Alexander Levan, John Malloy, two cases; rules to quash indictment in the cases of commonwealth against Isaac Leber, Isa Leber, Louis Peskivitch, M. Basinger.

Cases argued were: Commonwealth against Justin Walovetz, appeal from summary conviction; in re road in Spring Brook township, exceptions to report of viewers; in re road in Spring Brook township, exceptions to report of viewers; Commonwealth against Thomas W. Stark, rule to modify order of court; Commonwealth against James Cook, rule for a new trial; Commonwealth against Thomas W. Stark, rule to show cause why recognizance should not be forfeited.

HAD NO JURISDICTION.

Court yesterday dismissed the objections to the nominations of William W. Watkins and Henry Miller for county commissioners on the Socialist Labor ticket, for the reason that they had no jurisdiction.

The objection was William Simms, of Dalton. It was alleged, when the case was called Wednesday, that notice of the objections had not been served on Watkins. A man named Corey was said to have served notice on him, and the case was continued until yesterday to give time to produce Corey. He could not be found and the objections were dismissed.

POOR BOARD CASE ARGUED.

Before the full bench yesterday there was an argument in the proceedings brought by James Evans to secure the seat on the poor board now held by Dr. W. A. Paine. Dr. Paine holds the office by appointment and Mr. Evans by virtue of an election held last spring.

Attorney L. H. Burns and C. E. Oliver argued the case for Mr. Evans, and Attorneys Everett Warren, Joseph O'Brien and John F. Stragg, for the defense.

OPRANS' COURT BUSINESS.

Judge A. A. Vosburg held a session of Orphans' court yesterday, at which time the appeal from the decision of the register of wills, admitting to probate the alleged will of James Monroe, deceased, was heard. The appellant, William F. Monroe, one of the heirs, contends that the will is valid, for the reason that the following words were added after the will had been signed by the testator and witnesses, the added words being: "I, James Monroe, hereby appoint Mary Monroe and William Monroe my executors to this, my will and testament."

The appellant claims that this is a violation of the Act of Assembly, which requires wills to be signed at the end thereof. The appellee offered evidence to show that the clause appointing executors was not written at the same time as the balance of the will, but a few hours afterwards, and they therefore claim that it is simply a codicil, which is void, but that the will itself is valid and was lawfully admitted to probate. Attorney John H. Bonner appeared for the appellant, and Attorney John P. Quinn appeared for the respondent. Judge Vosburg reserved his decision.

JUDGE CLANCY

Of Hornellsville, N.Y., Hands Down an Important Decision

Judge James H. Clancy of Hornellsville, N.Y., and one of the most prominent members of the bar in that historic town, decided recently that as against Blood and Liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Kennedy was worthy of the highest praise.

"I have used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and strongly recommend it for its good effect in my case for liver trouble and blood disorder. It built me right up and I improved greatly in health."

Geo. II. Tift of 878 River street, Troy, N.Y., suffered from liver trouble and his blood was all out of order and after using "Favorite Remedy," has this to say:

"For any one suffering from that disease will find it relieved, caused by blood or liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best medicine you can buy. I have used it and I know."

The one sure cure for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

It matters not how sick you are, how long you have suffered, or how many physicians have failed to help you. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you if a cure is possible.

It is for sale by all druggists in the Now 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N.Y.

caused, on motion of John F. Stragg, esq., the record was amended by adding the names of Dora Smith, an heir, and Edward Merrifield, administrator of the estate of Ann E. Merrill, the widow of A. J. Merrill, deceased. This is the contested will case in which Ann E. Merrill, the respondent, committed suicide, and this substitution is made so that the contested will proceedings may be proceeded with.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Peter Gillies, of Hornellsville, entered bail yesterday in the sum of $500. John Zuck became his bondman.

In the case of Mary Rowland against Maria Costello it was yesterday agreed that the rule to show cause why the execs issued should not be nonsuited should be withdrawn.

The report of the viewers in the case of Bridget Goldin against the Scranton and Northern Railroad company was yesterday confirmed finally. The viewers' award was $450 in favor of the plaintiff.

L. Freedman yesterday obtained a writ in replevin to recover from H. Goldskeggs and his mechanics which the latter seized on September 27 at the property of Morris Freedman. L. Freedman says the goods belong to her.

Knapp, Mrs. R. L. Stelle, Mrs. C. B. Penman, Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Richmond, Mrs. C. B. Scott, Mrs. L. W. Morris.

THOSE WHO ASSISTED.

The manager had their annual dinner. The only man present was Dr. Dr. Logan, in whose mind the enterprise of starting the Home chiefly originated. He made a happy little speech after dinner, in which he told of the beginnings of this noble charity.

The guests of honor were: Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan, Mrs. John Jernyn, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Miss Jennie Reynolds, Mrs. Goucher, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. Mason. The others at the table were: Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, Mrs. C. P. Matthews, Mrs. E. H. Ripple, Mrs. N. Y. Leet, Mrs. John Genter, Mrs. W. W. Watson, Mrs. R. A. Moffat, Mrs. P. W. Mason, Mrs. E. F. Chamberlin, Mrs. C. L. Frey, Mrs. J. Attean, Robertson, Mrs. H. A. Knapp, Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Richmond, Mrs. C. B. Scott, Mrs. L. W. Morris.

THOSE WHO ASSISTED.

The Home for the Friendless had a gala day yesterday. Every year the management feels solicitous lest the Home will be forgotten. Every year it is not forgotten, but remembered beautifully. Yesterday was no exception. All day gifts poured in; all day the little children looked out of the windows and clapped their hands to see the harvest of fruit that was carried into the cellar. All day the old ladies rejoiced over the barrels of flour and provisions sent by kind friends. One old lady took little note of these, but all her joy was centered in the bouquet of chrysanthemums and pinks which was her special gift.

The managers had their annual dinner. The only man present was Rev. Dr. Logan, in whose mind the enterprise of starting the Home chiefly originated. He made a happy little speech after dinner, in which he told of the beginnings of this noble charity.

The guests of honor were: Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan, Mrs. John Jernyn, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Miss Jennie Reynolds, Mrs. Goucher, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. Mason. The others at the table were: Mrs. W. D. THOSE WHO ASSISTED.

The Home was beautifully decorated for the evening entertainment with autumnal foliage, palms, hydrangea and ferns. It was through McClinton's assistance that the rooms presented such an attractive appearance. The big dining-room was crowded to the doors with friends who had come to this annual festive occasion. The entertainment was arranged by Mrs. E. F. Chamberlain.

The front row of seats was occupied by the old ladies of the institution, Mrs. George, 88 years old, at the end of the line; the latest old lady, who had been turned out of doors by an ungrateful maid, midway down the aisle.

When Mrs. H. H. Brady came to the platform and sang like a bird, the old ladies fixed their dim old eyes on her and their wrinkled faces lighted up at the inspiration of the fair young woman in the blue gown. She gave a number of charming songs, accompanied by Miss McLeod at the piano, and was received several times.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAMME.

Miss Jessie Camp Ross, of Troy, N.Y., gave a delightful programme of recitations. She is one of the best interpreters of humorous dialect on the platform. Her monologues are quite original and clever, and she has much ability in the matter of impersonation. She was repeatedly encored.

The entertainment closed at 9:30 and many of the guests lingered to look over the building. Mrs. A. K. Walker, the matron, was complimented for the beautiful order in which every detail was found. The management is indebted to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad for two engine headlights, which assisted in lighting up the landscape, and were conveyed hither by the Scranton Railway company.
