

The News of Carbondale.

A GENEROUS SPIRIT.

Broad-Minded Acceptance of Defeat by Hon. P. A. Philbin—Pays a Warm Tribute to His Successful Opponent, Hon. P. J. White.

The deep-seated admiration which is cherished throughout this district for Hon. P. A. Philbin—feeling that recalls both among Republicans and Democrats—is certain to grow after reading the broad-minded editorial in Mr. Philbin's paper, the Arch-Bald Citizen, of Saturday.

It is somewhat refreshing to see a candidate show such a generous spirit in accepting defeat as does Mr. Philbin, and to pay such a warm-hearted tribute, as his, to a successful opponent. Those who know Mr. Philbin, however, will say that the following is characteristic of his honest, generous nature. The editorial reads:

Hail and Farewell.

Greetings to the new member of the assembly from the Fourth district—the Honorable P. J. White. A warm welcome among those who profited by the avalanche which overtook the Republican party in Carbondale county last Tuesday. And a warm farewell to the Honorable P. A. Philbin, who has been an excellent fighter. He conducted a clean and manly campaign and it should be a credit to his opponent if it should be a result of his defeat. He has been one of the ablest representatives of the Republican party in this district, and his record in the assembly is a credit to his party.

The Republican candidate cannot afford to neglect the voters who are in the hands of the Democrats and who are in the hands of the Democrats. He should be a man who is willing to be beaten by a man who is willing to be beaten. He should be a man who is willing to be beaten by a man who is willing to be beaten. He should be a man who is willing to be beaten by a man who is willing to be beaten.

Another feature of the election which is gratifying to the editor is the vote he received in his district. He received a vote that has always honored him with its confidence. To have beaten such a stalwart Democrat as Professor White, in a Democratic stronghold, was the best thing to winning the election. To the people of this town the Editor is very grateful. He is not vain enough to look upon his vote as a personal tribute to any sense but rather as an evidence of their appreciation of his efforts to give them a first-class newspaper and a first-class editor. He is not vain enough to look upon his vote as a personal tribute to any sense but rather as an evidence of their appreciation of his efforts to give them a first-class newspaper and a first-class editor.

CARL DOESIGER CANED.

Germania Society Honors Its Treasurer on Birthday Anniversary.

A wholly unexpected demonstration of the good-will and esteem of the Germania members was given Carl Doesiger, of South Wyoming street, manager of the Germania brewery of the Pennsylvania Central Brewing company. The occasion was his birthday anniversary on Thursday last.

In the evening, President of the Germania members assembled at the Germania residence. President Louis Brunner headed the jolly delegation. The purpose of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Doesiger by President Brunner of a handsome silver watch and a substantial remembrance of the society for Mr. Doesiger's services.

After the presentation, there was a renewal of the hearty social enjoyment of the evening, which was followed by a luncheon.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

A Well Run place.

At a children's home in Fort Wayne, Ind., they have entirely abandoned coffee because of its bad effect on it.

Mrs. M. B. Goshorn, who is the mistress, is meeting with grand success. She was compelled four years ago to discontinue the use of coffee and after making several experiments concluded that Postum filled the bill and has used it ever since.

She has charged a family of children numbering from 22 to 30 and writes us: "I give Postum Food Coffee freely, using no coffee at all. The children are always well; we have had no sickness for two years, except such as they contract at school like whooping cough, measles, etc. No bilious attacks, no fevers, no skin diseases. The children are all plump and in good condition. Clear complexions, no sallow or muddy looking faces, such as result from the use of coffee. We always make Postum strictly according to directions and it gives pleasure and health to all."

FELL FROM TRESTLE.

Frank Gordon, Aged 14, of Powderly Road, in a Critical Condition Since Saturday, as the Consequence of the Fall of Thirty-five Feet.

Frank Gordon, aged 14 years, whose home is on Powderly road, is in a dangerous condition, the consequence of a fall from a trestle on Saturday. He was severely injured internally, and since the happening has suffered weakening losses of blood through hemorrhages of the stomach and head. There is no telling, at this time, what the ultimate result will be.

The accident happened about noon on Saturday. Gordon was on the trestle leading to the Powderly chutes, in company with several playmates. Just how the lad fell has not been positively determined, as there are contradictory stories of the happening. Some say that he was engaged in a friendly bout with a companion, who accidentally pushed him. Another story is that the boy was picking coal, and losing his balance tumbled off.

The distance to the ground is fully thirty-five feet. Gordon was unconscious when he reached. He was carried to his home, whither Dr. J. A. Kelly was hurriedly called, as there were fears that the lad was dying. He was vomiting blood, and there was also an issue from his ears.

Dr. Kelly, not in consultation with Dr. W. H. Dixon and Dr. J. J. Thompson. While no positive diagnosis was made, the indications were that there was a rupture of some character in the head, though there are no physical signs of injury. Yesterday the patient showed some little improvement, but he is not out of danger. He regained consciousness after being removed to his home and he has not since lost possession of his senses. There is danger, however, of complications and it will not be known for four or five days what the fate of the boy may be.

HIGH DEATH RATE.

Twenty-five Deaths in Carbondale During October.

The report of vital statistics of Secretary Russell Stephens, of the board of health, presented to the board at its meeting Friday night, show a high mortality rate in this city for the month of October. Twenty-five deaths occurred. This is an increase of five over the month of September, and seven over the month of October last year. The deaths were divided among the wards as follows: First, 7; Second, 2; Third, 2; Fourth, 8; Fifth, 2; Sixth, 2.

The rest of the report is as follows: Causes of deaths: Whooping cough, 2; tuberculosis, pulmonary, 1; chronic bronchitis, 2; pneumonia, 1; stillborn, 1; marasmus, 1; valvular disease of heart, 1; diphtheria (group), 1; typhoid accident, 1; bronchitis, 1; typhoid fever, 1; neural disease, 1; tuberculosis, 1; meningitis, 1; convulsions, 2; fatty degeneration of the heart, 1; membranous croup, 1; cancer of liver, 1; enteric colitis, 1; phthisis, 1; pyelitis suppression urine, 1; heart failure superinduced by alcoholism, 1.

Four bodies were brought into the city and one taken out of the city for internment. Internments in the city were as follows: St. Rose cemetery, 22; Maplewood, 5; Brookside, 1; total, 27. Contagious diseases were reported as follows: First ward, membranous croup, 1; diphtheria, 2; Second ward, diphtheria, 1. Fifth ward, diphtheria, 2.

Of six substances reported to the sanitary officer, three were abated and three are underway. Three dead animals were buried by the street department during the month.

OFFER OF FREE SITE.

Contractor John Smith, Grants a Lot on Upper Belmont Street.

That there is a spirit of willing cooperation among Carbondalians in the matter of the leather factory which Isaac Singer and his brother, Attorney Henry K. Singer, of New York city, are endeavoring to bring to this city, is indicated by the offer of Contractor John Smith, of Spring street, to give a free site to the industry.

Free Distribution FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE WHO HAVE NOT TESTED THE VIRTUES OF Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and are unfamiliar with its merits, arrangements have been made for a FREE DISTRIBUTION OF SAMPLE BOTTLES, from the drug stores of this city. Ask for Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and convince yourself of its wonderful value.

Kidney Disease, Female Weakness and the other conditions for which it is recommended, and for which it has been used with such success in this locality.

The rare display of these brightly colored flowers, which came from the conservatory of Hon. E. E. Hendrick, and was immensely pleased with the musical entertainment and the social diversions of the evening. The ladies are deeply grateful for the generous response of the public.

THE HONSDALE GAME.

Neither Side Scored in the Maple City-Anthrax Contest.

The newly organized Anthrax football team went from this city to Honsdale on Saturday and in a game with the crackerjack (?) eleven of Millerville, with but one good practice, took all the honors of the contest.

The Anthracites did not come back with a victory, for neither side scored, but they came back satisfied that they had by far the best of the day. With one week's faithful practice the Honsdale eleven would meet the fate of a section of nine pie set before a hungry newsboy. Perhaps they will get an opportunity to prove this, this very week, as arrangements are under way for a game in this city on Thursday.

In the two fifteen-minute halves, the ball was near the Carbondale line but once. Even then it was not a heart-breaking moment for any reason. During the rest of the day, Carbondale kept the ball in Honsdale territory, and at one time was within an ace of a touchdown.

The Anthracites had miserable luck in handling the ball, fumbles crowding each other. The lack of practice was wholly responsible. Some of the Carbondale players had not even played in practice and they were not onto the signals. Hadgins, the star of the Indians, was one of these, as it was only Saturday morning that it was decided he must substitute for Roche, who was unable to go.

The comparatively poor showing that Honsdale made, having had abundant practice, is an indication that the cancellers are not in the fast foot ball class.

NO MORE MULES.

Farmers Will Go on Strike if Asked to Have Them as Boarders.

Mr. Mine Mule can make up his mind that he cannot pay any more in the town lots of Welsh Hill, Elkdale or Clifton. When he went out there this summer, during the strike, he seemed to have forgotten how to eat grass; his long stay underground weaned him from nibbling the green whiskers of the earth and he couldn't be coaxed to cut any laws with his teeth. On the contrary, he gave evidences of his early training by making for trees, fences, tie-posts, or anything that looked like a mine prop, a sprag or a piece of cribbing. Even heifers were preferred to the grass of Susquehanna. These days of Mr. Mine Mule were not hunkered after by the farmers who boarded the frisky animals, and there will be a strike among our rural friends before they will consent to act as host of any more mules from the mines. The Montrose Republican expresses the feeling of indignation that is rampant over the village cut-up tricks of the mules who rusticated in Susquehanna county last summer. Says the Republican:

"No people outside the striking miners are gladder to see the strike settled than are those who pastured mine mules for the companies in the vicinity of Welsh Hill, Elkdale and Clifton. The mules destroyed the trees by eating the bark as high as they could reach, knocked down stone walls, fence posts in such a manner as to allow the wire on the barb wire fences to fall, destroyed crops and even killed domestic animals, besides making themselves general nuisances. While the price paid for keeping them was fair, it is doubtful if any who have kept them this summer could be hired to do so again."

Swiftwinds Benten.

The Swiftwinds went to Dunmore and were beaten by a head wind from that borough. The score was close, 5-0. It was a good game throughout. A few bad fumbles prevented the Swiftwinds from scoring. Dick Monahan, of the Swiftwinds, played a star game.

John Misko Released.

John Misko, who was arrested at Jersey on Saturday, on the charge of having murdered a man at Pottstown, has been released. Investigation on the part of Detective Connors revealed the fact that he was not the John Misko wanted for the Pottstown murder.

Death of a Former Resident.

Mrs. Lister, wife of Thomas E. Lister, a former well known Carbondale resident, died at her home in Thompson last week. Mr. Lister, who has passed his eighty-fifth year, is now all alone.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR.

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough. That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a bottle to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

Connolly & Wallace Scranton's Shopping Center

The store that serves you best today is the store that expects to serve you in the future. It can't afford to sell a poor thing. If you come to Connolly & Wallace's once you will come again. And that is perhaps the greatest test of a store—does it hold its customers?

Exquisite Small Furs

One hundred and fifty different styles of boas—it's likely you'll not find half that number in all the other stores in Scranton.

We're never content with what the makers show us—there's some little change or other that would improve the looks or make the fur more comfortable. We suggest these changes—have them made for us alone, and that's one reason why we do most of the fur business in town.

Women's Union Suits

It would be a waste of space to tell women the advantages of the union suit—they know how it does away with the folds at the waist, how it gives perfect freedom, and how it distributes the strain so that you don't feel it anywhere.

But perhaps you don't know that we have made a great effort this year to get an unusual variety of these garments. The variety is not only in the kinds of material and in the price, but in the large range of sizes—and a union suit must fit or you will soon become disgusted with it. 50c to $6.50 a suit.

Domet Flannel Night Shirts, 50c

Longer and larger across the chest than the usual 50c night shirt, better material and better stitched and finished. Take it home to your wife or mother, she'll soon see the difference.

The maker threw up his hands when we told him all the things we wanted changed, but the larger order brought him around.

Not enough to last through the winter—and we can't get more at this price.
