CARBONDALE MINERS ON MITCHELL DAY

Two Thousand Anthracite Workers Join in Marching Demonstration to Honor President John Mitchell and Felicitate Over the Victory in 1800—Features of the Day.

About 2,000 miners, all from Carbondale, except a single local from Simpson, contributed to the observance yesterday of John Mitchell day by a parade that covered the central streets of this city, to the accompaniment of music of bands that outcried their stress and heightened the jubilating spirit that filled them. The day was, perhaps, a trifle sharp and keen in the chill winds that blew, while occasional flurries of snow gave a foretaste of winter that was not reliable.

It was a holiday for the workers in anthracite, and the holiday spirit showed itself in the light-hearted manner of the marchers. Besides commemorating the victory of the first strike, in 1800, the occasion was taken as a means of recollection and felicitation over the recent like settlement. All of the bands were nearly fully represented, evidence of the place that John Mitchell holds in the hearts of Carbondale miners. None other than mine workers participated in the celebration. It was truly a miners' demonstration.

Along the long line of miners were portraits of John Mitchell. Each man had on a badge, which bore a half-tone likeness of the United Mine Workers' president. These were supplied by a Philadelphia daily, through Roberts & Reynolds, the local newsdealer.

The procession did not get under way until nearly 11 o'clock, a delay being caused by one of the carriages, bearing city officials, becoming disabled. Harry Corbin was grand marshal, with Harry J. Korman, chief of staff, James Korman, assisted by a staff composed of one aide from each local in addition to the two division commanders, Ignace Veroski and John Coffey. The aides were: Frank Nolan, Felix Paine, 845 John Tabor, 877; Jacob White, 36; John Milton, 1807; Thomas Murphy, 1811; Martin Battle, 908; Joseph Pidgeon, 1896; William Purich, Highland Park local.

The police force, headed by Chief McAndrew, led the procession, which moved in Main street from Seventh avenue, and along the line of march published yesterday, the procession ending in a counter-march on Main street. After the police came carriages containing the following: Mayor James J. O'Neil, city controller George W. Evans, city treasurer P. F. Connor and chairman of Select Council John D. Davis were seated in the first carriage. In the second were Rev. Charles Lee, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer, rector of Trinity Episcopal church; A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., pastor of the Berean Baptist church. The third carriage held Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G., pastor of St. Rose church; Rev. Anthony Carroll, pastor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel church; Rev. George Dixon and Rev. Walter A. Gorman, assistant priests at St. Rose church. In the next carriage were National Organizer Henry J. Collins, District Committee Members John M. Barrett and Patrick Walsh.

The Mozart band led the first division, which was made up of the Simpson, Highland Park and Black Diamond locals. In the second division were No. 1 shaft local, 877; Powderly Inside Local, 908; Powderly Outside Local, 1896; Coalbrook Outside Local, 1811; Coalbrook Inside Local, 84. Five drum corps were in line.

There were numerous interesting features, conspicuous among them being the marching of a half-hundred boys, some of them very small youngsters, with the Simpson local. The inscriptions on the banners aroused a good deal of interest and amusement. The most striking read as follows:

"In the grimy and abused hands of the miner who has toiled for the child. It is for the little children we are fighting"—John Mitchell.

"The soft coal workers stood nobly to and helped us win a great victory." "We love scabs and imports and that man with dividers"—M. Mitchell.

"Mitchell and Roosevelt killed the Baer and cubs." This banner contained pictures of President Roosevelt and Mr. Mitchell.

Another banner contained a picture of President Roosevelt, lassoing a bear, and the inscription, "Only the tough rider, lassoed a bear," a parody on the famous newspaper cartoon.

Governor Odell, of New York, read the riot act to Mr. George Baer and his pals at New York.

There was one display in the procession that came in for a good deal of adverse criticism. It was independent, however, of the mine workers' programme of the day and was frowned upon by the officials.

At the rear of the line was an ash or truck wagon, containing a half-dozen boys, two of whom were women. There was a plentiful supply of beer aboard, which was freely drunk by the men, and in some instances passed out to the crowd. Next to the driver sat a man holding a crumpled hat banner.

There was an attempt to print an inscription, the attempt resulting as follows: "How is Mitchell. He is all right. Where will Wright, Mitchell, Scranton."

AN EAGER INTEREST. Republicans Anticipating Rally at the Grand Saturday Night.

The Grand opera-house is certain to contain an audience Saturday night that will give a splendid greeting to Sen. Seneca E. Payne, chairman of the day and night sessions of the congress, who will lead the forceful speakers who will discuss the political issues on this occasion.

As is true among Republicans all over the county, there is the greatest interest among these voters in Carbondale, interest born of the confident feeling of victory next Tuesday. This will be strikingly demonstrated at the mass meeting on Saturday night. The Mozart band will be there, with music galore. Everybody is invited, and it is strongly hoped that women will accompany and spend an evening of interest and profit.

CLIFFORD DUPLICATE SETTLED FOR $6,250. School Board Fixes on This Amount After Tedious Wading Through Exonerations, and the Fidelity Surety Company Promises to Send a Voucher for This Sum Before Monday Next—Satisfaction Over Settling the Matter.

After several weeks' dealings with the somewhat involved preliminaries necessarily incident to such an undertaking, a settlement of the unpaid, and partly uncollected, duplicate of School Tax collector Frank B. Clifford was effected last night.

The sum fixed upon is $6,250. This will be paid over to the school district by the Fidelity Casualty company, of Baltimore, Md., within five days from Tuesday night, when the amount due the district was ascertained.

The figure agreed upon as a settlement of the unpaid balance was determined at Tuesday night's meeting of the board, which was prolonged until nearly Wednesday morning. There was a tedious process of examining the exonerations presented by the surety company, and determining how much of these should be allowed. After paring and squeezing these to the hilt and allowing the commission due for the settlement of the duplicate, the sum of $6,250 was fixed by the board as final settlement.

In deciding upon this figure, all the exonerations and commission asked for by the surety company, the original bondsmen, were not granted. These claims were compromised, and although the directors are satisfied that the best settlement possible was the result, and that the interests of the district have not suffered.

The settlement of this much-ventilated matter, and the satisfactory result, will be generally received with similar satisfaction, it can be safely said.

The situation, so far as it affects the three Carbondalians who went on Mr. Clifford's indemnifying bond, is that they are likely to suffer some loss, more or less, but there is some chance to recoup themselves in the collection of the taxes yet unpaid. The settlement fixed by the board comprehends the whole duplicate, whether or not the money was collected. How the settlement will affect the criminal prosecution against Mr. Clifford, by the surety company, is not known.

THE HALLOWEEN DANCE. The Bon-Ton Social Club Will Entertain This Evening.

The Halloween dance of the Bon-Ton Social club will take place tonight in the Empire building. The committee of the club has spent a good deal of time and has used a generous allowance of cash in the arrangements, and an evening of social enjoyment beyond the ordinary seems assured. There will be a programme of Halloween diversions, and dancing of fancy figures will precede the opening of the usual several hours of dancing. The hall will, it is expected, be resplendent with decorations and increased electrical illuminations. The dance has been eagerly anticipated among a large number of young folks ever since the announcement, several weeks ago.

It was the intention to have a chicken supper served at the Imperial, in connection with the dance, but it was found necessary to dispense with this because of the restaurant's opening until today. Luncheon, however, can be procured at the restaurant, if desired, during intermission.

George Lee, a taxpayer of Carbondale township, brought James Walker and James McHale, supervisors of the township, before Alderman Atkinson Tuesday night, on the charge of failure to keep in repair a road in the township. Neglect of this character is a misdemeanor and punishable in criminal court. The defense was that the road is a private driveway, and beyond the duties of the supervisor to be kept in good condition.

The case continued, by agreement, in order to reach a basis of settlement.

"Faust" Company Goes Away. Alan Tabor's "Faust" company left Carbondale yesterday for Hamilton, N. Y., to resume its season. The ten days' stay of the company in this city gave rise to the belief that the organization was in financial distress. This was far from the truth, as the season thus far has been prosperous. A change in bookings, the engagement of a new electrician and the rehearsing of parts by new members of the troupe caused the stay here.

The great sale of Children's Stockings at 5c a pair continues. Some sizes are already sold out—the 8 1/2, 9, and 9 1/2 sizes. But we have plenty still of sizes, 5, 5 1/2, 6, 6 1/2, 7, 7 1/2, 8. Something over 8,000 pairs were sold yesterday. Women bought them in one dozen, two dozen and five dozen lots. One woman who has a large family of little ones, bought twelve dozen pairs.

Women's Rain-Coats and Ulsters.

One of the busiest places in the store is that little spot where we sell rain-coats. Dozens of women trying them on and being fitted all day long; and no wonder—can you think of anything better looking or more sensible as a wrap? And not only does the practical side appeal to women, but the styles are those of the best ulsters.

Except that the skirts are wider, rain-coats and ulsters are alike as two peas in style; but ulsters are running heavier and are meant for colder weather.

Some are quite elaborate; some are just sensible and cover you from top to toe equally. Have you ever thought how absurd it is to give a little added weight to your shoulders and arms when you go out and to neglect the rest of you? You ought to cover yourself all over on a cold day.

Two special numbers in four colors, new in style $20 and $25 each.

Fine Silk Waists.

While makers throughout the country have complained all the fall that business was bad, we've been selling more silk waists than ever before.

Of course, the prices, the quality, the style are the things that do it—everybody goes where the best money's worth is to be had.

Gloves for Everybody Men, Women, Children.

Just about twice as busy as last year—selling double the number of gloves every day. If we didn't have the right gloves, or enough gloves, it would be too big a strain to stand—but we're splendidly ready for it.

Womens.....25c to $6.00 Mens.....25c to $5.00 Childrens.....20c to $1.25

Are people thinking of Christmas already? You ought to see how many things customers are asking us to hold for them. It's the time to buy gifts—when the goods are fresh the variety unbroken, and before the crowd comes.
