Fender On a Street Car Saves a Child from Probable Death On South Main Avenue-General News Notes.

Main avenue, when a little girl was saved from probable death beneath the wheels of a moving street car. The child attempted to cross the north bound track in front of the First Baptist church and did not notice an approaching car. Just as she reached rail, she was struck by the fender and tossed into the net. Her screams attracted a number of persons and the car was brought to a sudden stop. The passengers were tossed about in their seats and the onlookers feared the Sentence prayer. child was injured, but when she was lifted from the fender and examined it was apparent that she was unhurt, and only suffered from fright. She hurried away before her name could be learned.

A horse attached to a 4-Cant store delivery wagon became frightened yes-terday afternoon while standing on Swetland street, and before anyone could hold him in check, ran away. By colliding with a post the horse and shafts were separated from the wagon. The animal continued its flight down to Ninth street and out to West Lacka-wanna avenue, and in crossing the street car tracks fell in front of Porter Bros.' place. After rolling down the hill for about forty feet the horse regained his feet again.

He dashed across the Lackawanna railroad tracks and turned into Dockash place, where he was finally caught. The driver was in a house when the horse started and left him untied. The animal was somewhat injured by the fall,

Searching for Lost Child.

The parents of Paul Skoda, aged years, have been making a diligent search for their little one, who wandered away from their home at No. 7 Brisbin patch, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and has not been seen since. They searched all through the day and night and yesterday invoked the aid of the police, but up to a late hour last night, the whereabouts of the child was un-

The child wore a black cap, blue sweat er, light coat, brown corduroy pants, dark shoes and has dark complexion and dark hair. Anyone who has seen or heard of the child will favor the parents by notifying them or the police.

AT FIRST GLANCE.

It Would Appear That Local Remedies Would Be Best for Cure of Catarrh.

It would seem at first glance that catarrh being a disease of the mucous membrane, that salves, sprays, etc., being applied directly to the membranes of the nose and throat, would be the most rational treatment, but this has been proven not to be true. The mucous membrane is made and repaired from the blood and catarrh is a blood disease and any remedy to make a permanent cure must act on the blood, and when the blood is purified from catarrhal poison, the secretions from the mucous membrane will become natural and healthy.

In this climate, thousands of people seem scarcely ever free from some form of catarrh; It gets better at times but each winter becomes gradually deeper seated, and after a time the sufferer resigns himself to it as a necessary

Catarrh cures are almost as numerous as catarrh sufferers, but are nearly all so inconvenient and ineffective as to render their use a nuisance nearly as annoying as catarrh itself; anyone who has used douches, sprays and powders will bear witness to their inconvenience and failure to really cure. There are a number of excellent internal remedies for catarrh, but probably the best and certainly the safest tic remedies and other valuable catarrh specifics. This remedy is in tablet form, pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and anyone suffering from catarrh may use these tablets with absolute assurance that they contain no cocaine, opiate nor any poisonous mineral whatever. A leading druggist in Albany speaking of catarrh cures says: "I have sold various catarrh cures for years, but have never sold any which gave such general satisfaction as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They contain in a pleasant, concentrated form all the best and latest catarrh remedies, and catarrh sufferers, who have used douches, sprays and salves, have been astonished at the quick relief and permanent results obtained after a week's use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets," All druggists sell full sized packages for fifty
