E. J. HEALY RESIGNS.

Leaves Office of School Director of Fell Township Because of Change of Residence to Carbondale--His Brother, Peter Healey, Succeeds Him.

School Director Edward J. Healey, of the Fell township school district, last night tendered his resignation as a member of the board.

Mr. Healey's resignation was due to the fact that he has changed his residence to Carbondale, being a resident now of the second ward of this city.

The resignation was acted upon by the board, and after its acceptance the directors elected Peter Healey, his brother, as his successor.

Mr. Healey held the office of school director of Fell township for several terms and proved his efficiency in caring for the needs of the district. The confidence of his colleagues on the board was shown in his election to the office of treasurer, which he administered with scrupulous care and honesty.

Mr. Healey's choice of becoming a citizen of Carbondale will be welcomed, as his career in business, since assuming the proprietorship of the Anthracite cafe, has most satisfactorily impressed those who have had relations with him.

Drummers Who Didn't Visit Here During Strike Suffer Now.

More than a few drummers who crossed Carbondale on their way to West during the coal strike are regretting now that they were not at least a bit more sociable and called here, if only to say "howdy" to their customers in this city.

On the other hand, the salesmen who were here during the strike and came, irrespective of whether they got an order or were turned away, are reaping a harvest through the error of business judgment of the other lads.

LESST THEY FORGET.

Food that will safely and surely carry a man through exhausting mental work is worth knowing of.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Barrett delightfully entertained the following on Thursday night: Misses Mary Nolan, Nellie Jordan, B. Moran, Nellie Casey, Mary A. Horn, Marie Casey, Mary Kane, Annie McFadden, Alice McHale, Annie Casey, Nellie McHale, Teresa McHale, Lizzie Casey, Maggie Casey, Alice Kennedy, Nellie Lynch, Josephine Casey, Maggie Hatchford, Celia McDonald, Polly Kenyon, Misses John Kane, James Puse, John Moran, Willie McDonald, Thomas Jordan, Owen McDonald, Thomas McFadden, James McDonald, Willie Casey, Willie Donnelly, Martin Davitt, Frank Coyle, Harry Quinn, James Cuff, John Davin, Willie Fisher, Thomas Meehan, James McHale, Martin Casey, Thomas Gavin and James Cannon.

The transfer was formally made yesterday by ex-Secretary Commissioner James Thompson, who owned the stock, fixtures, etc. The restaurant will be opened under its new management within a few days.

Women's Gloves

It was a long time before we could get Gloves properly made for us. Though we might choose the skins ourselves and be sure they were the best, they were often spoiled in the cutting. It has taken more work than most people care to give to get the measurements correct, and the workmanship the best. Our special $1.00 Gloves are the American Girl.

Furs . . .

Nothing a woman wears is more difficult to buy. Furs admit of as much doctoring as the horse that David Harum bought.

Women's Coats and Wraps

Five years ago in the opening advertisement of Coats and Wraps we said proudly that we had "2500 different Coats and Wraps" on display.

Children's Sweaters

It's a sensible fashion women have adopted, to dress their children in sweaters. They are so snug and warm that none of the biting winds can possibly get through. $1.00 to $2.00--all colors.

Silk Waists

More new peau de soie and changeable Silks hurried to join the procession in time for today. Some are parading large fancy buttons--others look proudly down on rows of tucks and herringbone stitching. All are pretty. Prices easy.

Men's House Coats

Some of the best styles are shown now--what's the use of waiting till Christmas, anyway? Double-faced cloths still rule, but there are new color combinations and new knicks in the making. Regular Coats, $5.00; Long Robes, $7.50.

There's No Place More Homelike. Lakewood is the fashionable--Lakewood the glorious, is the one resort to which the resister-snow turns for a period of enjoyment, and such enjoyment includes every known sport.

Wm. & Wm. Latative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. This alternative is on every box of the genuine. It relieves a cold in one day.

Lakewood's drives, than which there are none better, attract a gay throng and traps of every kind are in constant use. The hunt attracts many, likewise cycling and polo, but when one finds such delightful, yet wonderful links as Lakewood possesses, one little wonder that golf is the popular game. Another feature of prominence is its hotels, hostleries, commodious, grand or rather palatial, where one's welfare is the first and foremost consideration. These qualifications, including a most marvelous atmosphere, have made Lakewood famous the world over. This resort is reached only via the New Jersey Central, and its passenger department in New York has issued a booklet on Lakewood which is replete with information, and it's yours for the asking."

The Secret of a Successful Merchant. The success of a merchant depends largely upon his ability to please his customers. In order to do so he recommends only articles which are to his knowledge most reliable. In handling medicine, this is especially true, as people desire the best preparation on the market and appreciate the recommendation of their druggist. Here is what V. J. Leight, of House Springs, Mo., says of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my customers to be second to none on the market. For cough with children there is nothing better." For sale by all druggists.
