AUTUMN NUPTIALS OF AN EVENING

Miss Harriet Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Berry, weds Charles B. Stevens, of Bethlehem, at the Berry Residence on Canaan Street. Pretty Service Amid Beautiful Surroundings.

Miss Harriet A. Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Berry, and Charles B. Stevens, of Bethlehem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Stevens, of Clay Avenue, Scranton, were wedded last evening at the Berry residence, 13 Canaan street.

The nuptials were celebrated by Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, in the parlor, which was becomingly decorated with palms and ferns and bouquets that suggested the passing autumn. The wedding was exceedingly simple, but beautiful and impressive in its simplicity. The fervent wishes of a large number of immediate friends of the couple accompanied the lighting of the vows. The wedding music was by Miss Alice Belmont, who rendered the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

The bride had no maid, and the groom was likewise unattended. The bride, who is of dignified and stately bearing, was gowned in white silk, with a train of white silk, that added to the charm of her appearance. The reception, with its customary warm-hearted felicitations, followed, and then the bridal party and guests sat at the wedding supper. At 10:01.

Food That Makes It a Pleasure.

"I have a large amount of laborious brain-fatiguing work to do," writes a young lady from Richmond, Va. "After returning from the office, I purchased myself so completely exhausted that I was unable to engage in any recreation or amusement. I tried several expensive tonics without effect, and finally noticed an advertisement of Grape-Nuts as a food recommended to brain workers. I purchased a package and tried it. I found it extremely palatable, and after a week's use (two meals of it a day) I noticed a general improvement in my condition, the feeling of extreme exhaustion was growing less, and strength visibly increased. I began to put on flesh and felt ready to enter into the amusements of the other members of the family, and now, after using the food for eleven months, I am like a new person. I have absolutely no sensation of fatigue; my brain is clear; eyes bright; skin rosy and healthy, and my muscles have strengthened to a marked degree. I am now able to walk from the office home, a distance of 3 1/2 miles, up one of the steepest hills for which our city is famous, and to engage in any amusements that may come in my way, without any sensation of extra fatigue. I am also using your Postum Food Coffee with excellent results. My sister-in-law, who lives in Norwalk, Conn., writes me that she uses it also, and has not suffered from the distressing sick headaches she formerly had." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens departed on the Delaware and Hudson train, on their honeymoon. They will reside at Bethlehem, Pa., where the groom is achieving more than ordinary success in the management of one of the Reis circuit theaters. The usual hearty wishes that such an event calls forth, go to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens from a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Stevens possesses the admiration and warmest friendship of a host of her home people, won by her courtesy and the traits that adorn a womanly character. Mr. Stevens is the son of Prothonotary Samuel Stevens, of the Scranton district of the Superior court. He is a young man, whose business tact and courtesy have placed him on a course that he is sure to direct to bright success. One of his pleasing characteristics is his humor, which he has happily developed. Readers of The Tribune will recall his entertaining sketches, under the title of "The Kidder." Up to a year ago, he was treasurer at the Academy of Music, Scranton. In that capacity, he displayed business qualities that were recognized by his promotion to the handsome Westing opera house at Syracuse, N. Y., perhaps the best in the Reis circuit. A few months ago his merit was further recognized by his being given the substantial position of manager of the Bethlehem theater, recently added to the Reis circuit. In only a few months, Mr. Stevens, through his management, placed the play house on a sound paying basis, thereby justifying the belief of his ability to achieve enduring results. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. L. E. Denslow and daughter Jennie, of Iowa; Mrs. O. L. Griswald and son Charles, of Pottsville, Pa.; George Rockwell, of Newark, N. J.; Miss Frankie Rockwell, Homestead; Miss Elizabeth Barrett, Homestead; Fred Rendall, Pittston; Smith Dennis, Port Jervis, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. George English, East Windsor, N. Y.; Mrs. E. S. Kellogg, New York; Miss Edith Root, Binghamton, and the following from Scranton: Misses Lizzie Kennermer, Edith Ponsel, E. M. Stevens, Frederica Derman; Messrs. Fred Berry, Charles Adams, Harry Reinhart, Walter P. Stevens, J. D. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Derman, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Derman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stevens, and Mesdames M. E. Pratt and E. L. Connel.

CONCERT AT PARISH HOUSE.

An Enjoyable Evening of Music for Benefit of Trinity Organ Fund.

A concert for the benefit of the Trinity church organ fund was held in the Trinity parish house last evening. The concert, which was an exceedingly good one, was well patronized. Mrs. Mattie Hughes Brown, who was to have given a recitation, was unable to appear. Mrs. Baker rendered a piano solo in place of this number, which was very well received. Among those of the younger talent who distinguished themselves were Prof. John Evans at the piano, Hugh Firth with the violin, Miss Isabelle Mitchell with a vocal solo, and Robert Gardner with the violin. Mr. Ralph Williams' solos were artistically rendered. The piano work of Prof. John Evans showed the stamp of musical genius. The programme was as follows: Overture, "Harvest Home" (Tobani), orchestra; vocal solo, "Madrigal" (Victor Harris), Ralph Williams; piano solo, "Mill Wheel" (Boynton Smith), John Evans; violin solo, "La Cenerentola," Master Hugh Firth; quartette, "Tis Morn'" (Gieble), Misses Mitchell and Over, Messrs. Rowson and Shepherd; vocal solo, "The Danza" (Chadwick), Miss Mitchell; quartette, "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," Messrs. Clark, Roe, Thomas and Shepherd; piano solo, Mrs. Baker; vocal solo, Ralph Williams; vocal solo (selected), Master Kenneth Smith; violin solo, "Andante" (Dancla), Robert Gardner; vocal solo, "Morning Song" (by "Evening" (Langdon), from Song Cycle "Summer Time," Ralph Williams; overture, "Finale from Naxos" (Ramin), orchestra.

MUNICIPAL WATER SUIT.

Committee with Mayor to Consider Its Appeal to the Supreme Court. Select Council Doings.

After a somewhat prolonged period of rest and quiet, there was an echo last night of the long-drawn fight for municipal ownership of water Carbondale. At the meeting of select council city Clerk Moon suggested that the matter of the appeal from the decision of Judge Halsey against the construction of the proposed water plant, was as yet undisposed of. The common council resolution directing the appeal to be taken was still in his hands.

Resolatory discussion followed in the course of which it was brought out that the matter will be the subject tonight of a joint conference of the judiciary committee, Mayor O'Neil and City Solicitor Stuart. It is likely that the conference will recommend some action, either for or against an appeal. Council passed finally the Barrett lighting ordinance, which as published a few weeks ago, provides for two scores or more incandescent street lights covering the whole city. This very comprehensive measure will now go over to common council.

A communication was read from Mayor Treasurer Connor, appointing himself as collector of delinquent taxes, as customary. The appointment was confirmed forthwith. The only other business was the reference to committee of the mayor's veto of the resolution granting permission to James Dratto to make a sewer connection with his property on Hospital street.

NO FOOT BALL GAME.

Indians Couldn't Leave Positions to Go to Scranton.

The Indians were compelled through force of circumstances to disappoint the All-Scranton team yesterday. The management of both elevens arranged for a game at Athletic park, Scranton, yesterday, which it was hoped could come off. It was the eager wish of every one of the Indians to go into the game as it was believed the Scranton players were as strong and swift as might be met this season. When a majority of the team, however, endeavored to seek a leave of absence for the day they were confronted with the danger of causing some friction with their employers, so they abandoned the idea of getting away, though with the greatest reluctance. It was a source of keenest regret to have to disappoint the Scranton eleven, but there was naught else to do. The second game in which the Indians were disappointed this season. The other was at Athens on Saturday, when a patched team was sent rather than disappoint the throng that was awaiting the contest. The fact of the minor details working so steadily makes it hard for them to be so employed to lay off to follow the sport. This it is feared will prevent the Indians from playing but exceedingly few games on the grid-iron this year.

LAI D AT REST.

Funeral Services Over the Late Mrs. George Lewsley.

The late Mrs. George Lewsley was laid at rest in Maplewood cemetery yesterday afternoon with every showing of respect and love. Though the funeral was private, there was an attendance of close friends of the family that filled the residence on High street. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen, pastor of the Berean Baptist church. In his eulogy of the departed woman, he dwelt on her long life of usefulness and her steadfast devotion to the church of which she had so long been a member. Several friends to whom the deceased was especially dear expressed their remembrance in beautiful floral offerings.

The pall-bearers were E. M. Peck, Frank Colwell, William Uimer, James Smith, Charles Kase and Nicholas Moon, Jr. The floral pieces were carried by George Benton, M. E. Wilcox and William Shannon.

Changed to Scranton.

George F. James, who has been in charge of the Western Union telegraph office on North Main street, has been given an advanced position in the Scranton office of the Delaware and Hudson company. Mr. James, however, will not make his residence in the Electric city, his position permitting him to go to and from Scranton each day.

Connolly & Wallace

Scranton's Shopping Center

The store that serves you best today is the store that expects to serve you in the future. It can't afford to sell a poor thing.

If you come to Connolly & Wallace's once you will come again. And that is perhaps the greatest test of a store—does it hold its customers?

Exquisite Small Furs

One hundred and fifty different styles of boas—it's likely you'll not find half that number in all the other stores in Scranton. We're never content with what the makers show us—there's some little change or other that would improve the looks or make the fur more comfortable. We suggest these changes—have them made for us alone, and that's one reason why we do most of the fur business in town.

A Remarkable Jacket for Women

A cheviot jacket lined throughout with satin, well tailored, with velvet collar and cuffs; 26 inches long, $10. And we've had some, not so good, for $13.50. But there are not many—only fifty. If you want the best coat $10.00 ever bought, this is that coat.

Women's Union Suits

It would be a waste of space to tell women the advantages of the union suit—they know how it does away with the folds at the waist, how it gives perfect freedom, and how it distributes the strain so that you don't feel it anywhere. But perhaps you don't know that we have made a great effort this year to get an unusual variety of these garments. The variety is not only in the kinds of material and in the price, but in the large range of sizes—and a union suit must fit or you will soon become disgusted with it. 50c to $6.50 a suit.

Baby Coats...

In the Baby Department are all sorts of warm coats for very little people. Long white coats for wee babies, $2 to $17.50, made of Bedford cord, cashmere and silk, and lined with soft wadding—just the things that babies would choose for themselves if they could. Short coats in 2, 3 and 4 year sizes. Some of them dainty white, pink and blue, coats of silk, Bedford cord and cashmere, $2 to $10. Others for sturdier wear—red, blue, tan, green; mostly box coats, with or without capes, $4 to $10. A few aristocrats of velvet and silk, with collars of lace and batiste, $4.50 to $11. There couldn't be a better place to get pretty winter things for the babies.

Domet Flannel Night Shirts, 50c

Longer and larger across the chest than the usual 50c night shirt, better material and better stitched and finished. Take it home to your wife or mother; she'll soon see the difference. The maker threw up his hands when we told him all the things we wanted changed, but the larger order brought him around. Not enough to last through the winter—and we can't get more at this price.

Underwear And Hosiery

The winter stock is most extensive and complete—for men, women and children. The underwear is made to fit—largely made to our order upon tested patterns by good makers. Fix your own price and you will give you the best the money can purchase, or select your quality and you may be sure the price is right.

have been asked to remind the parents of the fact that it is most important that they should be present, because if the children are not excused, the board has no alternative but to enforce the law, which is not a pleasant task for the board. They have, however, received instructions that the law must be enforced, and will have to do their duty.

Miss Robinson, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Willmar, for the past fortnight, will return to her home at Middletown, Conn., today.

A rumor was in circulation last evening that Mrs. Andrew Carter, of Carbondale, a former Jermyrn resident, had died. From a relative, we learned that the rumor was untrue. Mrs. Carter is, however, very seriously ill.

Old Stories Retold.

People never tire of hearing the oft-repeated story of the success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. From all over the country and even in far away India, China and the South Sea Islands come letters from druggists and dealers, stating the rare pleasure they derive from handling a preparation which gives such universal satisfaction. They all tell the same story of the undoubted merit of this remedy, and of its efficacy in the relief of coughs, colds and croup, and personally recommend it to their customers. The remedy is sold on a positive guarantee and has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. For sale by all druggists.

ENGAGED.

Marriage is very largely an accident. In few cases do men or women set up a standard of manly or womanly excellence and choose by it. In most cases people become engaged as the result of opportunity rather than because of any deep-rooted preference. And so it often happens that the wife enters upon the obligations of matrimony as thoughtlessly as she entered on the marriage relation, because no one has pointed out to her the dangers she faces. Thousands of women become invalids for lack of knowledge of themselves. It is to this large body of women that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and a vital of his Pleasant Pellets, which I used directed, in four days, is a priceless boon, because it cures womanly ills. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heats and purifies the system, cures all female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"After my first child was born," writes Mrs. Jordan Smith, of Fawcett, Frederick Co., Va., "my health was very poor for a long time, and last winter I was so bad with pain down my back I could hardly move without great suffering. My husband got me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and a vital of his Pleasant Pellets, which I used directed, in four days, I was greatly relieved, and now, after using the medicine three months, I seem to be entirely well. I can't see why it is that there are so many suffering women when there is such an easy way to be cured. I know your medicines are the best in the world." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the favorite remedy for "Obstinate Constipation," a laxative, two "Pellets" a cathartic dose.
