

Turkey and Good Clothes

Both Are Very Interesting
Just at This Time. . . .

You'll admit that we're justified in saying our assortment of good clothes is the largest, and we honestly believe the best, in this city. We've done our share in making it so. You've done yours by hearty appreciation and co-operation—made it possible to produce the best at prices that are consistent. The volume of business done in every department of this store has won the prompt attention of the best manufacturers. This has been proved by the well known style of our Ready-to-Wear Clothes. Just now we are showing some medium length full Box Overcoats. They only arrived from the tailors this week. Should have been here ten days ago, but our way of construction takes a little longer, so we can't complain. You can see them displayed in our show windows. Also many new Suit patterns. The prices for such style and $10, $12.50, $15, $18 cloth quality should be interesting to you

Hats That Are Popular

Were you ever among the young men who congregate in our large Furnishing Department? Some come to buy; some don't. Just come in to find out what's new. In our Hat Department this week we are showing some styles you haven't seen at

$2 and $2.50

Suits For the Boy

We are justly proud of the artistic side of our Boys' Suits for this Fall season, but we do not by any means ask you to believe that we have reached our goal of perfection. We have only done our best for this season. Improved wherever possible; in some the tailoring in others the style. Such clothes are satisfying to the boy and to you.

Overcoats For the Boy

This season our Boys' Overcoats are easily detected among other makes. "The Military Hood" and many other novel designs have been most popular. Some are made in grey, others in blue cadet cloth, with double rows of brass military buttons. It's quite a pleasure to show you how the boy looks in such coats. Many others at different prices.

Evangelistic services will be held in the six principle Baptist churches this week. On Thursday evening a union Thanksgiving service will be held and Rev. Caterer will preach.

Saturday was a day of events in Dalton. Early in the morning one of E. L. Fuller's carriages collided with a rope supporting the hoisting machine used on the bridge and damaged the top a considerable. While workmen on the bridge were engaged putting some large stones in the bridge to fill up one of the holes on the exposed water main crossing the bridge, which broke it and there was a great flood of water for a time. Mr. Mack, who lives on Frank Calvin's place, had a horse die in the morning and in the afternoon one of Mrs. Carlton's horses became frightened at the dead animal and nearly ran away. The series of events closed by blankets being stolen from a carriage while under the shed.

QUICK HANDLING OF ENGINES.

Interesting Figures Compiled by the Lackawanna Road.

An indication of the extraordinary efficiency in equipment and service required as a result of increased business both in coal and general freight traffic on the Lackawanna railroad is shown by some figures which have recently been compiled in regard to the movement of locomotives at the Scranton terminal and by which it appears that 419 locomotives were furnished for movement of freight in twenty-four hours, an average movement of one locomotive every three and one-half minutes.

An analysis of the 419 movements shows 167 engines dispatched for freight movement, and the same number of engines coming in on freight arrivals, make a total of 334, the balance being for switch and pusher engines and for trains moving to and from the mines.

It is doubtful whether there is any busier terminal in the country than the Scranton terminal of the Lackawanna road and the movement is remarkable considering the fact that there is seldom any delay or congestion affecting the movement of through trains.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

NOT BUYING INDUSTRIES.

"We are not buying industries for this city," said Secretary C. S. Seamans, of the board of trade, yesterday, as he tossed into the waste-basket a letter from a New York company which makes a specialty of locating industries.

In this letter it was proposed to establish an industry paying out $800 in wages per week in this city, providing the board of trade could see its way clear to securing subscriptions for $25,000 worth of stock and to offering a free site exempt from taxes.

"We could get any number of industries," said Mr. Seamans, "providing we fulfilled certain conditions like the ones offered by this concern, but we do not feel that we should go into the market and offer to buy them. We are willing to do certain reasonable things to bring industries here, but we will not consent to capitalize a company and furnish it with free land."
