

More Cleaners and More TALK ABOUT EYES

Yesterday I had the pleasure of seeing 87 men and women in my Optical Parlors. My office boy said it was his busiest day yet. I gave away 87 of those beautiful and useful eye-glass cleaners, gave them free of charge. Regularly they cost 10c a piece. This means an outlay of $8.70 besides the cost of the advertisement. Was it worth the money? I should say. I made the acquaintance of 87 ladies and gentlemen, all nice ones, too. They inspected my parlors and said they were the best equipped they ever saw. Why didn't you come? I hope to see you today. You will get your eye-glass cleaner free for today, too. There are about 4,000 left, so don't worry. I will be pleased to see you. How about your eyes? Too much sewing, too much reading? Oh, no; eye-strain is the cause of it. Proper glasses will relieve the strain.

Do I repair broken frames? Do I renew broken lenses? I certainly do. Work will be all right—prices are all right, too. One change covers the entire cost of examination, glasses and frames.

In and About The City.

His Hip Lacerated. Fred Perak, an employe at the American Locomotive works, had his hip lacerated yesterday, while at work. His injuries were dressed at the Lackawanna hospital.

Florence Crittenden Mission. Donation days on Thursday and Friday this week at the Florence Crittenden Mission, 712 Harrison avenue. Among the things especially acceptable may be mentioned flour, potatoes, canned goods, butter, lard, soap, blankets, and muslin rags for carpets.

Signed by Recorder. Recorder Council yesterday signed the ordinance providing for a transfer of a certain balance in the printing and stationary appropriation of the department of public safety and the resolution extending the congregation of St. Paul's church in South Scranton from the payment of a sewer assessment. Burkhouse May Recover. It was stated at the Hahnemann hospital last night that Joseph Burkhouse, whose skull was fractured by a Lackawanna train on Monday night, has a fair chance of recovery. His condition was somewhat improved yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Brannon Arrested. Mrs. Mary Brannon, of 114 Providence road, was last night arrested at the instance of her husband on a charge of threatening to kill. She was lodged in the central police station and will be given a hearing before Magistrate Miller this evening.

Police Vacations Resumed. The members of the police force were forced to forego their usual summer vacations in the city during the coal strike. The schedule of vacations has accordingly been changed and goes into effect beginning this week, each man being given ten days' leave with pay.

Civil Service Examinations. The civil service commission announces that on December 9, they will hold an examination for photographic assistants in the Smithsonian Institution, on December 9 and 10 an examination for attendant and skilled photographer at the United States Marine Hospital at Washington Point and on the same dates for architectural designer.

TEN MORE WORD BUILDERS. That Number Sent Lists to The Tribune Yesterday.

Ten more lists of words were received at The Tribune office yesterday which were in accordance with the rules of its Junior Educational Contest. There were other lists that also reached the office, but they were sent back to their makers because they deviated in some important particular from the instructions printed. One of the rules says: "Prizes will be given to the boys or girls, whose parents or guardians are subscribers to The Tribune, building the largest number of words out of the letters contained in 'The Home Paper.' This condition is easily met. If an aspirant for a Christmas present really believes he stands a show to win it by having a good list of words he should be able to induce his parents or guardians to so act as to place his eligibility beyond question."

Yesterday's contributions raised the total number of lists received to sixty-five, which is nearly six a day since the contest opened. Very few if any of this number have gotten all the words that can be gathered under the rules, so a favorable opportunity is open to any one to carry away some fine cash prizes. Yesterday's word builders were: Margaret Evans, Vandling, Pa. John Evans, Vandling, Pa. Mariel Waters, Copenhagen, N. Y. Bessie Forsyth, Hartford, Pa. Annabelle Stanton, 116 Franklin avenue. Edith C. Rogers, Brooklyn, Pa. Walter Reese, 141 South Elmoro avenue. Lynn Forsyth, Hartford, Pa. Willie Mihles, Peckville, Pa. Beth Reynolds, 41 Washington street, Carbondale.

REPORTS OF CONVENTION.

Were Heard at Yesterday's Meeting of the W. C. T. U.

The greater part of the meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held yesterday afternoon was taken up by reports of the national convention held at Portland, Maine. Mrs. Van Wormer read extracts from President Stevens' speech, in which she spoke of the effort being made to repeal the anti-liquor law and urging redoubled efforts on the part of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to prevent such action. Pennsylvania ranks third in the list of states in the gain of membership during the year, the increase being 517. Several of the states have doubled their membership. Every state in the union now has scientific temperance laws. The president of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Rebecca Chambers, said: "The eyes of all the world have been turned upon Pennsylvania during the past year. This is indeed the Keystone state, the Quaker state and the Governor Stone state."

Miss Raub read extracts from Lady Henry Somerset's reply to the addresses of welcome. The meeting was full of interest throughout. Next Tuesday an evangelistic meeting will be held.

PETER BLOES KILLED.

Member of Thirteenth Regiment Struck by Train Yesterday. Peter Bloes, aged 22 years, of Forest City, was struck by a Delaware and Hudson locomotive midway between Carbondale and Mayfield stations yesterday morning and was instantly killed.

The young man was standing on a bridge which crosses a narrow gauge railroad running from Powderly's slope and failed to hear the approach of a switch engine which was backing down the track. He was run over and frightfully mangled. Coroner Saltry was notified and after making an investigation decided an inquest to be unnecessary. Bloes was a member of Company E, of the Thirteenth regiment and served during the recent tour of duty of that command.

KINISKY WAS SHOT.

Seriously Injured While at Work in the Mt. Pleasant. Joseph Kinisky, age 28 years, who resides at 119 Bridge street, was engaged in blasting coal in the Mt. Pleasant mine yesterday and had charged the hole with powder. After waiting a reasonable length of time for the explosion he concluded that the fuse had failed to ignite the powder.

Just as he returned to the chamber the explosion occurred and Kinisky was "shot," as the miners put it. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital where it was learned that his injuries consisted of a scalp wound and other slight injuries. His condition is not serious.

THE UNION SERVICE.

It Will Be Held on Thanksgiving in Grace Lutheran Church. The congregations of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal, Penn Avenue Baptist, Grace Reformed Episcopal and Grace Lutheran churches will unite this year, as is their usual custom, in a union Thanksgiving service to be conducted in the new Grace Lutheran church at the corner of Prescott avenue and Mulberry street. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. C. M. Griffin, pastor of the Elm Park church, and the choirs of the several churches will unite in furnishing special music.

DIVORCE CASE BEFORE A JURY

HEARD YESTERDAY IN JUDGE EDWARDS' COURT.

Mrs. Noll Resists Her Husband's Effort to Secure Separation on the Ground of Desertion—Verdicts Rendered in a Number of Cases—Former City Employes Sue Under the Eight-Hour Law—Diamond Land and Improvement Company Institutes Equity Proceedings.

The divorce case of William Noll against Elizabeth Noll was heard yesterday by Judge Edwards and a jury in the main court room. H. S. Alworth represented the libellant, and L. P. Wedeman and Frank E. Boyle, the respondent.

Desertion is the ground for the action. The respondent resists on the ground that there was no desertion. She does not, seemingly, care to live with him, but is desirous of preventing him from being freed from contributing to the support of herself and their 7-year-old daughter. They were married by ex-Alderman Frederick Fuller, Sept. 9, 1874. The alleged desertion took place July 7, 1894.

At the time of the marriage the husband worked in the Dickson works boiler shop. He was not steadily employed and at the time of the marriage was idle. After living together at a boarding house for one day, it was agreed that they should live with their respective parents until the husband secured employment. He went to live with his mother on Hickory street, South Scranton, and she went to the home of her mother in West Scranton.

Three months later, when he got a steady job, he waited upon her and asked her to join him at his mother's home, which she did. Two months later, he again got a steady job, and she went to live with her mother, but not quite so joyously, suggested to his wife that she take the place.

Just what happened after this is in dispute, but the upshot of it was that she returned to her mother's home and stayed there. He never took umbrage at his suggestion and quit him, and that he called on her repeatedly to return to him. She says they had a quarrel, that he drove her out and pitched her clothes into the street. She denied that he afterwards tried to get her to return. The case was in the jury's hands at adjourning time.

The case of George Van Scooter against Patrick McAndrews was also tried before Judge Edwards. The parties are brothers-in-law and live in North Scranton. The plaintiff sued for $200 weekly board at $4 a week. The defendant admits he lived at the Van Scooter home, but claims it was as a guest of his sister. The jury was out at adjourning time. H. S. Alworth represented the plaintiff, Cornelius Conneys and W. S. Bevan appeared for the defendant.

Judge Kelly, in the Superior court room, is engaged in the trial of the case of the Cerebral Manufacturing company against Anthracite Beer company. The plaintiff sues for $200 worth of cerealine furnished the defendant at Kingston in 1900. The defense is an offset, it being claimed that the plaintiff damaged the defendant to the extent of $1,000 by an unwarranted sheriff's seizure.

It appears that when the defendant company was about to move from Kingston to Scranton, the plaintiff got an idea that it was about to fail and got out an attachment. The brewery was consequently, in the hands of the sheriff for two days, and the brewery lost $1,000 worth of business, so it is alleged. George M. Okell is attorney for the plaintiff. Hon. C. P. O'Malley, of Willard, Warren & Knapp, and John B. Jordan represent the defense.

The case of Adam Fasshold against the late Adam Fasshold estate was given to the jury by Judge Kelly, yesterday morning. No verdict had been returned at adjourning time.

In the wage case of W. H. Westgate against F. J. Johnson, the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $29.29. A verdict of $7 for the plaintiff was returned in the case of the Larkin Soap company against George W. Brown.

The case of E. M. Casterline against Arthur Williams and others was reported settled, leaving only four cases yet to be tried this week.

Hearing Strike Cases.

The grand jury yesterday heard a large number of riot and assault and battery cases growing out of the strike, and the strike case in which Ullan Glavin is charged with attempting to dynamite the home of Andrew Lazar, in Kellerman court, Sept. 27. The jury will be in session all week and probably part of next week.

Extra Pay Is Demanded.

The suits of James T. White and D. O. Thomas against the city of Scranton were yesterday referred to ex-Judge J. W. Carpenter by agreement of M. A. McFlinn representing the plaintiffs, and City Solicitor George M. Watson, representing the defense. The plaintiffs are ex-employees at the

NURSING MOTHERS

A mother's poor health is bad enough for the mother but worse still for the nursing baby.

Mothers find Scott's Emulsion a nourishing and strengthening food. If the breast milk is scanty or thin Scott's Emulsion will make it rich and more abundant.

When mothers take Scott's Emulsion the babies share in the benefits. Thin babies grow fat. Weak babies get strong.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 429 Pearl street, New York.

AN EASY WAY To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health. The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Wischold gives pretty good advice on this subject; he says: "I am 68 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one, but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort; on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves, but daily for the past eight years I have made it a practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my robust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of the Stuart's Tablets."

My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine, but contained only the natural digestives, pepsines and diastase and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice. I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and ailing and preserves health to the well and strong."

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized pkgs. at 50 cents, and for a weak stomach a fifty-cent package will often do fifty dollars worth of good.

While there they were required to work ten hours a day. They are a statute providing that eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all persons working for the city. The law was passed in 1897 while they were in the city's employ, but for nearly two years they continued to work ten hours. When they were discharged in 1899 they brought suit for pay for the extra two hours.

Land Company Complains.

Equity proceedings were instituted yesterday by the Diamond Land and Improvement company, through its general manager, Hermann Barling, to prevent the city of Scranton and Contractor M. H. Dale from turning water from Providence road on to the company's tract.

In grading the street and making other improvements preparatory to laying the Providence road pave, a natural water course and sewage is being diverted and directed upon the complainant's land, bordering on Providence road, and that by reason of these acts great injury will be done.

O'Brien & Martin and John T. Lenahan represent the plaintiff.

In the Orphans' Court.

In the orphans' court yesterday Judge A. A. Vosburg heard several audits and disposed of a number of motions in the estate of Rev. G. M. Peck, deceased. The audit was continued until November 22. In the estate of Sabina Mathias, deceased, evidence was taken to show to whom distribution should be made under the terms of the will. George S. Horn, appeared for the estate.

In the matter of William Mosier, deceased, evidence was taken to support the distribution of the fund and decision was reserved. T. F. Wells and George S. Horn, appeared for the parties in interest. The evidence in the estate of F. J. Thompson, deceased, was not concluded but will be finished on November 22 at 10 a. m.

A large amount of evidence was taken in the estate of Cornelius Compton, deceased, upon the exceptions filed to the account of J. J. Compton the administrator. It is claimed that the administrator did not account for all of the money which came into his hands, and it is also alleged that the money received by him from the D. L. & W. R. R. Mutual Aid society and the Switchmen's union formed no part of the estate and should not have been accounted for as such. The exceptions argue that this money belonged to the son of the decedent and is not therefore available for the payment of debts. Several claims were also presented, the largest one being by the accountant for the estate and should not have been accounted for as such. The exceptions argue that this money belonged to the son of the decedent and is not therefore available for the payment of debts.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

The case of J. J. Neil against Mrs. M. H. Lewis was yesterday discontinued by agreement of C. B. Gardner and Charles E. Daniels, attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant, respectively. Still another flood suit was instituted yesterday by Attorney A. A. Chase. The plaintiff is Mrs. Hannah Nape, of South Washington avenue flats, and the defendants are the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Railway company and the Scranton Steel company.

MOSCOW MASONS CELEBRATE.

Commemoration of the Washington Sesqui-Centennial. The Moscow Masons last night had a banquet in commemoration of the sesqui-centennial of Washington's initiation.

The principal speaker was President Judge H. M. Edwards, who had for his subject "Modern Knights."

COMMISSION MEETS FRIDAY

SESSIONS WILL BE HELD IN SUPERIOR COURT ROOM.

They Will Open at 10 O'clock Friday Morning—Sessions from 10 Until 12:30 and from 2 Until 4:30 Each Day—The Big Companies Will Each Be Represented by Attorneys as Will the Mine Workers and Non-Union Men—Hearings Will Be Public.

Members of the strike commission, officials and attorneys of the operators and mine workers and a raft of witnesses summoned by the latter, together with a small army of newspaper men will commence to flock here tomorrow for the opening of the session of the commission Friday.

The commissioners have engaged fourteen rooms after this or the other of Hotel Jermyn for an indefinite period. Bishop Spaulding, who went to Washington, Saturday, to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Catholic university will return today and will be the guest of Bishop Hoban. Mr. Watkins is in New York on business but will return today.

Each of the big companies will have its own lawyers to represent it at the hearings and the independent operators, besides, will have counsel. A number of local lawyers have been retained to look after one or the other of the parties. Ex-Judge Alfred H. H. and J. E. Burr will be associated with the general counsel of the Ontario and Western company, John B. Kerr, James H. Torrey will be associated with W. O. Wilcox, vice president and general counsel of the Delaware and Hudson company. Major Everett Warren will look after the Erie company's interests. Joseph O'Brien and John T. Lenahan have been engaged to present the case of the non-union mine employes.

On the side of the mine workers there will be Messrs. Woyland Darrow, James L. Lenahan, John and James Shea, of Wilkes-Barre and John J. Murphy, of this city.

The session will begin at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the superior court room of the county court house. The hours of the sittings will be from 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 2 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. The hearings will be public but because of the limited space in the court room it is expected that the general public will be content to get the story of the proceedings from the newspapers.

Attorneys Darrow and Lloyd, of Chicago, and John F. Shea, of Wilkes-Barre; National Board Member John Fallon, accompanied by Morgan R. Adams, assistant superintendent of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company, made a tour of the No. 5, South Wilkes-Barre mines, Monday. The purpose of their trip into the mines was to secure data concerning the pay, the hours of labor and the conditions under which the miners earn a livelihood. The South Wilkes-Barre mine is one of the most gaseous in the region.

THEY DIDN'T SURRENDER.

Men Who Accidentally Shot Myers Have Probably Skipped. Tony Jordan and Tony Ambrosia, the two young men who were firing at a target near which Harry Myers passed when he was fatally shot last Sunday did not surrender yesterday to the police as it was expected they would and efforts to locate them were unsuccessful. Their friends believe that they have left the city because of the fear that a serious charge will be lodged against them. As the shooting appears to have been purely accidental it is believed that they would be held on any more serious charge than that of discharging fire-arms.

TOTAL VOTE FOR SENATOR.

Galpin Had a Plurality in Both Counties of 4,172. The official computation of the vote for senator in the Twentieth district was made yesterday at Prothonotary John Copeland's office by Deputy Prothonotary John F. Cummings, and Robert E. Donaghey, of Wilkes-Barre, commissioners appointed by the respective courts of the two counties.

The computation showed Galpin to have a plurality of 4,172. Jordan's total vote was 12,027, and Galpin's 18,199. Crocker, Prohibitionist, received a total of 792.

In the Luzerne end of the district Galpin received 1,861 votes, and Jordan 1,299. The Prohibitionists in the Luzerne end—Plains, Miner's Mills, Marcy, Pittston township and the region round—rolled up a total vote of 88.

CARRIE MUST KEEP STRAIGHT.

If She Does Not, Alderman Miller Will Deal with Her. It has been rumored during the last few days that the redoubtable Carrie Nation is planning a descent on this city in the near future. If she comes here she is promised a warm reception by Magistrate W. S. Miller.

"There will be no saloon smashing or anything of that sort permitted in the Eighth ward," said he yesterday, "if this woman strikes the town. I have instructed my officers to keep their watch eyes peeled for her if she comes here, and if she tries to snatch cigarettes out of people's mouths, or starts in to do up any of the licensed saloons, she will be arrested and will be dealt severely with by me."

The Usual FALL REDUCTIONS in Prices Have Been Made. As is our custom at this season of the year, we have reduced the prices on all lines of Wall Paper. This is done in order to make room for the new Spring styles that will be coming in soon. Our reduction sale of the early Summer cleaned up the entire stock of Spring patterns, leaving the shelves ready for the Fall styles. It is these fall styles on which we have now reduced prices. In some patterns there is for one room; in others, enough for two or three rooms. The assortment includes L'Art Nouveau, Floral, Verdure, Scenic, Damask and Leather effects.

Carpets and Rugs. Every season produces its new designs in floor coverings. Each succeeding line of patterns show evidences of more care in designing and weaving. It has taken months to gather together the excellent assortment to which we invite your attention today. We are perfectly safe in saying that never before has such a variety of rich patterns been shown on any carpet floor of Scranton. You can easily spend a whole day in looking through this department, and yet so carefully and systematically are the various styles and qualities arranged, that if you have formed the slightest idea of the kind of floor covering you desire, we can easily and quickly show it to you.
