The Flex bility of a "Dorothy Dodd"

Concerning Shoes

INJITH every step, the sole of your shoe must bend. The proper place for it to bend is at the "ball" of the foot---never at the instep.

To make it bend at the "ball" two things are necessary:---the sole must be extremely flexible while the shank or arch must be extremely rigid.

Most shoes bend at the shank, thus losing their shapeliness and tiring the weak arch of the foot. This is what makes walking for women so fatiguing.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe has a shank that supports the weak arch firmly. It will not bend. The method of sewing the shank is different from the ordinary. It is sewn through and through---making a strong, firm shank that cannot be obtained any other way. It has a sole that is extremely flexible and will bend.

Every step in such shoes is a delight.

They cost $3.00.

You have a chance at that $1,000 or first prize. It's easy. Ask us for particulars

"Heartsease."

Henry Miller appeared at the Lyceum last night in a revival of Charles Klein and J. I. C. Clarke's romantic comedy, "Heartsease." It was a splendid audience that greeted the players, proving the popularity of Mr. Miller in Scranton as well as the play in which he appeared. Mr. Miller gave a fine reading of the lines of Eric Temple and at the end of each act the curtain had to be rung up again and again. very good company assisted Mr. Mil-Miss Grace Elliston is beautiful, as

Hon. Miss Neville should be, and she played the role with fine feeling. Augustus Cook's Lord Neville was a fine bit of work but Thomas J. Molloy was not an acceptable Sir Geoffrey Pomfret. H. S. Northup made a capital Captain O'Hara and scored both in the love scenes with Alice Temple and in the more serious episodes of the last act.

The four acts of the comedy are very handsomely staged.

Special Matinee Today. At the Lyceum tonight and at a spe cial matinee this afternoon Daniel Sully will present for the last time in Scrantor Daniel L. Hart's great drama, "The Par-

It seems surprising that a priest could be used as a central figure, and yet not once utilize his calling but Daniel L. Hart has skillfully handled his clergy-man, who, divested of his collar, could represent any calling. His Father Whalen teems with honest sentiment, and Mr. Sully possesses the wonderful faculty of reaching the heart of the auditors with-out any apparent effort. See advertisement for special matinee prices.

WHEN LIFE'S AT STAKE

The most timid man will take any chance of escape. The slender rope dropped down the precipice, the slippery log over the abyss, anything that offers a chance of life, is eagerly snatched at. The end the man seeks is safety. He cares nothing for the means to that end.

There are thouands of men and women whose lives are at stake, vho are hindered from accepting the one means o safety by foolish prejudice. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been the means of restoring health to many men and low cough, bleed-ing lungs, ema-ciation and weakness seemed to ment of local physicians-"There is no cure possible."

Why should prejudice against a put-up medicine hinder you from trying what and women?

"Only for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave to-day," writes Mr. Moses Miles, of Hilliard, Uinta Co., Wyoming. "I had asthma so had I could not sleep at night and was compelled to give up work. Itsaffected my lungs so that I coughed all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wrife had taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it had helped her so much she insisted on virying his 'Golden Medical Discovery' ch I did. I have taken four bottles and am ow a well man, weighing 185 pounds, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

"The Christian."

Hall Caine's great play, "The Christian," is beyond question the most talked of, popular and successful drama of the day. It comes to the Lyceum on Tues day night and presented by a splendic company under the management of Lieb-

One of the most affecting scenes in where John Storm enters the apartment of Glory Quayle at night with the purse of making her pray and saving her ul through death. But the love of soul through death. But the love of Glory triumphs, The play ends with a mutual understanding between them, de-ciding to brave life's battles together.

The Thanksgiving Attraction.

When Miss Alice Fischer comes to the next Wednesday night and Thanksgiving matinee and night, direct from her 100-night run in "Mrs, Jack" at Wallack's and the Victoria theaters In New York, it would seem advisable for theater-goers in search of an evening of laughter and a sure cure for the blues to make the acquaintance of this lively western widow around whom Miss Grace Livingston Furniss has built her farcial

"Kidnapped" Tonight.

The Myrkie-Harder Stock company close their week's engagement at the Academy of Music tonight with the production of "Kidnapped." This afternoon "A Nutmeg Match" will be repeated. Five excellent specialties will be introduced at each performance.

Dixie Offer for Opening Performance.

The management of the Dixie theater desirous of having the largest crowd ever in that pretty play house at the Monday matinee when Ten-Ichi opens his engagement, and to that end makes this remarkable offer: Anyone purchas-ing a reserved seat ticket for the mainee Monday, Nov. 24, will, by retaining the seat coupon be entitled to a general admission ticket free, for the following Monday matinee performance, Dec. 1, or of he prefers the coupon will count at seconds for the purchasing of a reserved seat for the same date.
The idea of this offer is that the larg est audience ever seen in the Dixie the-ater may be in attendance at the initial performance of Ten-Ichi, and that the mpression made will serve as an advergrammes.

It has taken some time for Scranton to become familiar with, and enjoy, vaudeville, but the new Dixie theater is opening the eyes of the public to the fact that there is much to enjoy in this opular form of entertainment, and has aught them to appreciate the opportun-ty given them at a low price, to run in nt any time and see several good acts, and among such pleasant surroundings, The present attraction has much to recommend it and the coming of the great Ten-Ichi next week will be an event long to be remembered. The thumb-tying feat of Ten-Ichi has created more talk than any other trick of the past decade. Another wonder is the enchanted fountain that aprings at the word of command from all sorts of ob-
