

WEST SCRANTON

Republican Club Held a Meeting and Elected New Members—Will Parade Before Wednesday Night's Meeting.

The West Side Republican club held a regular meeting in their rooms last evening, at which eight new members were elected. They were Joseph Oliver, Edward Hotes, David T. Williams, H. L. Morgan, Emory Joseph, Harry P. Davies, William H. Fuller and Lee Lewis.

All members of the club were requested to meet at Republican headquarters at 7 o'clock this evening to act as escort to Judge Pennypacker and the other visitors who will speak at the mass meeting in the Lyceum this evening.

Announcement was made of the mass meeting to be held at St. David's hall on Wednesday evening, October 29, when addresses will be delivered by Hon. J. S. Sherman, of Utica, N. Y.; Hon. Edward B. Woodland, of Salamanca, N. Y., and Major Alexander McDonald, of Sharon, Pa.

A special committee was appointed, composed of Charles E. Daniels, W. E. Thayer, Palmer L. Williams, David J. Davis and Dr. T. Wilson Phillips, to arrange for a parade prior to the meeting next Wednesday evening. The Cambria Republican club will be invited to join in the parade and participate in the mass meeting.

Enjoyable Entertainment. The auditorium of the Embury Methodist Episcopal church was crowded to the doors last evening to listen to a most enjoyable entertainment, under the direction of the Junior Epworth League. The program was neatly banked with a choice collection of cut flowers.

The program was opened with a piano duet by Gwynn and Catherine James, which was followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Latham, after which Miss Maud Lewis favored with a recitation. After a piano solo by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage and Mrs. Powell sang a very pretty duet.

Miss Via Jones, contralto, favored with a vocal solo, sung with power and beauty. Mr. Stephens then played a violin solo, after which P. H. Warren sang a solo.

This concluding the first part of the program, the second part opened with a vocal solo by Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage, called "A Song of Thanksgiving," whose clear, sweet voice completely filled the spacious auditorium.

Miss Graman favored with a piano solo, after which Mr. Stephens again rendered a violin solo. Miss Maud Lewis recited "Dead Man's Light." The next selection was a duet by Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage and Miss Via Jones.

WEST SIDE. Davis 198 182-186; Howlands 156 150-154; Jones 112 119 152-148; Beynon 129 159 176-178; McCracken 151 172 181-210.

CAPTAINS. Hopkins 154 175 141-173; Wharton 138 155 143-156; Anderson 143 166 154-153; Goll 104 176-174; Melster 131 119 114-155.

High Score—Beynon, 186. High Average—McCraek, 170.

Farmer in Trouble. W. S. Farham, of Mill City, appeared before Alderman Dixie yesterday afternoon and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Miss Margaret Walters, of South Lincoln avenue, and Mrs. Ray Millard, of 1214 Division street, on the charge of stealing $25 from him early in the afternoon.

The story told by Farham was a rather peculiar one. He said he went to the house for the purpose of selling and was invited in, and later bought her for them to drink. He claims that he was drugged, and while in that condition they robbed him of $30. After awakening he missed the money, and accused them of taking it. They then gave him back $5, so he says.

The hearing was held in Alderman Davis' office, yesterday afternoon, and after hearing the evidence he placed the women under $200 bail each.

Clam Chowder Supper. A most enjoyable clam chowder supper was served by the ladies of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church in the church parlors last evening. From 6 until 8 o'clock the tables were filled, and a very neat sum was netted to the Ladies' Aid.

The tables were in charge of the following ladies: No. 1, Mrs. Decker, Mrs. Quick and Mrs. Decker; No. 2, Misses Frank and Mrs. Snow and Fritz; No. 3, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Truette, Miss Helen Corbin and Miss Gussie Fritz; No. 4, Mrs. Barzler, Mrs. Sloc and Miss Emma Barzler.

Simpson Church Notes. The pastor will organize a new Bible class for young ladies and gentlemen in the Sunday school on Sunday. The class is particularly for those who have not been in the habit of attending Sunday school.

The services on Sunday morning will be a decided novelty. The pastor, Rev. H. C. McDermott, is very desirous that those members of the church or congregation who did not hand in their address last year should do so next Sunday, as he is preparing a new church list.

When the improvements now under way are completed, old Simpson church will be one of the most pleasant church homes on the West Side.

Brewer-Carpenter. The friends of Miss Bertha Brewer, daughter of Mrs. Clinton Bartholomew, of 112 North Lincoln avenue, and Earl Carpenter, of 1214 Division street, were very much surprised to learn of their marriage, which took place in Binghamton some time ago, they being united by Rev. Phillips, a Baptist clergyman of the Parlor city.

The young people were given no intimation of their intended wedding, after their marriage the happy event was kept a profound secret. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are both very young, and the event was the cause of much surprise to their parents and friends, who, however, extend hearty congratulations.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The extensive repairs to Engine company No. 3 quarters are about completed. The interior has been completely renovated, the new boiler having been changed and two stoves installed in the front of the building, instead of at the rear.

An affidavit will be held on Christmas Day, under the auspices of the Sons of Cambodia club. Great pains are being taken to make this a great success.

W. L. Little, of Price street, is improving his property with a stone wall. James Wilson, of Lafayette street, is recovering from an illness.

Mrs. David J. Jones, of South Everett avenue, is home from Cleveland. Mrs. W. Morgan and daughter, Florence, and Mrs. J. Oliver, spent Thursday at Olyphant.

Miss Franz, of North Summer avenue, is home from New Jersey. The International Association of Open Window Club of St. Brecken court, Young Men's Institute, for their first annual social, which will be held in the Young Men's Institute building, on Wednesday evening, October 23.

A match game of tennis will be rolled off at the Electric Club grounds this evening between the E. C. W. W. and the Scranton Bicycle Club. All club members are requested to be at the club house this evening, when teams will be selected to enter the bicycle club league.

The Sons of Cambodia Republic club are requested to meet at Commodore Hall this evening at 7 o'clock, to proceed to the Lyceum in a body. Each member will be provided with a seat, and a good seat, and it is desired to start as early as possible.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES. Republican Association Held an Enthusiastic Meeting in Athletic Hall—Other Notes and Personals.

ONLY SEVEN DAYS MORE

In Which to Take Advantage of the Most Liberal Offer Ever Made. Doctor Churchman Byers Compelled to Withdraw His Famous $10 Offer—His Offices Crowded to Their Utmost Capacity—He Gives Notice That All Persons Applying for Treatment Before November 1st Will Be Treated for $10 Until Cured—All Cases Accepted This Month Under a Positive Guarantee to Cure or Money Refunded—This Offer Positively Expires October 31st at 8 P. M.—It Will Not Be Extended Beyond That Date.

HE WAS PARALYZED. Mr. John Jenkins, Dunmore, Pa., says: "Seven years ago I fell down an elevator shaft and injured my spine, and as a result my legs became completely paralyzed. No one can appreciate the terrible condition I was in except those who have gone through the same ordeal."

Doctor Byers will agree to treat all persons applying at his office before November 1st for the nominal sum of $10 until cured, medicine included. This does not mean $10 a month, but $10 for a complete and radical cure.

He furthermore agrees that if the patient is not entirely cured in a specified length of time, to return the money paid without quibbling or evasion. It has always been the principle of his life never to keep a fee unless the patient is cured.

He wishes, however, to emphasize the fact that this offer positively expires on the 31st day of this month and will not be extended under any circumstances. If you are cured at a nominal price, under a positive guarantee to refund the money if the cure is not accomplished, it is important for you to call at once. It is advisable to call as early as possible and avoid the rush that will naturally occur during the closing days of this offer.

BI-CHEMIC TREATMENT. The different tissues of the body are made up of minute cells, and when these cells become disorganized, disease is the result. By restoring the proper equilibrium to the cells, perfect health can be chronic, can be cured by bringing the cells back to their normal condition.

FREE X-RAY EXAMINATION. Dr. Byers never accepts a case unless he knows to a certainty the cause of the trouble, and this can only be determined by X-ray examination. The X-ray outfit is the most elaborate and complete in this country.

North Scranton News. Arrangements Completed for Saturday Night's Republican Demonstration—Fire at No. 3.

Oil Shanty Destroyed. An oil shanty connected with the Richmond shaft No. 3, of the Ontario and Western company, located on Porter street, caught fire yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and was totally destroyed.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The ladies of the Providence Presbyterian church will serve one of their excellent suppers in the church parlors this evening. The menu will consist of oysters in every style and the accompanying dishes.

GREEN RIDGE. Mrs. B. P. Kilham, of Panpaek, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Green, of Green Ridge street.

At St. John's Hall. The large crowd which filled St. John's hall on Stone avenue, last evening, was pleasantly surprised at the excellent programme provided.

NUBS OF NEWS. The funeral of Hugo Geiz will take place at 10 o'clock today, from the family residence.

OBITUARY. JOHN GRAMM, an old and respected resident of South Scranton, died yesterday at 1229 Pittston avenue, at the age of 85 years.

LUNG TROUBLE. Mr. John Welsh, Carbondale, Pa., says: "My trouble started some time ago. I had a severe cough, which annoyed me greatly. I lost sleep and became greatly excited. My appetite was poor, and food did not seem to nourish me."

HE SUFFERS NO MORE. Mr. Fred Rentscher, 351 Elm St., says: "For a number of years I had been alling with what the doctors called kidney trouble. There seemed to come through the small of my back which would at times extend around in front down the groin."

KIDNEY DISEASE CURED. Mr. Fred Rentscher, 351 Elm St., says: "For a number of years I had been alling with what the doctors called kidney trouble. There seemed to come through the small of my back which would at times extend around in front down the groin."

RHEUMATISM. Mr. Conrad Hellig, 115 Ash St., Scranton, says: "I had been troubled with Rheumatism for over six years. In fact, my condition was so bad that I was unable to move around without assistance."

BRONCHIAL TROUBLE. Mr. William Snowden, Farewell, Wayne Co., Pa., says: "I had been troubled for over three years with a severe cough, which annoyed me greatly. I lost sleep and became greatly excited. My appetite was poor, and food did not seem to nourish me."
