THE LIQUOR CASES.

Indignation Among the Dealers Who Were Returned Because of Alleged Discrimination—Subpoena Served on Rev. Dr. Whalen.

The fifth in the development of the Sunday saloon-closing movement, caused by Constable Edward J. Neary returning to court three dealers from the second ward, was a fertile topic of discussion about the city yesterday.

Constable Neary, it appears, has pulled a hornet's nest down on his head in the action he took. Among the three saloonkeepers who were returned to court, there is a feeling of protest akin to indignation over what they allege is rank discrimination in being singled out among the dealers of the ward. Some of the trio declare that there was greater reason for reopening other saloons in the ward and they do not pretend to see how the constable can justify his action in singling out three places on hearsay evidence that they were open.

On the other hand, there is a good deal of guessing as to the purpose of reopening these places. Rev. Dr. Whalen made it a matter of honor with the dealers that he would not divulge the evidence against them, provided they close and remain closed after the hearing on Sunday, thereby accepting Dr. Whalen's proposition, which he publicly promised, in his letter, to fulfill. If now, however, he is compelled to go before the grand jury and divulge this evidence, he will forfeit the respectability which he made with the saloonkeepers and which, he says, would never have been voluntarily broken.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Eulah Bly Entertains Her Young Friends.

Eulah Bly, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bly, celebrated her tenth birthday, Monday afternoon, by entertaining a large number of her young friends at the residence, on Summit avenue, from 4 until 7 o'clock. The little one actually enjoyed the afternoon. Little Miss Eulah was presented with many pretty gifts that will serve as lasting reminders of the happy occasion. A few flashlights were taken by Claude Oliver.

Among those who enjoyed the party were Margaret Whalen, Mabel Stone, Grace Farrell, Ruth Arnold, Margie Histed, Mildred Miller, Frances Kenworthy, Mary Fleming, Clara Osborne, Katherine Nicholson, Hazel Faatz, Lila Bly, Grace Miller, Ann Miller, Lela Histed, Florence Miner, Edna Shuman, Mary Williams, Lillian Henderson, Alma Stevens, Hazel Holgate, Lois Norris, Lila Carlton, Emma May, Lucy Milligan, Margaret Sampson, Lilla Bly, and Misses Carl Bly, Louis Gordon, Raymond Reese, Rex Townsend, Everett Foster, Robert Stephens, Frank Purdon, Harry Oliver, Harold Oliver, Willie Sluman, Newell Townsend, Rex Stone and Maurice Bly.

A QUIET ELECTION.

Little Activity About the Polls Until Evening.

There was the quiet almost of a Sunday afternoon in Carbondale yesterday. Though the day was superb in its weather conditions, there was little activity about the polls. The signs about only a few booths indicated that there was an election in progress. This was due largely to the mines working full time. That the rush of work was on was shown in the almost deserted look about the usual scenes of activity on election day.

The vote was light during the day, exceedingly light, but towards evening things were more brisk and there was quite a rush of voters from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. There was but one sign of a disturbance. Every saloon in the central city kept closed house.

INDIANS AT SCRANTON.

Will Play the All-Scranton Team There Today.

The Indians football eleven will go to Scranton today to play the All-Scranton team. This eleven is the best in the Electric city and will give the Indians perhaps the best game they may expect this season. It is hoped that nothing will interfere with the Indians leaving here with the full strength of the eleven. It is likely that a number of Carbondalians will accompany the team.

Social Happenings.

Miss Elizabeth Duffy entertained at her home on Fairbrook street. Music and games were features of the evening.

ARE YOU AMBITIOUS?

Coffee Makes Some People Helpless.

We inherit our temperaments. Some children are happy and bright, while others are nervous and cross. Care should be taken that the child is given proper food and drink so as not to increase natural nervousness or to bring it on; but this is often overlooked by mothers who permit their children to drink coffee without check.

The wife of a grocerman living in Silem, Mo., says: "I was born with a nervous temperament, and this was increased by my parents giving me coffee when a child, unconscious of its effect. One day nervous system in time, a cup of coffee in the morning invariably soured on my stomach, and a single cup at night would make me nervous and wakeful, and often cause a distressing heart-burn. Last year I laid in bed all summer with nervous prostration, a complete wreck from coffee drinking. I craved a good, nourishing, hot drink and commenced to use Postum Food Coffee.

There was a gradual improvement in my health almost from the commencement of using Postum, and all sleep well, the heart-burn and nervousness disappeared, my stomach troubles stopped and now (a year later) I have gone from the sick-bed into the store behind the counter day after day; from a helpless to a stirring business woman, with new life and strength, new hopes and ambition; from the pale, weak 102-pound woman to my present weight of 130 pounds. Thanks to Postum.

We carry Postum in stock and recommend it to our customers. We have to sell it and often give a trial quantity to the faltering to induce them to use this health-giving drink. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ing. A dainty luncheon was served. The following were present: Misses May and Kathryn Duffy, Margaret Barrett, Madeline Dempsey, Tessie Deskosky, Mary Quinn, Margaret Taylor, Clara Morrison, Lizette Moffitt, Katie Moffitt, May Dempsey, and Messrs. Edward J. Hossling, Philip Boyle, George Briggs, Frank Minick, Leo Conerton, Harry Stival, Martin Duffy and Francis Duffy.

The Germania Singing society is planning to entertain at a dance to be given in Germania hall, Monday evening, November 17. As usual, an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

BANQUET OF MASONS.

Carbondale Lodge Will Tonight Celebrate One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary of George Washington's Initiation Into the Order.

The Masons of Carbondale will join tonight with their brethren throughout the land in observing the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the initiation into the order of George Washington, the country's first president. A badge of importance is attached to the event and there will be celebrations in hundreds of Masonic lodges tonight in its observance.

The celebration of the local lodge will comprehend a banquet in the armory on North Main street, preceded by exercises in Masonic hall, on Salem avenue. The post-prandial exercises in the armory assure a treat to the Masons, as a choice list of toasts has been prepared. The toastmaster is John W. Dimock, a well-known local citizen and effective, but there is a gentle touch to smooth the sharpness. He is truly qualified and well-equipped for the post of honor.

HOMES TO VOTE.

Frank Collins, up to the present term a teacher in the central school building, now a student in the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, was home yesterday to cast his vote. Mr. Collins qualified for the first term of the University, but has not participated in any of the games because of an injury to his knee, sustained in practice before the season opened. The flesh was so badly torn that Mr. Collins did not deem it prudent to get into the game.

Dr. Charles H. Riggs, of Darle avenue, has been called to the St. Elizabeth hospital, and Stephen Nealon, of Pike street, student in the medical school of the Medico-Chirurgical college, are also home to vote.

FUNERAL OF JAMES CLARK.

The late James Clark was laid at rest in St. Rose cemetery, Monday forenoon. A large procession of friends accompanied the deceased to St. Rose church, where a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Father Gorman. Rev. Father Gorman spoke tenderly of the deceased and addressed warmly sympathetic words to the sorely afflicted family.

The pall-bearers, who were nine foremen under the Delaware and Hudson company, the same as Mr. Clark, were Mark Campbell, John Scott, Andrew Patten, Patrick McGarry, Thomas Jordan and P. J. Moore.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

The friends who desire to take their farewell of the late Mrs. George Lewis will do so today at the residence on High street, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Burial will be private.

Connolly & Wallace's is an open book. Something of interest on every aisle—in every nook and cranny of the store.

Men's Lounging Coats for the House.

House-coats and Smoking Jackets. Perhaps "comfort" coats would be a better name, for they are the most comfortable change a man can make when he returns weary from his business at night, and yet be dressed well enough to see his friends.

Smoking Jackets.....$5.00
Long Robes.....7.50

Cotton-Filled Comfortables, 95c.

Two hundred and fifty, winter-weight, filled with clean carded cotton, nicely quilted. But they are all in light colors—that's the reason the maker let us have them under his usual price. They are regularly worth $1.25 each.

Women's Suede Gloves, $1.00.

Today a new supply—we feel sure of the skins, cut and workmanship in every pair.

Black only—most of them full pique sewn, to avoid any seams pressing into the hand. Some have one large pearl clasp, others two of metal.

Mocha gloves, soft and velvety as a kitten's ear, for those who prefer grays, modes and beavers.

Splendid Turkish Bath Towels, 10c.

1200 fringed Bath Towels, white, with a small hair line stripe of red in the border, good weight and size, will soak up water like a sponge. Value at least a third more than our price.

Winter Underwear For Men, Women and Children.

One of these days everybody will come with a rush after under-wear and wonder why we don't serve them as well as we usually do. It is all right to shop at the busiest store, but the best time is before it gets busy—when the stocks are full, and salespeople have time to wait on you properly. Everything is ready—from the finest things made, to as low prices as good underwear can be sold for. Most of it was made for us, over our patterns and according to our ideas—which are your ideas which we have learned from experience.

DALTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Finn, of Clifford, visited relatives in this place on Sunday.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a mother's meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. P. Snyder. The meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Charles Cressy.

Evangelistic meetings are being held each evening in the Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, Ph. D., is doing the preaching and he is being assisted by Prof. Buck, who has charge of the singing. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The young men's social and reading rooms were opened for the first time on Saturday evening. Games and papers have been placed in the rooms and a library will soon be established there. It is sincerely hoped that this will be a permanent factor in our town, and that it will increase membership and in attractions.

On Sunday, Mrs. Niles Smith and Miss Emma Peck were received into membership in the Baptist church. On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the annual roll-call of this church will be held. From 5 to 6 a supper will be served to the members of the church and a social time will be enjoyed. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., of Carbondale, will preach. The Methodist people will give up their service that they might join with the Baptists.
