BURKE ARRESTED.

Carbondalian Known as "Topsy" Burke Taken in Schenectady, N. Y., to Stand Trial for Alleged Criminal Assault—Skipped His Bail Here.

Donald Burke, who is better known as "Topsy" Burke, has been apprehended in Schenectady, N. Y., and is awaiting requisition papers for his return to Scranton to stand trial for alleged criminal assault on a 16-year-old girl from Jermyn.

The alleged crime took place during the summer under strange circumstances near the Carbondale Gas company's plant. Burke, it was alleged, came upon a party of young folks who were waiting for a car, and told them they were under arrest. There was an immediate scattering, through fear, and all but the Jermyn girl got away from Burke. The alleged assault then followed.

Burke, after being committed to jail by Alderman Jones, on the positive identification of the girl, was released on bail, and later skipped away a few weeks before the case was marked for trial. He went to Schenectady, where there are a number of Carbondale men employed. City Detective Frank Forest learned of the charge against Burke and caused his arrest, pending an investigation. Superintendent of Police Day, at Scranton, was notified of the arrest and reported the matter to District Attorney Conroy.

Detective Phillips being employed on another case, the matter was turned over to Constable Edward Neary, who gathered the evidence against Burke and arrested him in the first instance. Constable Neary will go to Albany, N. Y., with requisition papers on Monday, with which to bring Burke back to Scranton for trial.

AN UNIQUE GATHERING.

Party in Reynshanhurst with Features of Masquerade.

There was a social gathering at the home of the Misses Edith and Edith Carey in Reynshanhurst, Wednesday night, which was marked by many novel features. It was a sort of masquerade, in which the leading spirits were members of the Bon Ton Social club.

The young ladies assembled at the Carey residence early in the evening, arrayed in grotesque costumes, intending to surprise the male portion of the gathering. The former were surprised, however, as the young men, when they arrived, had even more grotesque disguises. Some one had divulged the plans of the hostesses, the young men guests profiting thereby.

After the outbreak of merriment that followed the donning of a jolly evening was spent. Among the funny costumes were that of Charlie Newton and her hatchet, worn by one of the young men. There were numerous social diversions, dancing engaging the young people for the greater part of the evening. Vocal solos by Rex Nicholson and a cake walk by Edward Wilson added appreciably to the night's enjoyment. After the serving of refreshments, several flashlights were taken.

Those who composed the unique gathering were: Misses Grace M. Rittan, Jessie M. Collins, Marie H. Swain, Margaret T. Van der Grint, E. Collins, Carrie E. Frayne, Bessie E. Carey, Florence C. Frayne and Annie E. Carey, and Messrs. Richard Craft, Jr., Julius Oliver, T. Lafayette Nicholson, Oscar W. Wilson, Willie J. Williams, Michael J. Kearney, H. Thomas Robinson and Theodore B. Oliver.

Changes of Position.

Boyd S. Oliver, who satisfactorily filled a clerkship in the Carbondale office of The Tribune for about a year, has taken a position in the Erie yard in this city, which offers good opportunities of advancement.

Clair Oliver has resigned his position with the Pioneer laundry to accept a more favorable place in the office of the Carbondale Machine company.

George Merritt, of Scranton, formerly of the Delaware and Hudson company, has accepted a similar position at the Mayfield yard of the Ontario and Western railroad.

John Conerton has secured a good position in Clarke Brothers' store at Scranton and is now engaged with his new duties.

A Whist Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Townsend, of Gilbert street, entertained a number of friends at whist Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the game prizes were given to the successful players. Prof. H. N. Barrett and Miss Gertrude Vail had the highest scores and Robert Freas and Mr. Alfred Griffiths captured the prizes for low scores. Refreshments were afterwards served, the evening being a most enjoyable one.

having been delightfully spent. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Davis, Prof. and Mrs. H. N. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freas, Mr. and Mrs. A. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Houghton, Misses Grace and Gertrude Vail, Myra Hill and Robert Freas, Jermyn, Walter Neimyer, of Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Miss Helen Berry and George James.

VICTIM OF PARALYSIS.

Joseph Farrell, of Pike Street, Succumbs at Hospital.

Joseph Farrell, of Pike Street, who was stricken with paralysis about six weeks ago, died early yesterday morning at Emergency Hospital. Just prior to the paralytic stroke, Mr. Farrell injured himself severely by striking himself on the limb with an axe while chopping wood.

The deceased was a native Carbondalian. He was born in this city sixty years ago and spent all his life here. For many years he was a faithful employee of the Delaware and Hudson company. He was a simple nature, he was true to his friends and charitable in word and deed. The regret over his being called away will fill a wide circle of friends.

The survivors of Mr. Farrell are one sister, Sister Bernardine, of Detroit, Mich., and one brother, John Farrell, of California.

The funeral will take place Monday morning from the home of the niece of the deceased, 76 Pike Street. There will be a high mass of requiem in St. Rose church, and a burial will be in St. Rose cemetery.

MADE A DESPATCHER.

Michael O'Malley Succeeds Walter Nye—Other Changes.

The numerous friends in this city of Michael O'Malley, of Olyphant, are following him on his advancement to night despatcher under the Delaware and Hudson company in this city. It is only a few months since Mr. O'Malley was promoted to operator in the despatcher's office in Carbondale. Now, quickly follows his being made a despatcher, the reward of his efficiency and fidelity. He succeeds Walter Nye, who is now with the Union Pacific in Montana.

Other changes which followed Mr. O'Malley's advancement is the transfer of David Parry from the Scranton office as the former's successor; Willis R. Moon has gone back to his old position as night operator in the yard in this city, being succeeded as assistant ticket agent at the city station by Frank Rounds, of Uniondale, who heretofore was operator at Panther Bluff, Backus, Brook and Green Ridge.

ANOTHER VENTURE.

A. H. Letts Opens Restaurant in Olyphant.

A. H. Letts, popularly known as Tony Letts, who has been more than ordinarily successful since locating in Carbondale a half dozen years ago, has made another business venture. He has purchased the restaurant owned by W. J. Schumacher, in Olyphant, and is now conducting it together with George Becker, also of this city. Mr. Becker was employed by Mr. Letts and he conducted the restaurant on Salem Avenue, of which John Brown is the present proprietor. He has had abundant experience, easily acquires friends and ought to be a factor in the success of the new enterprise.

The place, which Mr. Letts has purchased, is the most elegantly furnished of any restaurant in the valley between Carbondale and Scranton.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Sunset Mines" Opening Bill.

The Ollis Halford Stock company will open its week's engagement at the open house, Monday, Nov. 17, by presenting "Sunset Mines." This piece was one of the successes of last season and will be produced with all of the original scenery, electrical and mechanical effects.

At the close of the fourth act the heroine is saved from a burning building by the aid of a derrick which she grasps and is swung to safety. High class vaudeville will be given between the acts at every performance. A lady's ticket has been issued for Monday night.

Social Happenings.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Benton entertained a small party of friends at their home on Washington Street, Thursday night, in honor of their son, Mr. G. B. Benton, of New York city.

Mrs. Haydn Evans, was hostess to the Young Ladies' Cooking club, at her residence on Laurel Street, yesterday afternoon.

Miss Martha Rebbeln entertained at a flashlight party at the home of Henry Carter on Canaan Street, Thursday night.

There was an enjoyable gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder, on Farview Street, Thursday night, in honor of their daughter, Miss Emma.

JERMYN—MAYFIELD.

General Manager Clark, Superintendent Coughlin and Chief Clerk Belton, of the Lackawanna Valley Light and Power company and Mr. Griffin, representing the General Electric company, were in town Thursday evening when they met the committee of councilmen who were instructed at the last meeting to investigate the alleged poor service of any lights. The councilmen and the representatives of the company had a heart to heart talk and went over the whole grievance. The committee will report the result of the conference at the next council meeting. The water system adopted by the company for the incandescent lights is still calling forth opposition and several business people have already had their lights cut out on account of the increased cost. It is expected many private consumers will at the end of the month go back to kerosene.

Mrs. J. C. Jermyn, of Dallas, Miss Mary J. Mathers, of Luzerne, and Miss Katharine Drum, of Wilkes-Barre, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Byron Jackson, of Mayfield.

A number of small boys have for some time past been acting disorderly at night on North Main Street and causing considerable annoyance to pedestrians and business men. Chief of Police McKinley captured four of the rascals Thursday evening and they were given a hearing last evening before Squire Keefer, who let them go on payment of costs. It is to be hoped this will put a stop to the obstinate behavior of small boys on the street. Mrs. Stephen Hockaday is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour have moved into the house of Mrs. Jay, where they resided some time ago.

OLYPHANT.

Many of the merchants who were burned out in Thursday's big fire were bustling about yesterday securing temporary quarters. Best Bros, are located in the Ferguson building, Miss O'Brien, the shoe dealer, is in Matthews' building, and Atherton & Sutton have secured the Edwards building in Blakely. It could not be learned definitely yesterday whether all of the burned structures will be rebuilt or not. Mr. Atherton was seen last night and stated that he was as yet undecided, but intimated that he would not rebuild for the present. As some of the other owners reside out of town, their views could not be learned. S. J. Evans' job printing office, which was located in the rear of the O'Boyle building, which was destroyed, was omitted from the list printed yesterday. The building and contents were insured in O'Malley & O'Malley's agency. Yesterday the borough had a gang of linemen repairing the electric light wires and last night everything was in good order. The Lackawanna Telephone company had a force of men on hand erecting poles and stringing wires for a line partially restored between Scranton and Olyphant last night by means of the trunk lines. As soon as the new switchboards arrive they will be installed in the new bank building. The citizens of Olyphant are very grateful to the outstanding fire companies who assisted in fighting the flames and especially the Scranton fire ladders, and words of praise are heard on every side of the way. Chief Ferber directed the work of extinguishing the flames.

The funeral of the late William Williams was held from the home of Reese Jaggis, on Fifth Street, Blakely, yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. George Hague, and were attended by a large gathering of friends of the deceased young man. In conclusion, the remains were taken to Union cemetery and interred. The pallbearers were Philip Phillips, J. L. Davis, James Reed, William Williams and Isaac Griffiths.

Robert Jones, of Blakely, has opened a grocery store in the Evans building on Lackawanna Street.

Services will be held at the usual time in the Blakely Baptist church tomorrow morning and evening. Rev. David Spencer, D. D., pastor.

Services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m. in the Blakely Primitive Methodist church tomorrow. Rev. James Reay, the pastor, will occupy the pulpit. Miss Jennie Langan, of Binghamton, is visiting at her home on Dunmore Street.

Mrs. Frederick Yeomans, of Easton, is the guest of Mrs. Martin Crippen, of Gracely.

Mrs. Frank Brundage, of Scranton, spent yesterday with friends in town. Mrs. W. W. Jones is quite ill at her home in Blakely.

Mrs. Ivor Parry, of West Scranton, visited relatives at this place yesterday. Mr. J. McAndrew, of Paterson, N. J., is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. A. E. Jones, of Archbald, was a visitor in Blakely yesterday.

PECKVILLE.

The Wilson Fire company, by their prompt response to Olyphant's call for aid and their efficient work on arrival at the fire won great praise. The Wilsons were the first fire company to reach Olyphant after the general alarm was sounded.

Roberts Bros. have removed their stock from their Olyphant store to their large new store at Peckville. The Olyphant branch is to be discontinued. A large delegation of Masons and Odd Fellows were at Moose yesterday attending the funeral of the late John B. Blackwell.

Liverman Gook, Tiffany experts in the near future to move his lively business to Forest City.

Atherton and Sutton, whose large store was destroyed at Olyphant Thursday, have leased the store of Z. D. Edwards, situated on Main Street, Blakely.

Benjamin Prosser and family now occupy their neat and attractive new dwelling on Main Street.

Presbyterian church, Rev. S. H. Morn, D. D., pastor. Services Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "The Mystery of Christ's Involvement." Evening, "My Father's Work and My Work." All are welcome.

Peckville Baptist church, Rev. J. S. Thomas, pastor. Services tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "Jeremiah's Experience With The Word of God." In the evening the Sunday school will render its Bible day programme. Everybody cordially invited.

ELMHURST.

Col. F. G. Schoonmaker, Mr. E. F. Hardenbergh, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Buckingham, attended the banquet given by the Masons at Odd Fellows' hall, Monday, at Peckville. Miss Bessie Buckingham, of the Scranton Business college, has accepted a position with the Pennsylvania Casualty Co. in theConnell building.

Mrs. P. Kearney spent Tuesday with friends at Stroudsburg. Will Treible has returned home from Johnson, where he has been spending the past month. Prof. Johns and his singing class gave a concert at Hardenbergh's hall Thursday evening.

TAYLOR.

Services at the Calvary church at the usual hours tomorrow. Sermon in the morning by the pastor. At the evening 6 o'clock service, Rev. D. J. Williams, of Blakely, will deliver an address on "Religion in Wales." Rev. Mr. Williams recently visited the old country, and his address should be interesting and elevating. A song service and rehearsal of new hymns will precede the address.

THROWN FROM FIRE TRUCK

LADDERMAN FRANK SMITH MEETS WITH A SERIOUS ACCIDENT WHILE ANSWERING AN ALARM—HIS STORY OF THE EVENTS THAT FOLLOWED.

While on his way to a fire the sudden jolting of the hook-and-ladder truck threw Fireman Frank Smith from his position on the running board. He struck the pavement head-foremost and was still unconscious when brought to the hospital. It was feared by the house physician that he had received internal injuries which might prove fatal.

Smith is stationed at the Central Fire station in corner Fifth and Valley streets, Burlington, Ia., and in referring to the accident, he said to a reporter: "My whole system had received a violent shock which affected my nerves fearfully. The doctor said I had nervous prostration. I would often start trembling out of a troubled sleep, covered with a cold perspiration, and imagining something horrible was about to happen. There would be times when my whole body would be numb and then again there would be terrible cramps in my limbs.

"I had a long time ago leaving the hospital I was so weak that I could not walk across the room and my strength steadily refused to return. I could not eat and the tonics and appetizers they gave me did me no good. I was too sick to go on duty and the doctor said it would take a long time to recuperate. I was discouraged and disheartened.

"Then a friend persuaded me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They gave me strength, quieted my nerves so that I could get a refreshing night's sleep, my appetite came back and I began to feel better. In a short time I was cured and now I feel perfectly well and strong."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have a double action—on the blood and on the nerves. It is not a cure-all, but the very nature of the remedy makes it efficacious in a wider range of diseases than any other. It is a scientific preparation designed to cure disease through a direct action on the blood and nerves.

It suggests a direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, fifty cents per box; six boxes for two dollars and a half.

Connolly & Wallace Scranton's Shopping Center

The best of its kind means the best your money can buy. We are spending your money and we are accountable for spending it to the best advantage.

Connolly & Wallace's is the fashion center of this part of our country not only because it gets the styles first, but because it gets them right.

Women's Gloves

The Jouvin. The maker—the best in the world—has the finest facilities for working. The skins are selected with the greatest care, and the gloves when finished pass through the hands of three or four different people—if they show the slightest imperfections they are thrown aside.

There is a great variety of beautiful colors—from deep seal and golden brown, all through the brown family, into the light tan, which is almost a cream; front real beavers and modes, to the most delicate shades of mauve. Overseas, three metal clasps; pique sewn with two clasps, or pique sewn with one large pearl button.

$1.50 and $2 Pair

Women's Norfolk Suits

Not since the Russian blouse came into favor has there been a style over which the whole world has gone wild like the Norfolk jacket.

Its loose, easy fitting lines—and its informality—have appealed to hundreds of young girls and grown women, especially in walking suits.

Like most of the winter coats, Norfolks are growing longer. You can have your choice of a loose box back or half fitted—though the latter style is probably becoming to more women.

No material is too fine or good to put into Norfolks—they are even being made of velveteen and fine broadcloth. And on the other hand you stuff is too rough or coarsely woven—indeed, the coarser the better for some of the suits.

Made-Up Muslins

Every sheet and pillow or bolster-case that you buy in this store has been torn, not cut. That means: The edge runs along a thread and the things will always be straight after they are laundered.

"Cheap" muslins are often those that have been cut with the scissors instead of being torn off—any housekeeper knows how they pull out of shape and stretch in points after they have been through the wash.

These are our own brand, put up under our name, of best standard muslin, good weight, soft finish.

Table with 2 columns: PILLOW CASES, SHEETS. Lists various sizes and prices.

Silk Coats for Winter

"Too shivery," said women when we first suggested the idea. But to overcome this we have taken the warmest, softest flannel and interlined them until they are cozy and comfortable for the coldest days.

You will find them mostly lined with white—they can be slipped on over the most delicate gown without hurt.

All lengths, short, medium and long, close fitting or Monte Carlo style.

$25 to $85 Each

Ladies' Handkerchiefs 9c

These are hemstitched and scalloped, embroidered and drawn-work Handkerchiefs, worth from 12 1/2 to 20 cents each. Choice among them at 9c each, or $1 a dozen.

It's the best Handkerchief value we've seen in a long time and should be doubly appreciated at this time of the year—the nearness of the Christmas season.
