Taxes on Real Estate Cannot Be Exonerated by Councils. City Solicitor Watson has prepared an opinion for a select council committee, in which he declares that the city councils have no legal right to exonerate taxes on real estate. This opinion was requested because of a resolution which was introduced in select council at the last meeting, providing for such an exoneration. The resolution was declared out of order by Chairman Olin, and a motion to request an opinion was then passed. The act on which the city solicitor bases his opinion is an old third-class city act, which he believes to be still in force. CONNELL HAD NO HAND IN IT. RANK INJUSTICE OF A CHEAP SYMPATHY PLAY. Democratic Leader Admits There Is No Truth in the Allegation That William Connell Was Responsible for George Howell's Retirement from the Position of City Superintendent of Schools—Undignified Tactics of Mr. Sando's Supporters Have a Boomerang Effect—Republican Have a Boomerang Effect. Last night's Times contained a tear-stained story of how George Howell was "retired" from the position of city superintendent of schools by the "heavy hand" of William Connell. The vote by which Mr. Howell was ousted was 16 to 5. Of the sixteen who voted against him, nine were Democrats. Only three of the twelve Democrats on the board voted for him. Nine out of twelve Democrats on a board of twenty-one voted to put an out-and-out Republican in his place. A Tribune reporter last evening asked T. J. Jennings, the Democratic leader on the school board, in what manner William Connell had retired Mr. Howell from the position of city superintendent. Mr. Jennings replied: "Why, Connell had nothing to do with it. It was—" and then Mr. Jennings stopped. What Mr. Jennings might have said, had he not recollected that he was a Democrat and that Mr. Howell is now a Democratic candidate, would probably make interesting reading. "Those who have lived here and hereabouts for any considerable length of time will not attach much weight to a charge against William Connell that he is given to throwing men out of employment. In fact, there are those who will admit that his inclinations are somewhat of an opposite trend. One thing about which the Republicans can well felicitate themselves is the solidarity of their ranks. The organization is perfect, everybody is working in harmony with everybody else and not as much as one "kicker" of any consequence has to be placated. County Committee member Thomas H. Dale said yesterday with enthusiasm: "In ten years there has not been such perfect harmony in the party. Very few men of any consequence and not a single man of real consequence is outside the breastworks. Most gratifying of all is the fact that every worker in the party is not only in the ticket, but with it in a most enthusiastic manner. How any Republican candidate can be defeated in this county this campaign is beyond me to fathom." In striking contrast with the happy conditions on the Republican side are those obtaining with the local Democracy. Hundreds of the decent men of the party are openly declaring they will have no hand in furthering the desperate and despicable plot to steal the convention which a few of the wide-behind leaders hatched at midnight in Hotel Schadt, and hundreds of others, who feel they can not afford to disclose their purpose of rebuking the pirates, can be counted upon to quietly register in the voting booth their disapproval of the mean, shabby treatment accorded Thomas F. Hoban. The contemplation of this is no more consoling to the Democratic leaders than is the further fact that the one hundred and thirty-four practical, active, party workers, scattered over the whole county, who were driven out of the alleged convention by the high-handed methods of the Hotel Schadt conspirators will be found at their respective booths on election day bent on preventing the consummation of the plotters' designs. Not the least of Democrats' troubles is the question of "buzes" in their "mass" meetings. Every one of the comparatively few which they have attempted to hold have been "frosts" and some of them were complete failures. At Dunmore, one night last week, with Candidate Howell on the platform, the meeting was dismissed without a word from any speaker. And the meeting had been advertised with an unusual expenditure of band music and printers' ink.

WELL PLEASSED AUDIENCE. Attended R. R. Y. M. C. A. Entertainment in Music Hall. A large and well-pleased audience attended the opening concert of the Railroad Music hall last evening of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association Members' Star course. The New York Male quartette and Charles Hartley furnished a varied programme, nearly every number of which was encored. The quartette consisted of Frank J. Corbett, tenor; F. Reade Winant, baritone; William Heaton, tenor; and Douglas Lane, bass. They sang "The Night Is Still," "The Sparrow's Twitter," "The Silent Waterlily," "The Rockabye Lady" and other encore numbers, all of which proved to be delightful selections. Each member also sang solo numbers, in which their splendid voices were heard to good advantage. Mr. Hartley earned a number of curtain calls through his clever impersonations and ventriloquism, and appeared to have added new features to his act.

NIGHT SCHOOLS ARE SOON TO BE OPENED. Teachers' Committee to Receive Petitions from Various Wards. Rules for Janitors. The matter of opening night schools was brought up at last night's meeting of the board of control by F. S. Barker, and on his motion the whole question was referred to the teachers' committee. All controllers wishing to have night schools opened in their wards are expected to present proper petitions, signed by taxpayers, asking that such schools be opened. Chairman Roche, of the building committee, presented a number of rules for the guidance of the janitors in the several school buildings. These rules were referred back to the committee for careful consideration. They provide among other things that all teachers shall leave their school rooms no later than 2:45 p. m. every day and fix the time for doing all cleaning and dusting. Among the other duties prescribed is that of watering the plants. Mr. Francois considered this to be beneath the dignity of the janitors and so informed the board.

"SONG OF LABOR" AWARD. Prize Divided Between W. J. Davis and Rev. David Pugh Griffiths. In connection with the National Eldested held in this city last May the Truth offered a prize of $50 for the best "Song of Labor." It was found inexpedient to award the prize at that time because the contributions were not deemed worthy of the subject by the adjudicators, and the contest remained open until Labor Day. Last evening the Truth contained the following announcement with reference to the contest: "Hon. H. M. Edwards, Mr. George Howell and Mr. John T. Watkins, adjudicators of the Scranton Truth's Prize Song of Labor, after a careful and critical and an exhaustive examination of the numerous compositions submitted in the contest, have divided the prize, fifty dollars, equally between the Rev. David Pugh Griffiths, of Binghamton, N. Y., and Mr. W. J. Davis, of Scranton. The Rev. Dr. Griffiths has recently achieved distinction with a novel, entitled 'The Last of the Quills,' which is compared to 'Eben Holden.' Mr. Davis is a resident of Scranton, and his home is at 323 Jefferson avenue."

SELECTING SCHOLARSHIPS. CONTESTANTS REAPING FRUITS OF VICTORY. Keystone Academy, Williamsport, Dickinson Seminary and Dickinson Collegiate-Preparatory School Chosen by the First Three Contestants in The Tribune's Contest. Only One Error Made in the Table. Miss Mathewson One Place Higher. Letters from Contestants—Successful Guessers Are Happy. A little progress was made yesterday in awarding the fruits of their victory to the contestants in The Tribune's Educational Contest, which closed so successfully on last Saturday evening. A number of the contestants called at the office to select their scholarships, but in most cases they were those whose names had not been reached yet. Owing to the fact that seven out of the first ten leaders live a distance from Scranton it was hard to get into communication with them. The following three leaders have formally made their choice: Augustus J. Kellerman, of Scranton, selected Scholarship No. 9, a three-year course in Keystone academy, at Factoryville, covering tuition, board, furnished room, heat, light and washing. This scholarship is valued at $500. Maxwell Shepherd, of Carbonade, selected Scholarship No. 6, in the Williamsport Dickinson seminary, at Williamsport, Pa., a three-year course, covering tuition, board, furnished room, heat, light and washing, of a total value of $500. Most of yesterday afternoon was consumed in trying to reach Charles Burns, of Vandling, who has fourth choice. The effort was not successful and so no further progress could be made.

As Old Age Creeps On Men and Women Can Keep Themselves Hale, Vigorous, and Happy by Using Paine's Celery Compound. The human system in old age must have a sufficient store of nervous energy, and rich, nourishing blood, so that the liver and kidneys may be kept in perfect action, and the body free from pain. Paine's Celery Compound is the true invigorator when old age creeps on and the vital powers commence to fail. Paine's Celery Compound gives the needed stimulus to digestion and assimilation that the system requires; it maintains a regular supply of pure blood, and removes such troubles as rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous weakness, heart palpitation, liver complaint and digestive disturbances, that make the lives of old people miserable. Rev. John Rice, Scotch Grove, Iowa, says: "My wife and I have used two bottles of Paine's Celery Compound with great advantage to our general health. It cured her rheumatism and proved a good regulator of the system in general and a tonic for the nerves. In my own case I have found it a cure for kidney trouble arising from old age, as I am now in my 70th year. In this trouble it has given me almost instant relief."
