Feranitz was given a hearing, at which several witnesses testified that Wink was coming home from work Monday evening the defendants s et upon him at the corner of Ninth and Luzerne streets and badly beat The assault, they claim, was without provocation, but it appears that the three men lived in the same town before coming to America, and while there they had some kind of a fuss, which this fight was supposed to be the settlement of. AGAINST CHILD LABOR.

One Very Praiseworthy Attitude of the Labor Unions. M. G. Cunniff in the World's Work.

Two match-boxes lie on my desk, given me by officers of the Cigarmakers International union. The sides are of celluloid. One side reads, "Smoke no eigars that do not bear this label"; below is the union label in facsimile. The other side reads, "These cigars are not union made"; below is a list of widely advertised eigars. It is a form of boycott.

"What is the story?" I asked a label "The story," he said, "is that those cigars are made by the trust. They are made by machines that roll them out at the rate of perhaps a thousand a day. A cigarmaker can make by hand perhaps 150,"

"Would you stop the machines?" ;

"No," he thundered, "we can't check nechanical progress-we don't want to, We want eigarmakers to run the machines at a living wage. When the typesetting machine came in, the typographical union insisted that regular printers should run them at the reguar wages. The machines moved printing up a notch-they didn't lower wages. But eigar-making machines are run by girls-children! And on starvation wages! That's what we want to stop,"

"Like child labor in cotton mills?" I asked.

"Just!" he snapped, "Admit that a father among the unemployed, with young daughters earning from six to eight dollars a week on a cigar-making machine, under a coarse and perhaps vicious foreman-I could tell you talesis not so pretty an American sight as sult him a father earning eighteen dollars a week and keeping his children at school. That is what we work for-to help our children-to give them a better start please God, than we had. Let the machines come in by all means, but let us run them. Don't fire us, to turr our fingers skilled at cigar-rolling and good for nothing else, to idleness or to new trade too late-and put our children in our places."

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUE for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used sixty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething it talue is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the towels, and wind-coile. By giving health to the child it resis the mother. WASHINGTON'S INITIATION

ANNIVERSARY OF IT IS BEING CELEBRATED.

Tomorrow Night the Masons of This City Will Have Ceremonies at the Dixie Theater-Number of Scrantonians Are in Philadelphia Today Attending the Exercises Arranged by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania—Notables Who Will Participate in the Ceremonies at Philadelphia.

An elaborate celebration will be conducted in the Dixie theater tomorrow night by the local lodges of the Order of Free and Accepted Masons in honor of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of George Washington's initia tion into the order.

The ritualistic exercises will be in the nature of a regulation Blue lodge meet ing. District Deputy Grand Master T. F. Wells will act as worshipful master and will be assisted by other officers to be appointed today. The features of the meeting will be addresses by John Lamberton, of Harris burg, on "Washington as a Mason, and by Judge H. M. Edwards, of this city, on "Washington as a Citizen." No one but Masons in regular stand ing will be admitted to the theater. Al visiting masons are cordially invited to attend. T. F. Penman, Thomas F. Wells, E. P. Kingsbury, C. D. Sanderson and other prominent masons are in Philadelphia, today attending the sesqui entennial celebration of the initiation of Washington. Over 600 leading masons of the United States have accepted invitations to at tend the ceremonies. This celebration, which has been arranged by the Masonic Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, will be held at Masonic Temple, Broad and Filbert streets, this morning. In the afternoon a grand banquet will be held in the large banquet hall of the temple.

Everything will be conducted on the most elaborate scale, and the celebration will undoubtedly be the most striking event in the Masonic history of America. The president of the United States, the governor of Pennsylvania and two members of the president's cabinet are among the many distinguished guests who have accepted invi ations to be present.

To be historically exact, this (one hundred and fiftieth) celebration of Washington's initiation in "the lodge" should have been held yesterday, as he was admitted on November 4, 1752. But owing to that date falling on election day, and as many of those who will participate come from a great distance the committee decided to hold the celebration on the following day. The ceremonies incident to the cele bration will be held in the Grand lodge coms in Corinthian hall. When Grand Master Tennis calls the gathering together preliminary to making his address of welcome, he will wield the gavel used by George Washington during the Masonic ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner-stone of the capitol at Washington, D. C.

Charles L. Gallagher, grand master of Massachusetts, will respond to the address of welcome. The oration of the Even the din of traffic from Broadway day will then be delivered by President Roosevelt, who will choose his own topic, "Washington as a Citizen" is the subject assigned to General Stewart L. Woodford, a former minister to Spain. and James M. Lamberton will speak on 'Washington as a Free Mason.'

The banquet, which will follow the exercises in Corinthian hall, will be presided over by Grand Master Tennis. Toasts will be responded to as follows: "The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania,"

Edward A. Tennis. "In Memory of Our Deceased Brother, George Washington," George Guthrie, Pittsburg.

"Free Masonry Around the Globe,"

the Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, bishop of New York "The Grand Lodge of Which Washington Was a Member," H. Oscar Kearns, of Virginia.

"The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," William A. Stone, governor of Pennsylvania. "Our Sister Grand Lodges," Thomas J. Shryock, grand master of Maryland,

"Our Honored Guests," J. Franklin Fort, Trenton, N. J. "All Our Friends" (Washington's favorite toast), Charles Emory Smith,

Philadelphia. "The Day We Celebrate," former Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker.

Among the prominent guests who are expected to attend are:

President Theodore Roosevelt, Gover nor William A. Stone, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Navy Moody, United States Senator Foraker, of Ohio: Quay and Penrose, of Penn sylvania; former Governor Robert E Pattison, Supreme Court Justice J. Brewster McCollum, Justice John Dean, Justice William P. Potter, Justice S. Leslie Mestrezat, Justice John I. Mitchell, Judge Marcus W. Acheson, Judge Norris S. Barratt, Judge Thomas K. Finletter, Judge G. Harry Davis, Judge Michael Arnold, Judge Henry J. Mc-Carthy, Judge Abraham Beitler, Judge William N. Ashman, Judge Joseph C. Ferguson, City Solicitor John L. Kinsey, General Louis Wagner, Congress-man Robert H. Foerderer, James J. Jordan, George H. H. Bingham and Congressman Irving P. Wanger.

ASTOR AND THE MECHANIC. One Millionaire Who Is Worth While, Money Aside.

Henry Harrison Lewis, in World's Work One day not long ago a marine engineer received a polite letter asking him to call at the office of the Astor estate. Mr. John Jacob Astor wished to con-

"I'll have to go all dressed up," h said to his wife. "I should think so," was her decisive reply. "Put on your best things or you'll look out of place."

The mechanic, painfully arrayed in unaccustomed starch, arrived at the office, which he found to be an unpre-tentious two-story double brick building on a side street leading from Broadway. The only indication of possible wealth were a number of massive iron bars guarding the front windows, similar to those sometimes found in front of banks or deposit vaults. On the inside were glass partitions, and counters with little brass-barred windows, and several serious-faced clerks poring over account books. One of these asked his name and conducted him up a short flight of stairs. The mechanic looked about him

New Life & Strength Came to Her.

A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. CARRIE P. HANNA-FORD, of No. 69 Hale St., Beverly, Mass., who is wellknown socially there, being Treasurer of the Order of the EASTERN STAR, wrote her experience as follows:

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' is, without a doubt, the finest remedy on the market to-day, for female difficulties. I suffered for four years with pains every period, and I dreaded the approach of the time as I knew it meant two or three days' misery. Tried several different widely-advertised remedies, and found that they did me no good whatever. One day a friend called, who had suffered as I was suffering, and who told me that she had been cured through the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, so I purchased a package. I found that the real value of your medicine was greater even than my expectations, and the next month I had hardly any pains. The following month had none at all, and found that my general health was much better and new life and strength had come to me. 'These are the actual facts, and I feel that it is due you that I should write you. Sincerely yours, Mrs. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD." To Hon. R. V. Pierce, M. D.

Young women or matrons should not allow themselves to look sallow and wrinkled because of those pains and weaknesses which become chronic and are the result of colds, tight lacing, and the imprudent care of the womanly system. Many a woman would look beautiful, have a healthy color and bright eyes if it were not for those drains on her strength and those weaknesses which come all too frequently and make her life miserable. There is a ready-to-use Prescription, used a great many years by Dr. R. V. Pierce in his large practice as a Specialist in women's diseases, which is not like the many "patent medicines" on the market, as it contains neither alcohol nor any narcotic. It is purely vegetable.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly disease. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.
