JONES-CRAWFORD.

A very unique home wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones, 650 North Hyde Park avenue, when the bride and groom were united in marriage to Rev. William H. Crawford, of North Sanford, N. Y.

At 1 o'clock, to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, as played by Mrs. Aveche Jones, the bridal party entered the parlor, which was beautifully trimmed with cut flowers and palms, and under a canopy of flowers they were met by Rev. J. B. Sweet, D. D., presiding elder of the Binghamton district of the Wyoming conference, who performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Hugh C. McDermott, D. D., of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

Grouped in a semi-circle around the bride and groom were fifteen young ladies, dressed in white, all members of Miss Jones' Sunday school class. The effect was very pretty. The bride was gowned in white Paris mousseline-de-soie, trimmed with embroidery, and carried a large bouquet of white flowers.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held, and later a wedding dinner served. At 3:32, Rev. and Mrs. Crawford left for North Sanford, where a beautifully furnished home awaits them. The bride is very popular in West Scranton, and it is with deep regret that her numerous friends view her departure. She was an active worker in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, being president of the Epworth league and having taught a large class of young ladies in the Sunday school for several years.

Rev. William Crawford is also well known, having lived here prior to his entrance into the ministry. He is a graduate of the School of the Lackawanna and Drew Theological seminary. They were the recipients of many beautiful tokens of the respect and friendship of numerous friends.

STANTON-NORTON.

A quiet church wedding took place at St. Patrick's church, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, when Thomas Norton, of the South side, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Stanton, of North Ninth street, by Rev. J. P. Dunn, Miss Nellie Duffy was maid of honor while James Norton, brother of the groom, was best man.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Norton left via the Lackawanna for an extended wedding trip to New York and other large cities. Upon their return they will reside on the South Side.

DOLPH-LEWIS.

Miss Janet Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Lewis, of Warren street, North Scranton, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Arthur F. Dolph, at 10 yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Jones, pastor of the West Market street Welsh Congregational church, at the home, in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served by the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolph left last evening for Elmira, where they will make their home.

JEFFERS-LAKE.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Providence Presbyterian church parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Anna Lake, of Green Ridge, was married to Harry Jeffers, of Court street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George E. Guild, pastor of the church.

The bride was attired in a blue traveling gown, and was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffers left on an extended wedding tour, and upon their return will make their home in North Scranton.

FRANEY-O'MALLEY.

Anthony Franey, of this city, and Miss Nora O'Malley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Malley, of 1724 Jackson street, were quietly married in Elmira, N. Y., on Wednesday, by the pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church in that city.

The couple slipped away on Wednesday morning, unknown to but a few, and returned on Wednesday night. They will reside in West Scranton.

SMITH-POWELL.

Mrs. Euphemia J. Fowler, of 501 New street, and Allen Smith, of Dunmore, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce, at the parsonage of the Penn Avenue Baptist church on Millin avenue. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson.

After a short wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Dunmore.

BUSH-MORGAN.

At the parsonage of the Penn Avenue Baptist church Norman M. Bush and Miss Katie Morgan were joined in wedlock by Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jeanette Morgan, and the groom by John Parry.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sanders celebrated Event Last Night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sanders, of Church avenue, celebrated the twenty-fifth or silver anniversary of their wedding at their home last night. A large number of well-wishing personal friends extended their heartiest congratulations and several very enjoyable hours were spent by all. The rooms had been beautified with potted palms and flowers and an elaborate repast was served.

The couple were the recipients of many valuable tokens of the esteem which they are held by their neighbors and friends. Among the guests present were the following:

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Cure, Mr. and Mrs. Nelhart, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Towles, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Decker, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Deans, Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lark, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Francois, Jr. and Mrs. M. L. Fine, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wolf, Mrs. Otto D. Myers, E. Gutman, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Babler, Mr. and Mrs. John U. Hopewell, STROUDSBURG ALUMNI BANQUET AND DANCE.

First Annual Gathering Last Night At the Knights of Columbus Club House—The Speeches.

The first annual banquet and dance of the East Stroudsburg Normal School Alumni was held last evening at the Knights of Columbus club house, and was attended by a large number of the graduates who reside in Lackawanna county. The banquet service was by Hanley.

Prof. James J. Powell, principal of the Moosic High school, is the president of the association, and made a brief speech in introducing Prof. William E. Jamieson, principal of No. 17 school, as toastmaster. The speakers and their subjects were:

EXCELLENT CHURCH SUPPER.

Penn Avenue Baptist Ladies Served Several Hundred People.

The mere mention of the fact that the ladies of the Penn Avenue Baptist church will serve supper is sufficient to attract as many patrons as they can comfortably accommodate in two hours' time in the church parlors.

Such was the experience last evening, when several hundred patrons were served with a delectable menu. Half a dozen tables were filled several times, and the patrons were served by the following ladies, who in one way or another contributed to the success of the event:

Mrs. H. J. Hall, general manager; Mrs. D. A. Capwell, Mrs. F. Byxbee, Mrs. E. A. Bush, Mrs. Jennie C. Smith, Miss S. C. Krigbaum, assistants.

Associates—Mrs. J. G. Saxe, Mrs. C. A. Adams, Mrs. A. B. Warman, Mrs. S. M. Finn, Mrs. Weed, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Acker, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Janette Colvin, Mrs. A. B. Lister, Mrs. Bert Murphy, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Brader, Mrs. Tolmie, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Weeks.

Misses Mary Owens, Florence Colvin, Ida Bittenbender, Emma Frye, Lillie Miller, Florence Adams, Mildred Capwell, Augusta Swinz, Elsie Meinenberg, Anna Thomas, Gertrude Egbertson.

WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL,
New York, October 25, 1902.

Messrs. A. E. Little & Co.,
Lynn, Mass.
Dear Sirs—

Continuing our former correspondence as to the visit of His Royal Highness the Crown Prince of Siam, and his brother, Prince Chakrabongse, to your factory at Lynn, I now have to inform you that the party, consisting of twelve persons, will leave Boston at 1.15 P. M., arriving at Lynn at 2.05 P. M., on Friday, October 31st, and will leave Lynn at 4.25 P. M. for Boston. Will you kindly inform the police at Lynn, so that their Highnesses may not be subjected to annoyances, and also furnish carriages to take the party from the station to your factory?

I am, Gentlemen,
Very truly yours,
Herbert H. D. Pierce,
Third Assistant Secretary of State.

Do you wonder at the wonderful success of this Women's Shoe? Here's proof that the makers are recommended as the best by the American Government.

You may have worn these Shoes. If not, we ask your inspection to the styles produced by this factory this season. Always the same price, $3.50.
