

PENNYPACKER IS ELECTED

An Official Count of the Vote Will Probably Reveal the Usual Large Majorities.

THE REPUBLICAN PLURALITY 175,000

Democratic Gains in Certain Rural Districts Are Offset by the Splendid Showing Made by the Republicans of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—Losses in the Anthracite Coal Region Not as Heavy as Had Been Anticipated—Republican Congressmen Elected—The Vote in the Counties.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Today for the first time in the history of the state more than 1,000,000 votes were cast in an election.

Samuel W. Pennypacker, Republican, was elected governor by an estimated plurality of 175,000 and the Republican ticket was generally successful in the various counties. The Democrats elected two and possibly three of the thirty-two congressmen. The legislature will be more strongly Republican than ever before with the exception 1897 session and it is certain that Boies Penrose will succeed himself in the United States senate.

Estimates that are received from more than half the counties in Pennsylvania outside of Philadelphia and Allegheny show gains for the Democratic state ticket. These gains are offset, however, by heavy Republican gains in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The returns indicate a Republican plurality in the state of from 150,000 to 200,000, of which Philadelphia contributes over 100,000 and Pittsburgh from 20,000 to 40,000.

The Republican loss in the anthracite coal region was not as heavy as had been anticipated. Despite the apparent apathy of the voting public during the campaign the vote polled in this city today was much heavier than had been anticipated. Contrary to expectations the balloting was unattended by any serious disturbances and the election was conducted more quietly than has been the case for a number of years. There were a few arrests for illegal voting. Republican State Chairman Quay arrived here from his Beaver county home shortly before 6 o'clock. He remained at his rooms at the Hotel Walton all night where he received state returns over a private wire. One of the first telegrams to Senator Quay was from Pittsburgh, claiming that Pennypacker carried Allegheny county by 35,000 plurality and that the Citizens-Democratic local ticket had 40,000 majority in Pittsburgh.

BALLOT IN THE COUNTIES.

The Results Slow in Coming in. Results Estimated in Many Cases.

Armstrong. Armstrong county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker a plurality of 1,700, a Republican gain of 296; Jackson and Grant, Republicans, are elected for the legislature, and Smith, Republican, for congress has a plurality in the county of 2,000.

Bucks. Bucks county, estimated: Pattison's plurality, 1,000, a Democratic gain of $21. Zane, Rice and Edwards (Fusionists) are elected to the legislature. Grim (Democrat) is elected to the senate. Congress is in doubt.

Cambria. Cambria county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker 500 plurality; legislature, Hohmann and Davis, Republicans, elected; congress, Evans, Republican, 500 plurality in the county; Heffley, Democrat, for county treasurer, carries the county by 500. Balance Republican county ticket elected.

Clarion. Clarion county, estimated: Gives Pattison 1,000 plurality, a Republican gain of 49; Hoy and Arner, Democrats, are elected for the legislature; for congress, Smiley, Democrat, has a plurality of 800 in the county; Hall, Democrat, is elected state senator.

Clearfield. Clearfield county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker 500 plurality, a Republican gain of 916. For the legislature, Boulton and Scofield, Republicans, are elected. For congress, S. R. Dresser, Republican, has 800 plurality in the county. For congress, Republican, received 1,500 plurality in the county for senator.

Chester. Chester county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker a plurality of 1,000, a Democratic gain of 2,002. March, Pope, Wax and Fox, Republicans, are elected to the legislature. Congressman Butler, Republican, receives 3,500 plurality in the county.

Dauphin. Dauphin county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker 3,200 plurality; legislature, four Republicans elected; congress, Olmstead, Republican, 4,000 plurality. Entire Republican county ticket elected by from 2,500 to 4,000.

Forest. Forest county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker a plurality of 200, a Democratic gain of 68; for congress, Sibley, Republican, has a plurality of 250 in the county. The legislature is very uncertain, with both sides claiming victory.

Fulton. Fulton county, estimated: Gives Pattison 225 plurality; S. Wesley Kirk, Democrat, is elected for the legislature, and H. I. Huber, Democrat, will have a plurality in the county of 200 for congress.

Greene. Greene county, estimated: Gives Pattison a plurality of 1,500, a Democratic gain of 83; for the legislature, James McNeely, Democrat, is elected; for congress, O. W. Kennedy, Democrat, has a plurality in the county of 100; for the senate, B. N. Freeland, Democrat, has a plurality of 200.

Huntingdon. Huntingdon county, estimated: Gives Pennypacker 1,100, a Democratic gain of 376; Montgomery and Taylor, Republicans, are elected to the legislature by 800 plurality; Mahon, Republican, for congress has a plurality of 900 in the county; Benson, Republican, for associate judge, is elected.

Lancaster. Lancaster county: The entire Republican ticket in Lancaster county was elected by increased majorities. Estimated: Governor, Pennypacker, 11,000 plurality; legislature, Frank B. McCall, Republican, city district, 1,300 majority. The Republicans also elect three assemblymen in the northern district and two in the southern district by about 5,000 plurality. Congress: H. Burt Cassel, Republican, 11,500 plurality; senate, J. A. Stober, Republican, Northern district, 6,000 plurality.

Lycoming. Lycoming county: Pattison's majority in Lycoming county will be from 1,500 to 1,800. Mansel for congress, majority will be 1,000 to 1,200. Whole Democratic ticket elected, except, possibly George Harder, Republican candidate for register and recorder.

Luzerne. Luzerne county, estimated: Gives Pattison 3,500 plurality, a Democratic gain of 1,855; Palmer, Republican, for congress has a plurality of 2,500 in the county. Four Republicans and two

ODELL WINS IN NEW YORK

His Plurality Over Bird S. Coler Will Range from Six to Nine Thousand.

SAVED BY THE BIG UP-COUNTY RETURNS

Coler's Plurality in Greater New York, Which Seth Low Carried for Mayor, Reaches the Unexpected Figures, 117,500—Republicans Sustain a Loss of Four Congressmen and a Number of Assemblymen, but Their Control of the Legislature Is Not Menaced—Oyster Bay Returns a Plurality for Coler.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. New York, Nov. 4.—In spite of a phenomenally large vote in New York and Kings county for Bird S. Coler, Democrat, the returns up to a late hour tonight indicated the re-election of Benjamin B. Odell, Republican, to the governorship of New York state by from 6,000 to 9,000. Coler's plurality in Greater New York exceeded 115,000, a surplus of 3,000 above the claim made by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, but that large vote was not sufficient to overcome the Republican majorities from up the state. Odell's vote in the county districts was lighter than two years ago, but Coler's was also lower than Stanchfield's in the same year.

In New York city, Coler's plurality was approximately 117,500, made up as follows: New York county, 83,000; Kings, 25,500; Queens, 5,500, and Richmond, 2,800. Oyster Bay, where President Roosevelt's country home is situated and where he voted today, was carried by Coler, his plurality being 121. Two years ago Odell's plurality was 512.

Figures from the congressional districts in New York city and the Long Island counties apparently showed a loss of four members of the national house to the Republicans. All returns indicate that Judge Gray, Democratic candidate for judge of the court of appeals, ran somewhat ahead of his ticket. The Democrats made gains in the state legislature, but the gains were not sufficient to endanger the Republican hold on the seat in the United States senate, now held by Thomas C. Platt.

In Greater New York. New York, Nov. 4.—The city of Greater New York, which last year elected a Fusionist to the majority, returned to the Democratic today and rolled up one of its old time majorities for that party. Locally, the candidates voted for, were three justices of the Supreme court, nineteen members of the national house of representatives, twenty-one state senators and sixty-two state assemblymen. In Kings county, a sheriff, and in Queens, a district attorney, were elected. Coler's plurality for governor in the city was well above 100,000.

From the returns shown that Edward B. Amend, Vernon M. Davis and Edward E. McCall, the Tammany-Democratic candidates, were elected to the Supreme court bench by pluralities ranging from 70,000 to 80,000. The vote cast today showed a remarkable change of feeling from last year, when Mayor Low carried New York county by about 5,000. The reversal of the vote in Kings was equally noteworthy. Low carried the county by more than 21,000, while the unofficial returns tonight gave Coler 25,546 plurality.

Chairman Dunn's Statement. New York, Nov. 4.—At midnight Chairman Dunn, of the Republican state committee said: "The re-election of Governor Odell is now an absolute certainty. His plurality will, I believe be from 15,000 to 20,000."

Elliott Danforth, of the Democratic state committee, said at midnight: "The result is in doubt, but from advice I have received, I still claim the election of Coler." Mr. Danforth refused to name any plurality.

At midnight it was reported at headquarters that Tammany hall conceded the re-election of Governor Odell.

New York, Nov. 4.—Late returns from remote districts show a falling off in the Odell vote. Onondaga county gave Coler a plurality of 142, a Republican loss of 5208, and this reduced Odell's estimated plurality to 8,500.

Coler Still Has Hopes. New York, Nov. 4.—Mr. Coler, the Democratic candidate for governor was asked tonight what he thought of the result of the election. He said: "You can quote me as saying that I don't give it up. I cannot imagine, however, with the magnificent vote I received in Greater New York, there

CONGRESS WILL BE REPUBLICAN

But the Margin of Control Will, It Is Feared, Be Smaller Than at Present.

SENATE REPUBLICAN BY 16 MAJORITY

Chairman Griggs of the Democratic Congressional Committee Not Inclined to Yield to the Logic of the Returns and at Midnight Issued a Statement Claiming a Democratic Majority of from 10 to 12 Votes.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 4.—Although the returns from the doubtful congressional districts were slow in arriving, the indications at midnight were that the Republicans would control the next house of representatives by a narrow margin. In the present house, with a membership of 457, the Republicans have 41 majority. Under the new apportionment, the 58th house will consist of 386 members, a majority of which is 194.

The next United States senate will be Republican by at least 16 majority, against the present majority of 20.

New York, Nov. 4.—At midnight Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, sent the following telegram to Senator Hanna, chairman of the national Republican committee:

"Returns coming in slowly. Very satisfactory outside New York city. Think an estimate of 204 Republican members is safe. Have elected four of the six congressmen from Maryland."

Democratic Claims. Chairman Griggs, of the Democratic congressional committee, at 11:30 o'clock tonight said that returns to his headquarters were too meagre to permit a definite statement, but that he saw no reason now to waver in his original declaration that the Democrats would have a majority of 22 in the house. He claimed, he said, a gain of five seats in New York, two each in Massachusetts, Maryland and Kentucky, one in New Jersey and others from various states.

At midnight Chairman Griggs made a statement claiming the house would be Democratic by from 10 to 12 votes. He added to his specifications of gains three in California, one in Wisconsin, two in Michigan, and two in Minnesota.

CALIFORNIA. San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Returns are slow, but they indicate a victory for Parson's ticket. The Republican ticket, the entire Republican ticket, Pardee's plurality over Lane, Democrat, promises to be small, because of factional feeling within the Republican ranks. The legislature is in doubt.

COLORADO. Denver, Nov. 4.—After a spirited fight, James H. Beardsley, Republican, for governor, has been elected to the governorship. He defeated Edward C. Stimson, the Democratic candidate. Returns, however, are very slow in coming in, and it is almost impossible at this writing to make any forecast concerning the legislature. There were six electorates in the field.

CONNECTICUT. New Haven, Nov. 4.—Returns from 50 towns in Connecticut indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket by pluralities ranging from 15,000 to 20,000. The returns from the same towns indicate that Connecticut will return all four district congressmen, Republicans, and a Republican congressman-at-large. The general assembly promises to be comfortably Republican, thus ensuring the return to the United States senate of O. H. Platt.

DELAWARE. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 4.—Returns from over half of the precincts in the First legislative district of Wilmington indicate the election of Dr. H. C. Buckmaster, Democrat, over James Hitchen, Republican. This is a Democratic gain and counts against Addicks. Hitchen was a member of the two previous sessions of the legislature and at the last term voted for Addicks for United States senator. In addition to the evident election of Buckmaster in the First district, the Democrats have also elected their candidates in the Fourth and Fifth representative districts. Both districts were represented by Democrats in the last legislature. This gives the Democrats three of the five representative districts in Wilmington. Henry A. Houston, Democrat, for congress, will have from 3,000 to 5,000 majority in the state.

DEATHS OF A DAY. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 4.—Henry Brock, for many years the proprietor of the Congressional hotel, located adjoining the capitol grounds, died here today. He was well known to public men.

FIREWORKS EXPLODE WITH FATAL EFFECT

Ten Persons Killed and Several Injured at Madison Square Garden.

LIQUOR MAY BE SOLD IN THE CAPITOL

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 4.—The prosecution of Theodore L. Page and Warren J. Collins, charged with the sale of liquor at the capitol restaurants in violation of the law, was dismissed today by the court of appeals in the city of Columbia. The court held that the act regulating the sale of liquor in the district was not intended to apply to the capitol.

Pirates Will Be Delivered. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Rome, Nov. 4.—A dispatch received here from the town of Mili, on the Lohela (Yemen, Arabia) coast, which was reported by the Italian gunboats, says the authorities of Mili, beside promising to deliver the pirates to the Italian consul, are also offering to collect an indemnity of $100 for the families of two Italian sailors who were killed in a fight with the pirates.

Fatal Rabbit Hunt. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. West Chester, Nov. 4.—Walter Detweiler, aged 21 years, while gunning for a day in Freydrin township, chased a rabbit into a pile of rails and while trying to dislodge the animal his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents taking effect in his head, blowing his face completely away. He was a son of David Detweiler, residing in Chester Valley.

Senator Clay Re-Elected. By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—The Georgia legislature in joint session today re-elected United States Senator Alexander S. Clay for the full term of six years. Senator Clay received 31 votes and Walter Johnson, of Atlanta, Republican, 1.

RESULT IS YET IN SOME DOUBT

Democrats, However, Seem to Have the Better of It in the Districts Not Heard from.

CONNELL LIKELY TO BE A WINNER

Chairman Taylor Admits the Defeat of Oliver and Scheuer and That the Vote Between Philbin and White Is Dangerously Close—James A. Suro Winner in the Third—Calpin Leads Jordan for the Senate. Sando Slightly in the Lead, but Republican Districts Yet to Be Heard from Are Expected to Land Vosburg a Winner—Pattison Carries the County by 3,000.

Returns from eighty districts indicate the election of a majority of the Democratic candidates in Lackawanna county.

At 2 o'clock this morning Republican County Chairman Taylor gave out the following statement:

"Pattison has carried the county by 2,000 plurality, and it is likely that Phillips and Hayes are elected representatives in the First and Second districts, respectively.

"Connell has a safe lead. Vosburg is not so far behind but that he can yet be a winner, as the districts to be heard from ought to put him in the lead.

"The contest for commissioners is close, with Durbin and Hirschell leading in the districts heard from. A large number of strong Republican districts are not yet in.

"James is elected in the Third district and Philbin seems to be holding his own in the Fourth.

"There is a probability that Moore will be one of the mine inspectors.

"It is not fair to predicate much on what the unreported districts have done in previous elections as the returns that have been received show that very few districts voted anything like they ever had before. It will take the full returns to decide most of the contests."

Figures from substantially all the districts will be printed in a later issue of The Tribune.

An Ideal Day. The day was ideal for an election as far as the weather was concerned and this in no small measure contributed to the big vote cast in so many of the suburban districts. The mines and other industries worked full time but judging from the large number of workers about the polls during the whole of the day they did not work full handed. While the battle was one of the most vigorous the county ever witnessed there was a remarkable absence of serious unpleasantness. Superintendent of Police Day stated last evening that the police were not called upon to deal with a single disturbance.

A feature of the day was the almost total lack of indications as to how the vote was going. The party leaders at the close of the polls were not in position to venture even a good guess as to what the count would show. The only definite knowledge any scout could send in was that the balloting was heavy and that there seemed to be a good deal of cutting. The count showed that in this latter regard the scouts were not mistaken.

Returns Came in Slowly. Early in the evening the center of the city began to fill up with anxious seekers for news from all parts of the city and suburbs. Their patience was sorely tried, for it was not until 10 o'clock that the first returns began to come in and then they came in very slowly. At 12:30 o'clock less than fifty districts had been heard from and it was difficult for any one to make anything approaching a safe estimate from those.

Figures from the First Legislative district received up to 12:45 were extremely discouraging to the Republicans and Mr. Oliver was disposed to admit the election of his opponent, Mr. Hayes. The indications as to how the vote was going, however, were so vague that they were too vague to carry much assurance. The unexpected turn-about in so many usually steady wards made prophets on both sides wary with their predictions.

At 1 o'clock the result was more profoundly in doubt than it has been at any recent election at this same hour. The big ballot, the big vote and the very general cutting were responsible for this. It was expected the returns would be late, but not so late as they were. At previous elections there was invariably enough information at hand to warrant estimates on nearly all the offices before 1 o'clock. This time there wasn't a candidate outside of Mr. Hayes who was not on the anxious seat or the next seat thereto.

Crowds Waiting for News. The crowds of news hunters hung about the bulletin boards during the early part of the night and tried to grow enthusiastic over announcements to the effect that "Twelve out of 49
