A Timely Suggestion. "Now that winter with its bad weather is with us I would advise every family to provide themselves against sudden attacks of coughs and colds by keeping at hand a good cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which is the best among the many preparations for these ailments that I have on my shelves," says Mr. L. C. Newville, the well known and popular druggist of Pittsburg, Ind. "I recommend this remedy and guarantee it to be without an equal for coughs and colds, also as a preventive and cure for grip." Buy it now. For sale by all druggists.

PITSTON. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pitston, Nov. 20.—John Nash, who recently returned from New York city, where he had been working for several months, has accepted a position as clerk in the office of the Seneca colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company.

There is talk of organizing a new gun club on the West Side. The town has had two gun clubs—the Nitro and the Black Diamonds—but they have dropped almost out of existence, and it is hoped that the new one will be a permanent organization. No definite action in relation to the organization has been taken yet.

The common council held a special session this evening in the office of the city clerk.

A fast freight, which left Coxton yard yesterday at noon, met with disaster on the mountain near Glen Summit. A blange on one of the wheels of a freight car broke and fifteen cars were derailed, and nine of them badly damaged. Leon Fitch has been confined to his home, on Exeter street, for the past few weeks and is recovering very slowly.

Mrs. Thomas Hoolihan, aged 25 years, wife of Thomas Hoolihan, proprietor of the Keystone hall block, on South Main street, died very suddenly this morning at 4 o'clock, at her home on West Railroad street, after a brief illness. Death is attributed to a fall which she had about two weeks ago while returning home from a church service. She was not considered in a serious condition, and it was not until an hour before her death that it was thought there was any danger of a fatal illness. She was formerly Miss Celia O'Boyle. Funeral Saturday morning.

Mrs. Dr. McFallen has returned home from the Wilkes-Barre hospital, where she has been undergoing treatment. She is much improved.

JUDGE GLANGY Of Hornellsville, N.Y., Hands Down an Important Decision

Judge James H. Glangy of Hornellsville, N. Y., and one of the most prominent members of the bar in that historic town, decided recently that as against Blood and Liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was worthy of the highest praise. He says: "I have used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and strongly recommend it for liver trouble and blood disorder. It built me right up and I improved greatly in health."

Geo. H. Tift of 878 River street, Troy, N. Y., suffered from liver trouble and his blood was all out of order and after using "Favorite Remedy," has this to say: "For any one suffering from that run down or tired out feeling, caused by blood or liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best medicine you can buy. I have used it and I know."

The one sure cure for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

It matters not how sick you are, how long you have suffered, or how many physicians have failed to help you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you if a cure is possible. THEATRICAL.

"Rupert of Hentzau." At the Lyceum last night there was a fine presentation of a dramatization of Anthony Hope's stirring story, "Rupert of Hentzau." Harry Leighton, a graceful and capable actor, appeared in the dual role of the King of Ruritania and Rudolph Rassendyll, a young Englishman, and made a fine impression.

Henry Miller Tonight. At the Lyceum this evening occurs one of the theatrical events of the season. Henry Miller will appear in the part of Eric Temple in "Hearsease." In an interesting article written by Mr. Miller in a recent magazine, he said, in part: "My ideal workshop is a theater with a fine stock company. My ideal company would consist of, say, twelve brilliant players, each with an interest in proprietary right, as well as a salary—and all under the direction of one absolutely recognized head."

"The Parish Priest." From the title, "The Parish Priest," one would judge that Daniel Sully's latest production was a strictly religious one. On the contrary, there is not enough religion in it to make one, like the most constant and loyal church-goer, Father Whalen, the role assumed by Mr. Sully, is a man, a human like other men, and of a high race, broader chest and finer physique, and a loyal church-goer. Father Whalen, the role assumed by Mr. Sully, is a man, a human like other men, and of a high race, broader chest and finer physique, and a loyal church-goer.

Monday Night, "York State Folks." "York State Folks," with the original metropolitan company and production, will be seen at the Lyceum Monday evening. This realistic production is being given country town by reason of its truthfulness in detail—scenically, historically and historically—has met with a remarkable reception for its presentation of the story of the "York State Folks," which has been called the "legitimate successor" to the "Old Homestead" and "Shore Acres," and many critics have pronounced it the "best thing yet seen on the stage." Seats on sale this morning at 9 o'clock.

"The Christian" Coming Again. Contemporaneous authors and oppositely managed authors have admitted that the greatest successes of the modern stage is "The Christian"; moreover, the continuous patronage of the public attests the wonderful merit of the play. This play, now in its fifth season, is still drawing crowded houses.

Myrtle-Harder Stock Company. The repertoire of the Myrtle-Harder stock company, which has been running a week is a particularly attractive one. This afternoon, "A Naval Cadet" will be repeated; tonight, "The Unknown" will be presented. Saturday afternoon, the well-known and popular romance of Connecticut, "A Nutmeg Match"; Saturday night, "Kidnapped." Five up-to-date specialties are introduced between the acts at every performance.

The Great Ten-Ichi Coming. The illustrated papers of many of the big cities are filled with pictures and descriptions of the feats as performed by the great Ten-Ichi troupe who are to be at the Dixie theater next week. Nothing but words of praise have been said about this great troupe.

The management of the Dixie in bringing to Scranton such an attraction has done a good thing for its patrons, for this company have hitherto appeared only in the large cities, and no salary inducement that could be offered him would be accepted by this ten-Ichi troupe. The management of the Dixie will be under the necessity of cancelling the entire free list for the coming week, except the press and advertising privileges.

All Next Week, Himmelslein's Ideals. The scenery and costumes used in the big production "Captain Impudence," which inaugurates the engagement of John A. Himmelslein's Ideals in this city Monday evening at the Academy of Music are said to surpass anything heretofore attempted in repertoire. The settings are realistic in the extreme, and being
